Seventh-seeded San Diego State used a 5-0 run to turn a two-goal deficit into a three-goal lead en route to an 11-8 victory over sixth-seeded San Jose State Saturday at the MPSF Championship.

Trailing 5-3 after the first period, the Aztec defense held the Spartans scoreless over the next 11:48 while scoring five straight goals to go in front by an 8-5 margin. Amber Pezzolla posted a hat trick for the Aztecs, while for San Jose State Dani Curran, Anna Natalizio and Kelly Stewart each netted a pair of goals.

The Spartans managed to pull to within two at 10-8 with 2:13 remaining, but an Aztec goal with 1:41 remaining sealed the win.

San Diego State will take on Arizona State in Sunday's fifth-place game at 12:30 p.m., while San Jose State will play Hawai'i in Sunday's seventh-place game at 11 a.m.
