Cardinal Host 2008 National Collegiate Women's Water Polo Tournament

The No. 2 Stanford women's water polo team (25-4, 11-1 MPSF) returns home for the final time this weekend for the 2008 National Collegiate Women's Water Polo Tournament. Stanford's 25-4 season mark earned it the No. 2 seed in the tournament, where the Cardinal will face off against MAAC champion Marist in the first round at 1:30 p.m. on Friday, May 9.

Good History In National Collegiate Tournament

Stanford has earned a berth in every National Collegiate Women's Water polo Tournament since its inception in 2001. The Cardinal, which have never finished lower than third in those eight appearances, captured the 2002 national title, and have turned in three runner-up finishes in the five years since, including last year.

About Marist

Marist (27-7) makes its second tournament appearance in three years after capturing the MAAC Tournament title with a 7-6 win against Iona. Under first-year head coach Ashleigh (), the Red Foxes are led by the scoring of Maggie Hatcher (61 goals), Kristen Barnett (58 goals), and Katelin McCahill (56 goals). Over 34 games in the cage, Marist goalkeeper Elizabeth Davis averages 8.59 saves a game while boasting a goals-against average of 6.88.

Cardinal Notes

The Cardinal are paced offensively by its three 40-goal scorers in driver Lauren Silver (66 goals - 2.28 per game), driver Kelly Eaton (45 goals - 1.55 per game), and driver/2M/2MD Jackie Gauthier (45 goals - 1.55 per game). All three players rank in the MPSF Top 25 in goals average, with Silver sitting fourth in the conference, and Eaton and Gauthier tied for 24th. On the defensive side of things, freshman goalkeeper Amber Oland has been strong in the cage all year for Stanford, ranking third among all MPSF goalkeepers that have appeared in at least 20 games with a 5.19 goals-against average, and ninth with 8.23 saves per game. As a team, the Cardinal is third in the MPSF with 320 goals (11.03 per game), and third with only 171 goals allowed (5.90 per game).

Head Coach John Tanner

Head coach John Tanner entered his 11th year at the helm of the Cardinal program in 2008. Tanner has accumulated a record of 269-47 (.851) on The Farm over that time. He has led Stanford to every NCAA Championship tournament since its inception in 2001, and has won a national title (2002) as well as turning in four national runner-up finishes (2001, '03, '05, '07).

MPSF Presence In National Tournament

The MPSF boasts the top four seeds in the eight-team field this weekend in UCLA (No. 1), Stanford (No. 2), USC (No. 3), and San Diego State (No. 4). WWPA champ UC Davis (No. 5), CWPA champ Michigan (No. 6), MAAC champ Marist (No. 7), and SCIAAC champ Pomona-Pitzer round out the field.

February 3 vs. Santa Clara (Avery Stadium) – #3 Stanford 16, #19 Santa Clara 6

Third-ranked Stanford opened the 2008 season by cruising to a 16-6 victory over No. 19 Santa Clara at Avery Stadium. Returning All-American Lauren Silver scored the first four goals of the contest, including the first just 11 seconds into the game, to highlight a five-goal day and pace the Cardinal. A trio of freshmen made successful collegiate debuts, as Kim Krueger posted a hat trick, and goalkeepers Amber Oland (11 saves, three goals allowed) and Kim Hall (two saves) were solid in the cage.

February 9 vs. Arizona State (Avery Stadium) – #3 Stanford 14, #11 Arizona State 4

No. 3 Stanford opened up play in its home tournament, the Stanford Invitational, with a 14-4 win over No. 11 Arizona State. Four opening-period goals got the Cardinal out to a 4-1 lead after one, which increased to an 8-1 lead by halftime. Kelly Eaton led the way with four goals, while Jackie Gauthier posted her first hat trick of the season. In the cage, freshmen Amber Oland and Kim Hall combined to stop nine Sun Devil shots.

February 9 vs. USC (Avery Stadium) – #2 USC 5, #3 Stanford 4

The Cardinal suffered its first loss of the 2008 season as the second-ranked USC Women of Troy withstood a furious rally to hold onto the 5-4 win. Trailing by three in the fourth period, the Cardinal pulled to within 5-4 after a Kelly Eaton goal with 38 seconds left. After the defense did its part and held USC scoreless on the ensuing possession, the Cardinal regained the ball with three seconds left, but Lauren Silver's final shot hit the post just as time expired.

February 10 vs. Hawai'i (Avery Stadium) – #3 Stanford 10, #4 Hawai'i 6

Stanford claimed third place in the Stanford Invitational with its 10-6 win over Hawai'i Saturday afternoon. A fast start from the Rainbow Wahine put Stanford behind, 4-3, after a period of play, but the Cardinal fought back to tie things up 6-6 by halftime. In the second half, the Stanford defense, boosted by Amber Oland's 13 saves, held Hawai'i scoreless, allowing the Cardinal offense, behind a hat trick from Kira Hillman and two goals each from Kelly Eaton, Jackie Gauthier, and Lauren Silver, to pull ahead and coast to the win.

February 24 vs. UCLA (Irvine, Calif.) – #1 UCLA 8, #2 Stanford 7 (2OT)

No. 2 Stanford's second overtime contest of the day wasn't so kind as the Cardinal dropped an 8-7, sudden-death decision to top-ranked UCLA in the Irvine Tournament Championship Game. The teams traded goals all game, with Lauren Silver posting her hat trick by the third period, and Jackie Gauthier scoring the equalizer with 41 seconds left to send the game into overtime. Koree Blyleven scored once again in the second overtime session to give Stanford a 7-6 lead, but the Bruins pulled even with 46 seconds left, then got the winner 2:53 into the sudden-death period.

March 8 vs. UCLA (Los Angeles, Calif.) – #1 UCLA 9, #2 Stanford 7

In a highly-anticipated rematch of the Irvine Tournament title game, No. 2 Stanford once again came within a hair of getting the best of No. 1 UCLA, but ultimately fell, 9-7. Three unanswered Bruin goals in the second period led to a 6-3 halftime advantage, but the Cardinal got two straight goals from Lauren Silver at the start of the second half to cut the deficit to 6-5. The teams traded goals until it was 8-7 UCLA, but the Bruins got the insurance goal to cap the 9-7 victory. Kira Hillman and Heather West, along with Silver, scored twice on the day for Stanford.

April 11 vs. California (Avery Stadium) – #2 Stanford 6, #6 California 5

No. 2 Stanford held off a feisty challenge from No. 6 California in the Big Splash, coming away with the 6-5 victory thanks in part to Kira Hillman's hat trick. After a 3-3 first half, the Cardinal opened up a two-goal lead with a pair of unanswered scores from Kelly Eaton and Lauren Silver in the third period. After Cal halved the lead to 5-4 in the fourth, Hillman scored the eventual game-winner with 5:27 to play, and Amber Oland, who made 13 saves in the contest, and the Stanford defense yielded just one goal the rest of the way.
