Nothing comes easy once conference play begins and Colorado had the envious task of opening with the 15th ranked team in the country on their home court, a place the Buffaloes have never won. The final result still favored the home team, but Colorado proved to be a worthy early opponent for the defending league champions and the Buffaloes came away with plenty of reasons to feel good about moving forward.

Colorado completely erased an 11-point second half deficit, but a late 8-0 run gave Stanford enough of a cushion to hold on for a 62-55 Saturday night at Maples Pavilion in the Pac-12 Conference opener for both teams. Jamee Swan had her second consecutive double-double leading the Buffaloes with 12 points and a game-high 10 rebounds. Colorado (7-5, 0-1) had several bright moments defensively. The Buffaloes forced 16 turnovers, several coming on shot clock violations after 30 seconds of intense defense. Colorado played even – and at times better than the Cardinal – on the boards for most of the game, although Stanford would end up with a slight overall edge (37-35).

But one thing the Buffaloes couldn't stop was the backcourt combination of Amber Orrange and Lili Thompson. The Cardinal duo combined for 43 of Stanford's 62 points, hitting both the outside shot and getting into the paint as well. Orrange had a game-high 26 points on 10-of-16 shooting with a pair of 3-pointers. Thompson had 17 points making 7-of-12.

Colorado set the tone defensively early as Stanford's first two possessions ended in a blocked shot and a shot clock violation as the Buffaloes held an early 5-2 lead. Thompson got going for the Cardinal (9-4, 1-0) who scored seven straight for a four point advantage. Swan scored four in a row for the Buffaloes who tied the game at 11-11, but she picked up her second foul less than 10 minutes in. Zoe Beard-Fails, making her third start of the season also got into foul trouble, forcing the Buffaloes deep into their frontcourt bench. San Francisco native Zoe Correal, who had played just 10 minutes in the previous four games, put in some key minutes. She scored all of her career-best six points, during a seven minute stretch in the first half.

Most importantly, Correal's minutes came at a time that halted Stanford's biggest run. Orrange had scored five points during a 9-0 run that gave the Cardinal a 30-19 lead. Stanford was red hot early, but cooled off at the right time. The Cardinal scored just two points in the final 4:17 and none after Thompson scored from 15-feet out with 3:31 left as Stanford's lead was down to 32-25 at the break.

Shortly after Briana Roberson put Stanford back into a double-digit lead at 42-31 with a 3-pointer, the Buffaloes turned it up defensively. Colorado forced seven Stanford turnovers held the Cardinal scoreless over a 4:44 stretch that put the Buffaloes back in the lead. Haley Smith and Swan scored on back-to-back layups to start the run. Lexy Kresl would then score consecutive baskets to bring CU to within two at 42-40. The comeback was complete when freshman Brecca Thomas hit CU's only 3-pointer of the game, with 10:14 left giving the Buffaloes a 43-42 lead.

But Stanford's Bonnie Samuelson responded immediately with a 3-pointer of her own to put the Cardinal back on top. Samuelson's 3-pointer, her only make on six tries, sparked an 8-0 run as the Cardinal retook the lead 50-43. Swan pulled Colorado back to four at 51-47, but the Buffaloes missed their next three shots and Stanford reclaimed a double-digit lead at 57-47.

Colorado clamped down for one final time. Leading scorer Jen Reese who had been silent for most of the game scored six of her 10 points in the final minutes with a long jumper bringing the Buffaloes to within four at 57-53 with just over a minute remaining. But the Buffaloes couldn't draw any closer as Orrange scored her 10th bucket of the game and also hit a free throw in the final seconds.

Swan then moved into fourth place on the all-time blocked shots list after swatting four shots against Washington, leaping Raegan Scott (1993-97). Swan now is six blocks away from moving into the top three on the all-time list.

