Tulsa, Oklahoma
Team Championship: May 22-25
Individual Championship: May 26-31

COMING UP: After defeating Pacific (CA) in the first round of the NCAA Tournament and slipping past a tough Washington squad in the second round, the Cardinal head to Tulsa, Oklahoma to participate in the NCAA Championship.

CARDINAL SEASON NOTES: Legendary Head Coach Dick Gould will lead the Cardinal into the NCAA Tournament one last time before retiring at the conclusion of the season to assume the position of Director of Tennis for the university. During his 38-year run, Gould has amassed an overall record of 775-147 (.841), and an amazing 87-10 (.897) dual match record in NCAA Tournament play ... Stanford has won 17 NCAA Team Championships, the most in NCAA history ... Entering the 2003-04 season, every player who has played four years under Gould's tutelage has won an NCAA Championship ring ... Stanford defeated Pacific (CA), 4-0, in the first round of the tournament, then slipped past No. 23 ranked Washington, 4-2, in the second round to advance to the round of 16 ... The Cardinal own a 15-7 record versus ranked opponents and a 9-4 mark versus Pac-10 foes this season ... Junior Sam Warburg, who captured the Pac-10 individual singles title at last month's Pac-10 Championships, was selected as the Pac-10 Player of the Year, and named to the All-Pac-10 First Team. Freshman James Wan was named Co-Newcomer of the Year with Washington's Alex Slovic, while sophomore KC Corkery was selected to the All-Pac-10 Second Team ...

STANFORD IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT: No team has captured more NCAA team championships than Stanford, who has won 17 titles ... The Cardinal have posted an amazing 87-10 (.897) dual match record during NCAA Championship play ... Since the NCAA adopted its current tournament format in 1977, Stanford has won 15 of a possible 27 championships and has finished as runner-up twice ... Stanford has also been home to 13 NCAA singles champions and 13 NCAA doubles champions. The Cardinal's 13 singles championships ranked second all-time, while their 13 doubles titles rank third all-time ... Stanford last won the NCAA team championship in 2000, the same year that Alex Kim claimed the NCAA singles championship.

(Computer rankings based on performance throughout the year)

CARDINAL IN THE RANKINGS: The Cardinal are ranked No. 9 in the latest ITA poll, while three players are ranked among the nation's best. Junior Sam Warburg has reached a career-best No. 8 national ranking after winning the Pac-10 singles championship, while sophomore KC Corkery is ranked No. 65 and freshman James Wan is ranked No. 102. The doubles tandem of Corkery and Warburg are currently ranked No. 8 in the country, while Corkery and sophomore James Pade are ranked No. 32. The team of senior Carter Morris and Warburg are ranked No. 35.

THE CARDINAL'S ROAD TO TULSA: First Round: Stanford 4, Pacific 0 - The Cardinal opened the 2004 NCAA Tournament with a 4-0 win over the Pacific Tigers in first round action at the Taube Tennis Center. The Cardinal opened the match by capturing the doubles point. The tandem of senior captain Carter Morris and junior Sam Warburg cruised to an 8-2 win over Pacific's Lennart Maack and Niclas Otte. Stanford sealed up the doubles point when KC Corkery and doubles partner junior Phil Sheng dispatched UOP's Michael Duong and Vladimir Zdravkovic, 8-3. Stanford stayed aggressive during singles play, capturing three consecutive matches to collect the 4-0. Corkery handled Pacific's Arnar Sigurdsson, 6-1, 6-1, at the No. 2 singles spot, while Morris was the next Cardinal to finish, downing Otte, 6-1, 6-2 at the No. 5 singles position. Warburg, the 2004 Pac-10 Player of the Year, closed out the win for the Cardinal with a 6-3, 6-2 win over Maack, the 2004 Big West Conference Player of the Year, 6-3, 6-2.

Second Round: Stanford 4, Washington 2 - In the second round, the Cardinal rallied for a thrilling 4-2 win over the No. 23 ranked Washington Huskies. Stanford battled the Huskies in the doubles matches, but Washington would earn the doubles point. Needing four of the six singles matches to advance, the Cardinal came out refocused. Corkery evened the score at 1-1 with a 6-3, 6-2 straight sets win over No. 25 ranked Alex Slovic at the No. 2 singles spot. Stanford would go up 2-1 when Warburg, ranked No. 8 in the latest ITA poll, collected an impressive 6-3, 6-2 win over No. 10 ranked Alex Vlaski at the No. 1 singles spot. Morris, the Cardinal team captain, gave Stanford a 3-1 advantage with a straight sets, 6-4, 6-4, win over Nick Weiss at the No. 6 spot. Sophomore James Pade rallied to defeat Scharler, 3-6, 6-2, 7-5, at the No. 5 singles spot, clinching the win for the Cardinal.

