Chris Lewis
#10

Long Beach, California
Junior/Senior QB
6-3 215

At Stanford: Poised and ready to assume the starting quarterback duties for the Cardinal in 2002 ... Chris has played a lot of football for Stanford as a backup the past two years and has shown that he has the tools to be an outstanding quarterback ... His level of confidence, maturity, and knowledge of the game and the quarterback position have improved each season since he arrived at Stanford ... He is no stranger to Pac-10 football ... He has played in 17 games and started seven the past two years, leading the Cardinal to victories over some of the top teams in the nation, including some thrilling last-minute wins ... He has completed 182-of-367 passes for 2,456 yards, 20 touchdowns and 13 interceptions ... Has shown a knack for heroics with game-winning touchdown passes against Texas and USC in 2000 ... Has also shown he can beat the best with wins over No. 4 Oregon and No. 5 UCLA in 2001 ... Two more years of eligibility remaining ... Tremendous leader, with an excellent work-ethic.

The 2001 Season: While Chris was officially listed as the back up quarterback, he received significant playing time in both a reserve and starting role and was impressive when called upon to lead the Cardinal offense ... He played in nine games (bowl game stats do not count towards season and career totals) and started four ... He continued to improve and mature as a quality Pac-10 quarterback ... His play during Randy Fasani's absence was one of the keys to Stanford's success in 2001 ... With Fasani out for four-and-a-half games with a knee injury, Lewis stepped in and guided the Cardinal to a come-from-behind win at No. 5 Oregon and a 3-1 record as the starting quarterback ... He completed 90-of-163 passes for 1,277 yards, 12 touchdowns and eight interceptions for the season ... His 135.5 pass efficiency rating ranked him fourth in the Pac-10 and 34th in the nation ... He played the entire second half against Oregon on October 20 and started the next four vs. UCLA, Washington, Arizona and California ... In those games, he completed 84-of-150 passes for 1,229 yards and 12 touchdowns ... Against Oregon, Lewis engineered a 21-point fourth quarter that saw the Cardinal erase a 42-28 deficit to win 49-42 ... He completed 12-of-26 for 189 yards and two TDs in that game ... The next week against No. 4 UCLA, Lewis was an efficient 20-of-29 for 250 yards and three touchdowns ... The following week at No. 10 Washington, Lewis completed 19-of-34 for 231 yards in a hard-fought 42-28 loss to the Huskies ... He came back to beat Arizona in Tucson the next week as he led the Cardinal to a 51-37 win ... He threw for three touchdowns and 169 yards on a 13-of-23 effort against the Wildcats ... In Stanford's 35-28 Big Game win over Cal, he threw for a career-high 390 yards and four TDs ... Did not play in the final two games of the season vs. Notre Dame and San Jose State after Fasani returned from his injury ... In the 2001 Seattle Bowl, Lewis came on to replace Fasani late in the third quarter in a game the Cardinal trailed 17-6 ... He promptly led Stanford on its only touchdown drive of the game, a 10-play, 82-yard march that culminated in a four-yard touchdown pass to Teyo Johnson ... Lewis then hit Ryan Wells on a two-point conversion to bring the Cardinal within three at 17-14 ... For the game, he completed 6-of-13 for 110 yards and one touchdown and was named Stanford's Player of the Game ... Named Honorable Mention Academic All-Pac-10.

The 2000 Season: In his first season after redshirting in '99, he was not only the team's backup quarterback for eight games, but a starter in the other three and hero in two games as he came off the bench to throw game-winning touchdowns in the final moments vs. Texas and USC ... His starts came in games four, five and six vs. Arizona, at Notre Dame and at Oregon State ... He threw for 1,179 yards and eight touchdowns while completing 92-of-204 ... He replaced Randy Fasani in the first quarter vs. No. 5 Texas and proceeded to throw for 214 yards and three touchdowns ... He threw the game-winning touchdown to DeRonnie Pitts with 1:12 to play to give Stanford a 27-24 upset win ... He came off the bench in the final moments vs. USC and threw a game-winning 20-yard TD pass to Jamien McCullum on the game's final play, giving the Cardinal a 32-30 victory ... Against UCLA, he played the entire second half and almost led the Cardinal to another come-from-behind win ... He passed for 204 yards and two touchdowns against the Bruins in a 37-35 loss ... As a reserve, he threw for 575 yards with six touchdowns and no interceptions in eight games ... Passed for a season-high of 242 yards and two touchdowns at Notre Dame ... Co-winner along with Kirk Chambers for the Menlo-Atherton Trophy as the team's top freshman.

The 1999 Season: Redshirted the season as a backup quarterback.

In High School: One of the top recruits in the nation ... Named the 1998 Gatorade National High School Football Player of the Year ... A consensus Prep All-America quarterback ... Also named to the Parade All-America First-Team ... SuperPrep ranked him No. 21 on its list of the nation's top recruits while PrepStar named him to its "Dream Team" and its Super 30 All-West Team ... He set the California state career record with 107 TD passes ... The National Recruiting Advisor placed him No. 35 on its list of the nation's top 100 recruits ... SuperPrep not only named him an All-American, but the third best quarterback prospect in the nation ... As a senior, he completed 174-of-293 for 3,170 yards and 43 touchdowns ... Threw for 8,616 yards in his career at Long Beach Poly High School ... Threw for 398 yards and seven touchdowns in one game ... Following his senior season, he was named USA Today Second-Team All-American, CIF Division I Offensive Player of the Year, Moore League Offensive Player of the Year, Orange County Register Feb 15, Long Beach Press-Telegram "Best in the West," and Los Angeles Times Glenn Davis Player of the Year ... Received many accolades following his junior season, including Student Sports Magazine First-Team All-American, All-CIF Division I, All-Moore League, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team ... Also an outstanding volleyball player ... Member of the USA Volleyball Junior National Champions in 1998 ... An All-League volleyball player in high school ... Finalist for the Franklin D. Watkins Award as the top Afro-American student-athlete in the country (Stanford flanker Luke Powell was also a finalist).
