Stanford Story

2002 Pacific-10 Track & Field Championships
Saturday-Sunday, May 18-19, Mooberry Track Complex
Washington State University
Pullman, Wa
72nd annual for men; 16th annual for women

Cardinal Chatter

The Stanford men's track & field team will hope to defend its Pac-10 title when the team travels to the conference meet on Saturday-Sunday (May 18-19) at Washington State ... Last year, the Cardinal tallied 142 points to outscore USC by six points ... Stanford scored in 16 of the 21 events contested ... Seventy-four of those points came in the 800, 1,500 and 5,000 meters ... The victory was the first conference title for the Stanford men in 74 years ... Conference winners for Stanford were Michael Stember in the 800 meters, Gabriel Jennings in the 1,500 meters, Jesse Thomas in the 3,000 meter steeplechase and Michael Ponikvar in the high jump ... With the exception of the graduated Stember, all of Stanford's winners are back to try to repeat their winning efforts ... The Cardinal women finished in third place with 120.5 points at the conference meet last year ... UCLA won the Pac-10 title with 155 points ... The graduated Sally Glynn, in the 1,500 meters, was the lone conference winner for Stanford.