WARBURG WINS PAC-10 SINGLES TITLE, SHENG/WAN WIN DOUBLES TITLE: Junior Sam Warburg capped a brilliant Pac-10 Individual Tournament by capturing the men's singles title. Warburg collected five wins in four days en route to winning the title. In the finals of the singles main draw, The Sacramento, CA native collected a 7-6, 6-3 straight sets win over USC's No. 31 ranked Adriano Biaselia to claim the Pac-10 men's singles crown. Warburg is the ninth Stanford men's tennis player to capture the Pac-10 singles title since the tournament began in 1987. In an all-Stanford invitational doubles final, junior Phil Sheng and freshman James Wan edged the freshman duo of Eric McKean and Chris Rasmussen, 8-5 to claim the title.

WARBURG, WAN AND CORKERY HONORED: Junior Sam Warburg was selected as the 2004 Pacific-10 Conference Player of the Year, as voted on by the league coaches. Freshman standout James Wan was named as the 2004 Pac-10 Co-Newcomer of the Year, sharing the award with Washington's Alex Slovic. Warburg has enjoyed a dominant junior season, posting a 28-7 overall record and capturing the Pacific-10 Singles Championship. This season, Warburg has recorded a 19-3 dual match record and has registered a 15-2 mark versus Pac-10 opponents. Ranked No. 71 in the ITA preseason poll, Warburg has competed against and defeated some of the best players in the country, earning a career-high No. 8 ranking in the latest ITA poll. Warburg has posted a 19-3 record versus ranked opponents and a perfect 7-0 record versus opponents ranked in the top 25. In addition to winning the conference player of the year award, Warburg was also named to the Pac-10 First Team. Wan has enjoyed a spectacular first season on The Farm. The Woodbury, NY native is currently ranked No. 102 in the latest ITA rankings. Wan has had an immediate impact on the Cardinal lineup, stepping in to post a 27-4 overall record and a near perfect 23-1 dual match record, while playing primarily at the No. 3 and No. 4 singles spots. This season, Wan has posted an 11-2 mark versus Pac-10 opponents. Sophomore KC Corkery, currently ranked No. 65 in the country, garnered Second Team All-Pac-10 honors for the second year in a row. The Manhattan Beach, CA native was slowed by injuries in the beginning of the season, but came on late in the season, posting a 5-1 record in his last six matches. Corkery owns a 13-13 overall record and a 12-10 mark in dual match play.

Men's Tennis Head Coach

** 2000 NCAA Coach of the Year ****

Few coaches in the history of Division I athletics have obtained the level of success that Stanford men's tennis Head Coach Dick Gould has achieved. After 38 years and 17 national titles, the legendary coach will retire at the end of the 2003-04 season. However, Gould will still be very much involved with Stanford tennis as he will assume the position of Director of Tennis for the university. The men's tennis program will be in good hands as longtime associate head coach, John Whitlinger, who was an NCAA Singles and Doubles Champion on The Farm, will take over the head coaching duties on September 1, 2004.

"Stanford has provided me with an incredible 38-year journey," said Gould. "I will be forever indebted to the wonderful young men with whom I had the great pleasure to work, and who in turn have taught me so much and made my life so rich. As for the future, I am looking forward to the continuing privilege of serving this fantastic university and Stanford Athletics as the Director of Tennis. There is much to be done as we strive to maintain and improve our tradition of excellence, and I am thankful the Department of Athletics has afforded me the opportunity to be an integral part of this."

Throughout the years, Gould, the John L. Hinds Director of Men's Tennis, has proven himself to be one of the top collegiate tennis coaches in the nation. Gould was honored by Wilson Sporting Goods and the ITA as "Coach of the Decade" in men's collegiate tennis during the 1980s and again for the 1990's. The award is fitting as Gould's Stanford teams captured six NCAA team titles in both the 80's and 90's. Gould was also named the 2000 NCAA Coach of the Year.

Under the tutelage of Gould, some of the world's finest tennis players have developed their games during NCAA play at Stanford. A list of former players reads somewhat like a Who's Who in Professional Tennis. In total, 15 different Stanford players have reached the finals, and 12 others have reached the semifinals of the NCAA singles tournament while playing for Gould. Under Gould's watch, 10 players have captured the national championship, while another 10 players have finished as national runner ups in the NCAA doubles tournament. Forty-nine of his players have earned All-America honors. The Cardinal men's team has finished in the NCAA top five in 29 out of the last 34 years. In NCAA team competition, Stanford has won 87 of 97 (.897) matches during the 25 years in which it was invited to participate.

On three occasions, Stanford has captured back-to-back NCAA titles-1973-74, 1977-78 and 1980-81. The Cardinal won three consecutive team titles from 1988-90 and four in a row from 1995-98. Three Gould-coached squads have recorded unblemished records in 1998 (28-0), 1995 (27-0) and 1978 (24-0), and five times his teams have lost only one match.

The 1998 team is regarded by many as one of the best all-time teams, posting a 28-0 record while losing just three points the entire year. For his efforts leading the team, Gould earned ITA/Wilson Intercollegiate Coach of the Year honors and was named the U.S. Olympic Committee Coach of the Year in 1998.