Huggins, who is shooting .373 from behind the arc this season, also moved up in the CU record book after a strong performance in the Pac-12 opener against Washington. She climbed into 11th place on the all-time list for most 3-point field goals, knocking down a trio vs. the Huskies. Huggins moved from 13 to 12 on the list for most 3-point field goal attempts after taking seven shots from long distance at California, passing Alexis Felts (1994-98) in the process. Like Swan, Huggins also is on pace to continue to climb in the record books before her junior year comes to a close as she only needs four more 3-point attempts to take over 11th place.

HIGH FIVES: Three times this season the Buffaloes have finished a game with five players recording at least 10 points. Colorado accomplished this feat most recently against Washington in its Pac-12 opener. Freshman Kennedy Leonard and senior Jamee Swan scored 19 points, freshman Alexis Robinson tallied 13, junior Haley Smith finished with 12 and junior Lauren Huggins chipped in 11 points. The other two times a Buffs' quintet reached this mark was against Northern Arizona and Loyola Marymount.

DOMINANT IN NON-CONFERENCE: The Buffaloes have been dominant in regular season nonconference games under Linda Lappe. Colorado is 55-16 in that stretch since the beginning of the 2010-11 season. The Buffaloes have won 48 of their last 60 regular season nonconference contests.

A MILESTONE WIN: Head Coach Linda Lappe won her 100th career game at Colorado on Thursday, Nov. 19 as the Buffaloes defeated Northern Colorado 63-41 at the Coors Events Center. Lappe is now 103-78 at the helm for the Buffs and her career head coaching record stands at 153-114 in eight-plus seasons.

RETURN TO 'D': Defense has been a staple to the Colorado program under Linda Lappe and for the Buffaloes to be successful in 2015-16, toughness on that side of the court will once again be paramount as the Buffs look to make it a priority once again this year after facing some challenges last season.

Three of Colorado's top four single-season field goal percentage defense totals have come under Lappe's direction. The 2012-13 NCAA Tournament team set the bar with a school-record effort at .350. The 2013-14 season's squad came in with the third-best total at .369 and its total during that same year ranked third on the Pac-12 leaderboard and 34th in the nation.

Two of Colorado's top 10 scoring defense totals have come under Lappe's reign including a school-best 54.5 ppg in 2012-13. Three of CU's top 10 rebounding margins have also come in that time frame, including 2013-14's mark of plus-5.0, the eighth best in team history.

HOME AT THE CEC: Colorado is traditionally tough at home with a 409-146 all-time record at the Coors Events Center (.737). The Buffaloes have won 10 or more games in a season at the CEC in 26 of 37 years. The Buffaloes have enjoyed five undefeated seasons (1980-83, 1992-94) at the CEC. Colorado was 10-7 at Coors in 2014-15.

FOR OPENERS: Colorado improved to 37-5 (.881) in all-time season openers and has won the last 16 straight. The Buffaloes started the season with a home game for the 29th time in 42 seasons. Colorado is an outstanding 40-2 (.952) all-time in home openers and has never lost its overall season opener when played at home (29-0).

TALENTED GUARD CAYLAO-DO SIGNS NLI: Quinessa Caylao-Do, a talented shooting guard from Tacoma, Wash. has signed a national letter of intent to continue her education and join the University of Colorado women's basketball team next fall, head coach Linda Lappe announced.

"Quinessa is a consummate team player who is a proven winner," Lappe said. "She is a versatile player who can defend, score, handle the ball and pass. We are excited to have her as a part of our buff family!"

The 5 foot, 9-inch shooting guard proved to play a pivotal role in her team's State Tournament run last season. As a junior, she scored a game-high 18 points as she guided Todd Beamer High School to a program-best third-place finish at the 2015 Class 4A State Girls' Basketball Tournament, after making two straight appearances in the district title game (2013, '14). A consistent contributor on the offensive side of the ball, she finished her junior campaign averaging 13.5 points per game.

Caylao-Do will reunite with Bria Rice, who signed with Colorado last week. Both were teammates at Beamer High School for their first three seasons and have spent time on the same court since middle school. Caylao-Do will play her senior season at Bellevue High School where she is set to graduate this spring.

