GONZAGA AND CARDINAL CLASH FOR BIG EARLY SEASON MATCHUP

- The Bulldogs and Stanford, a pair of programs that appear in both national poll, square off in the opening weekend Sunday.
- If the game is a sellout it would be the earliest in a season for GU in program history. The first meeting against Stanford on Nov. 24, 2010, previously held that distinction.
- Gonzaga has accumulated 10,979 fans through the first two home games of the season, filling the McCarthy Athletic Center to 91.5 percent. The Zags were third in the nation last season packing the MAC at 89.4 percent of its capacity.

GONZAGA STORYLINES

- Gonzaga will be vying for its unprecedented 12th straight West Coast Conference regular season title.
- The Zags are also in the hunt for their eighth consecutive 25-win season. The Gonzaga women and men are the only programs in the nation to both achieve that feat in the past seven seasons.
- The Bulldogs return three starters from last year's team. Eight letterwinners are back with a ton of experience. GU welcomes back 58.4 percent of its scoring and 65.1 percent of its rebounding.
- The Zags' 2015-16 schedule features 18 home games. Nine of their 13 non-conference games are in Spokane.

ABOUT THE CARDINAL

- Stanford appeared in the AP preseason poll for the 16th consecutive season, debuting at No. 16 in the ranking.
- The Cardinal returns nine letterwinners and three starters to a team that won the program's 11th Pac-12 Tournament Championship in 2014-15, and advanced to its eighth consecutive Sweet Sixteen.
- Back is 58.4 percent of Stanford's scoring, 65.4 percent of its rebounding and 60.8 percent of its minutes.
- Lili Thompson averaged 13.3 points per game last season, while Kaylee Johnson grabbed 9.6 rebounds per contest.
- Erica McCall scored 19 points and pulled down 16 rebounds in Stanford's exhibition win. Karlie Samuelson added 17 points.
- Briana Roberson led the Cardinal with 15 points in the season-opening victory at UC-Davis. McCall grabbed 11 rebounds.

SERIES HISTORY

- The series resumes from a one-year hiatus after featuring matchups each November or December from 2009 to 2013.
- Stanford has won all six of the previous meetings between the programs.
- Three of the meetings have been in Palo Alto and three have been in Spokane. One of the three games in Spokane was in the Spokane Arena in the 2011 Sweet 16. It was the second meeting between the teams that season.
- The Cardinal has won the six matchups by an average of 22.7 points. The closest margin, 84-78, was in the McCarthy Athletic Center on Nov. 21, 2010.
- Stanford's last trip matchup with Gonzaga inside the McCarthy Athletic Center was a 69-41 victory on Dec. 2, 2012.

- It was the largest margin of victory since GU beat Whitworth 114-40 on Nov. 14, 2010.

THE LAST TIME OUT ...

GONZAGA 88, Air Force 35

Game 1 * Nov. 6 * McCarthy Athletic Center

SPOKANE, Wash. -- The Gonzaga women's basketball team cruised to an 88-35 victory in their regular season-opener against Air Force Friday.

The Zags (1-0) won their 12th straight home-opener in dominating fashion. GU had a 44-24 rebound advantage, grabbing 16 offensive boards. It had a 25-9 advantage in second-chance points. The Bulldogs turned 29 Air Force turnovers into a 37-11 edge in points off of turnovers. Gonzaga had a 40-20 advantage in the paint and 12-2 on fast-break points.

"I like the way we ran in transition, we got easy buckets tonight," Gonzaga Head Coach Lisa Fortier said. "I loved the way we rebounded the ball. Kiara had a great game. The turnovers we had were far too many and a lot of them were unforced. A lot of them were things we were trying to make happen, and that's positive but it would have been nice if we could have half as many. But, overall I'm happy."

Gonzaga finished 55 percent from the field and held the Falcons to 33 percent. The Zags made six of their 15 shots from behind-the-arc, while Air Force was 1-of-11. GU had 16 assists on its 33 made field goals. The Bulldogs were also 16-of-22 from the free-throw line. Air Force made four of its 12 free throws.

The Zags scored 14 of the game's first 15 points, leading 14-1 with 6:38 left in the first quarter. GU led 28-7 at the end of the opening period. The Bulldogs' largest lead of the first half was at halftime, 43-13. Gonzaga's largest lead was 85-31 with 2:55 remaining in the game.

The 53-point winning margin was the largest since GU beat Whitworth 114-40 on Nov. 14, 2010.

Five Bulldogs finished in double-digit scoring led by Elle Tinkle's game-high 13 points. The senior made four of her 10 shots from the field. Kiara Kudron added 12 points, a game-high 11 rebounds, and a game-high five assists. Jill Barta, Emma Stach, and Georgia Stirton each had 11 points.

Courtney Porter paced Air Force (0-1) with nine points. Myah Jackson scored eight points. Darby Glaad had four rebounds.

HEAD COACH LISA FORTIER

SECOND YEAR - CAL STATE-MONTEREY BAY, 2004

After spending much of the last decade as a member of the Gonzaga University women's basketball staff, including seven as an assistant, Lisa Fortier was named the program's head coach on April 14, 2014.

In her first season as a head coach in 2014-15, Fortier oversaw one of the nation's more efficient offenses. The Bulldogs outscored opponents by 10.0 points per game. As a team, the Zags broke seven team records, including a program-best 77.4 percent from the free-throw line this season, which was also fourth-best in the country. GU made 534 free-throws and 211 three-pointers this season, both new program records.

Fortier was the 2015 recipient of the WBCA Division I Rookie Coach of the Year Award. Fortier had the best first season any head coach in Gonzaga women's basketball history has ever had. Her 26 wins and 76.5 winning percentage were both top of the list among first year finishes for any GU women's basketball coach.

Fortier led Gonzaga to a 26-8 finish and its seventh-straight NCAA Tournament appearance. GU made its fourth appearance in the Sweet 16, after a pair of upsets in the first and second rounds as an 11-seed.

Fortier was named the West Coast Conference co-Coach of the Year after guiding the Zags to their 11th straight conference regular season title. During the season, Gonzaga won 16 straight games, the fifth-longest win streak in program history. GU enjoyed its seventh-straight 25-win season.

Fortier first came to Gonzaga in 2004, spending two years as the coordinator of basketball operations. She then spent one season as an assistant coach at the University of Northern Colorado before returning to GU in 2007.

In her seven years as a Gonzaga assistant, the Bulldogs have produced an overall record of 196-43. The Zags have dominated the West Coast Conference during that span, compiling a 98-8 mark to go with seven consecutive WCC regular-season championships and five WCC Tournament titles.

After a second-round appearance in the WNIT in Fortier's first season as an assistant, the Zags have qualified for the NCAA Tournament each of the last seven years, which included a stretch of three straight Sweet Sixteens from 2010-12. The highlight was an Elite Eight run in 2011, in which the Bulldogs upset three higher-seeded teams.

In addition to serving as Gonzaga's recruiting coordinator, Fortier has been responsible for coordinating GU's defense. She also spent time coaching Gonzaga's guards. She has mentored two WNBA draftees in Courtney Vandersloot and Katelan Redmon as well as Haiden Palmer, a 2014 draft hopeful. She also coached Taelor Karr, the 2012-13 WCC Player of the Year.

A native of Grass Valley, Calif., Fortier played collegiate basketball at Butte (Calif.) Community College before transferring to Cal State Monterey Bay. At CSUMB, she earned honorable mention All Cal-Pac Conference honors as a junior and was an NAIA Academic All-American in 2003. She also earned the 2004 CSUMB Female Scholar Athlete of the Year.