Gould is renowned not only for his coaching and recruiting skill, but also as a pioneer in the collegiate tennis world. The 66-year-old coach initiated major college indoor matches in 1974, opening the doors of Stanford's spacious Maples Pavilion in matches that attracted 7,5000 fans to view collegiate competition in the comfort of an indoor arena.

Gould also spearheaded campaigns to raise $16 million for the building of the Taube Tennis Center. The Taube Family Tennis Stadium provides permanent loge-type theater seating for 2,500 spectators, locker room facilities for home and visiting teams, an indoor practice range as well as a championship indoor court. The prestigious Orsak Family Heritage Room houses the 30 national championship men's and women's team trophies earned in the past 31 years. It also features a mural of all individual national collegiate champions. The extensive seminar space has been funded by the Koret Foundation and the Rick and Donna Fluegal Family Foundation, and furnished largely by the Bernard Osher Foundation. The Gwen and Victor Riches family has been instrumental in the development of additional tutorial and office space to better serve the renowned East Palo Alto Tennis and Tutoring Program, an inner city out-reach program, based at Taube. The Taube Family Tennis Stadium was the site of the NCAA Women's Tennis Championships in 1991, 1992, 1997 and 2002. Additionally, Gould has been instrumental in bringing world-class tennis events to the Taube Family Tennis Stadium including the WTA's Bank of the West Classic, the 1999 Fed Cup Final, the Siebel Champions and the World Team Tennis National Collegiate Championship.

Gould was also the driving force behind the acquisition of one of the nation's first electronic scoreboards in 1983, which has now been replaced by the Phil and Penny Knight Scoreboard. This unique scoreboard has the capability to control and display scores from 11 different court locations at the same time to all match spectators and convey these results as they happen on the Stanford athletic web site – www.gostanford.com – to tennis fans and friends of Stanford tennis world-wide. The Russ and Jackie Thompson video center is another unique feature of the facility.

"Courtside With the Stars" was another brainchild of Gould's. John McEnroe, Roscoe Tanner, Sandy Mayer, Nick Saviano, Pat Dupre, Tim Mayotte, Peter Rennert, Gene Mayer, John Whitlinger and Scott Davis are among the tennis alums who have returned to aid Gould in his fundraising effort through the "Courtside With the Stars" exhibition matches.

Gould is also an accomplished author, and the most recent edition (sixth) of his instructional book, Tennis Anyone?, remains one of the most popular guides ever. He has also produced an instructional series for television. He is featured in the instructional video "Better Tennis For Life."

Gould has been recognized for his service both to tennis and to the community. He was awarded the prestigious Kenneth M. Cuthbertson Award for "Exceptional service to Stanford University" in 2002. He was presented with the Volvo "Service to Tennis" Award in 1989 as well as the "Linda Meier Service Award", presented by the Peninsula Center for the Blind. He was presented with the Educational Merit Award in 1983 by the United States Tennis Association. In 1966, the Lifetime Sports Foundation honored Gould as one of 25 master clinicians for teaching tennis seminars.

Gould did his undergraduate and graduate work at Stanford where he was a Dean's list scholar and a Master's degree recipient. He was awarded the Buck Club's leadership award for tennis in 1960.

After graduating from Stanford, Gould taught for two years at Mountain View High School, serving as tennis coach and assistant football coach. In 1962, he moved to Foothill College to become head tennis coach, where his teams won state championships in 1964 and 1965. From 1960 through 1966, he was the tennis professional at the Fremont Hills Country Club in Los Altos Hills. He co-founded the Mid-Peninsula Tennis Patrons Association in 1962 and served as its first president. He has served on the Advisory Committee of the USA Tennis High Performance Coaches' Program and the East Palo Alto Tennis and Tutoring Program. He is a board member of Northern California's Youth Tennis Advantage and U.S. Sports Camps, and has contributed to Sports Education Network.

Gould was named an honorary member of the U.S. Professional Tennis Association in 1981, and in 1967 he served as president of the NorCal Professional Tennis Association. He was inducted into the Ventura County Athletic Hall of Fame in 1990, the Northern California Tennis Hall of Fame in 1992 and the Stanford Athletic Hall of Fame in 1994.

Gould hosted four U.S. Junior Davis training camps at Stanford University in the late 60's and early 70's. He directed the USTA National Junior training camp in 1985, 1986 and 1987. He currently directs Nike Tennis Camps at Stanford. He has conducted tennis clinics in Europe, Mexico, the Caribbean, China, Japan and Central America.

Gould and his wife, Anne, the former Stanford University women's tennis coach from 1976-79 who led the Cardinal to its first women's national team championship in 1978, and currently a senior lecturer in physical education at Stanford, reside in Menlo Park. Their daughter, Kim, will lead the Harvard volleyball team as captain in 2004. She has also been a member of the Crimson high-acclaimed Dance Team. Gould has three other daughters: Susan, a tennis playing graduate of Princeton University; Sheryl, a graduate of Stanford; and Karin, a graduate of the University of Southern California who earned All-America honors as co-captain of the Women of Troy's swim team. Gould's son, Rick, was co-captain of the Stanford swim team, an All-American, and former American record holder in the 200 medley relay.
