2011 MOUNTAIN PACIFIC SPORTS FEDERATION ALL-MPSF WOMEN'S WATER POLO SELECTIONS

2011 MPSF Player of the Year

ANNIKA DRIES • #20 • SOPHOMORE • TWO-METER • STANFORD

From her two-meter position, sophomore Annika Dries (Laguna Beach, CA/Laguna Beach HS) helped guide top-ranked Stanford to a perfect regular season at 23-0 and an MPSF regular season title. She owns 58 goals in 26 games heading to the NCAA Tournament, where the Cardinal is the top seed, while her 2.23 goals per game average ranks third in the conference. Dries was one of two three-time MPSF Player of the Week recipients in 2011, including back-to-back on March 21 and 28, following her first honor on February 7. A member of the US Senior National Team that won a pair of gold medals last summer, Dries also enjoyed an all-conference freshman year in 2010, earning a pair of newcomer of the week honors along the way.

2011 MPSF Newcomer of the Year

TIMI MOLNAR • #8 • FRESHMAN • UTILITY • SAN JOSE STATE

Timi Molnar (Budapest, Hungary/Vorosmarty Mihaly) set a San Jose State freshman scoring record with 69 goals this year, and is one of just two freshmen in the history of the program to put away at least 60 in her first year. Second on the team in scoring, she scored in 29 of the team's 34 games. In nineteen games, Molnar scored two or more goals. The native of Budapest, Hungary was the Spartans' top scorer or shared team-high honors nine times. Her season-high six goals came in a 12-9 loss to #5-Hawaii in the MPSF opener for both teams on February 3. Molnar was the March 28 MPSF Newcomer of the Week, following a hat trick at Arizona State, including the fourth quarter game-winner. She earned the honor again on April 11, following a 10-goal and four-victory week.

2011 MPSF Coach of the Year

RICH CORSO • HEAD COACH • SIXTH YEAR • CALIFORNIA

Picked fifth in this year's MPSF Preseason Poll, sixth year head coach Rich Corso has led California to a first-ever MPSF Tournament Championship and repeat appearance in the NCAA Tournament with a 24-4 record. He has the Bears in the top-three in conference scoring (11.46 GPG, 2nd) and scoring defense (6.18 GAA, 3rd). Four Bears' rank amongst the MPSF scoring leaders, while junior goalkeeper Stephanie Peckham is the MPSF saves leader and was the conference tournament Most Valuable Player. Corso has coached Peckham, Emily Csikos, Breda Vosters, and Dana Ochsner to the 2011 all-conference team, in addition to Ashley Young and Kelly Mendoza to the all-newcomer team. Winners in 12 of its last 13 games, California enters the NCAA Tournament as one of the hottest teams in the nation.