"I'm really excited to be joining the Colorado women's basketball team and I'm looking forward to also joining Bria since we won't be playing together this season," said Caylao-Do. "We've been playing together since sixth grade so I'm pumped to be on the same team again."

She called her future Buff teammates "really welcoming" and has been working on becoming faster, more consistent shooter, and hopes that will help translate into Colorado wins.

"I really liked all the coaches and players when I was in Boulder on my official visit," said Caylao-Do. "I felt like I was at home. The campus and facilities were really nice as well."

In addition to her enthusiasm in playing for the black and gold, Caylao-Do is fulfilling her dream to play against some of the best in a challenging Pac-12 Conference.

An All-SPSL South team selection and named to the 2015 State's All-Tournament team, Caylao-Do also has experience competing in the Nike Elite Youth Basketball league as she spent this past summer playing on the Tree of Hope AAU team.

BUFFS SIGN STANDOUT GUARD RICE TO LETTER OF INTENT:

Bria Rice has signed a national letter of intent to play for the University of Colorado women's basketball team and continue her education beginning in 2016-17, head coach Linda Lappe announced on Wednesday, the first day of the NCAA's early signing period.

"Bria is a high energy player who will increase our overall speed and athleticism especially on the defensive end of the floor," said Lappe. "She will give us depth in the guard position and we look for her to compete as a freshman. She has high character and loves to win so she fits in great here at Colorado."

Rice, a 5-foot, 8-inch guard from Federal Way, Wash. is preparing for her senior year at Todd Beamer High School where she helped lead the Titans to a school best third-place finish at the 2015 Class 4A state girls' basketball tournament.

"When I came to Colorado on my official visit, I already felt like I belonged as the team and coaches felt like family," said Rice. "I am looking forward to getting better and using my skills to help the team continue to improve."

The Washington native earned a scout grade of 90 on ESPN.com and is described as a jet-quick floor leader, pesky defender in pressure while flourishing in up-tempo situations.

The high school standout averaged 10.5 points, 5.0 rebounds, 4.8 assists and 3.5 steals as a junior and has guided her team to three-straight 20+ win seasons, culminating in an impressive 73-9 record.

Rice refers to her style of play as intense and aggressive, and will look to bring that same approach with her when she steps onto campus next fall.

"The fact that the team pushes each other, I love that," Rice said. "Because if you're not pushing each other you're not making each other better. Not only are they there to encourage each other they are there to make each other better and I'm excited to be on a team that has the same mentality that I do."

Rice has earned numerous accolades during high school. She was voted the 2014-15 SPSL 4A Northwest Division Most Valuable Player, which Rice highlights as the biggest moment of her high school career thus far. Her MVP honors came in the same year she helped Todd Beamer qualify for the state tournament for the first time in school history. She also was named The News Tribune's Girls All-Area Basketball Player of the Year.

In addition to her consistent contributions to the Titans, Rice played AAU for Tree of Hope in the Nike Elite Youth Basketball League, the same team current Buff Haley Smith was a member of during her prep career. Rice's team placed second in 2014 and then earned a third place finish in 2015 at Nike Nationals.

BUFFS ON TV: Colorado women's basketball will be televised to a regional or national audience at least 15 times during the regular season, including 14 games on the Pac-12 Networks during league play. This marks the fourth consecutive year the Buffaloes will have double-digit regional or national television appearances.

Colorado made their 2015-16 television debut on Saturday, Dec. 12 when the Buffs hosted former Big-12 opponent Missouri at the Coors Events Center.

Colorado's first four Pac-12 games will be televised on the Pac-12 Networks as will seven of the Buffaloes' nine home conference games. All remaining home games, and conference road games, that aren't televised will be scheduled to be streamed live through Colorado's Pac-12.com video portal.

Entering this season, Colorado has tipped off on 143 national or regional telecasts since the fall of 2001, and 44 since the advent of the Pac-12 Networks in 2012.
