Cardinal Chatter

Seventeen Stanford University track & field athletes (11 men, 6 women) will be competing at the prestigious Penn Relays (April 26-27) in Philadelphia ... The Penn Relays has long been regarded as one of the premier track & field meets in the United States ... This year, more than 22,000 athletes will be competing in a meet that is likely to top 100,000 for attendance for the third straight year ... Saturday's attendance has averaged 45,000 for the last six years, and makes the meet the best attended track & field event in the United States each year, and one of the best attended in the world ... Stanford will compete in seven relay events (men's and women's distance medley relay, women's 4 x 1,500 meters, men's 4 x 400 meter relay, women's 4 x 800 meters, men's 4 x mile, and the men's 4 x 800 meters) ... Last year at the Penn Relays, Stanford set three school records in the relay events, and the men's 4 x mile team captured top honors ... Also slated for Friday-Saturday will be the Cal Open at Berkeley ... A sizable number of Cardinal track & field athletes will be competing ... Friday is devoted exclusively to the hammer with the men's competition at 2:00 p.m., followed by the women's competition at 4:00 p.m. ... Field events begin Saturday at 9:30 a.m. with the women's javelin, and the first running event is the women's 400 meter relay at noon.
