STANFORD, Calif. – Top-seeded California advanced into the semifinal round of the MPSF Tournament with a 13-5 victory over No. 8 seed Pepperdine Friday morning at Stanford's Avery Aquatic Center. Despite trailing 3-2 to the Waves in the opening period, the Golden Bears ran off an 11-2 run the rest of the way to cruise into Saturday's semifinal.

Ivan Rackov and Zach White each scored four times to lead California, while goalie Justin Parsons made seven saves. Pepperdine's Stephen Loomis scored twice to lead the Waves.

California will play the winner of Friday afternoon's Stanford-UC Irvine quarterfinal at 1:30 p.m. Saturday. Pepperdine moves into the consolation bracket and will play the loser of Friday's Stanford-UC Irvine contest at 10 a.m. Saturday.
