CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

Tue., Feb. 23 10 a.m. MT
Tue., Mar. 1 10 a.m. MT

All press conferences held in the Eccles Center Media Room.

First-year Utah women's basketball head coach Lynne Roberts has set her sights on rebuilding the Utes into a Pac-12 Conference contender and a regular postseason participant.

Roberts, the 2014-15 West Coast Conference Co-Coach of the Year, champions an up-tempo type of game and in her previous 13 seasons as a head coach, her teams have averaged 71.2 points per game.

Roberts comes to Utah after nine seasons as the head coach at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, Calif., where she was a two-time conference coach of the year (2012-13 Big West and 2014-15 West Coast Co-Coach of the Year).

She led the Tigers to postseason appearances in each of the last four seasons, a program-long streak, after taking over a team that qualified for the postseason just once in school history before her arrival. Roberts' 236-186 (.559) career record includes an 86-31 mark in four seasons at NCAA Division II Chico State from 2002-06. She inherited a Pacific team that had won just 11 games combined the previous two seasons.

Faced with a major rebuilding project, she went 51-99 her first five years, before flipping the columns with an 84-45 record over the last four seasons. The Tigers were 21-10 this past season and played in the WNIT. Roberts led Pacific through its jump to the West Coast Conference in the 2013-14 campaign when the Tigers finished 18-14 overall and placed third in the league with a 12-6 mark.

The year prior as members of the Big West Conference, Roberts' 2012-13 team achieved the best record in school history, finishing 27-8 and winning the program's first Big West regular-season title, while receiving votes in the AP and ESPN/USA Today Coaches' polls for the first time as well. That team advanced to the third round of the WNIT and she was named the Big West Coach of the Year. Roberts guided Pacific to the WNIT for the first time in 2011-12, when the Tigers won the program's first-ever postseason game, a 77-62 win over Arizona State in the first round.

Under Roberts' tutelage, Pacific student-athletes earned 25 All-Big West team honors, five All-Big West Freshman Team honors and the 2010 Sixth Woman of the Year award. The Tigers earned six All-WCC selections, a WCC All-Freshman pick, and the 2014 WCC Newcomer of the Year with Roberts at the helm.

Prior to Pacific, Roberts spent four seasons as the head at Chico State where she compiled an 86-31 overall record. During her final season, the Wildcats were 28-4 in 2005-06 and advanced to the NCAA Division II Final Four. She was named the WBCA West Region Coach of the Year in 2004-05 and was the California Collegiate Athletic Association Coach of the Year in 2004-05 and 2005-06.

Roberts began her coaching career as an assistant at her alma mater, Seattle Pacific University, from 1997-2001.

During her playing career at SPU, Roberts was named to the NCAA West Regional all-tournament team as a senior co-captain. She was second team all-conference her junior year.

The Redding, Calif., native graduated from Seattle Pacific University in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in history and added a master's degree from SPU in athletic administration 2000.

UTAH STATE	61
Dec. 22, 2015 - Logan, Utah

With the game tied for the 13th time at 61 all, Utah picked up its first true road win of season when Rodriguez wrestled an offensive rebound from the Aggies along the baseline and was fouled while hitting a jumper for an old-fashioned 3-point play before converting the free throw to set the final margin.

Feb. 12, 2016 - Eugene, Ore.

EUGENE, Ore. – Redshirt sophomore forward Emily Potter scored a team-high 23 points, her seventh game with at least 20 points this season, but the University of Utah women's basketball team came up short in a 69-58 contest at Oregon on Friday in Matthew Knight Arena.

Utah held a 20-12 edge in second-chance points over Oregon and the Utes did not allow a single transition point to the Ducks.

Potter turned in her seven game of the season with 20 points or more after a 23-point effort and 10-of-13 shooting effort from the floor (76.9%). She also grabbed seven rebounds, which was second on the team. The Winnipeg, Manitoba native scored in double-figures for the 22nd time in 24 games this season and the 39th time of her career.

Potter also had three blocks against the Ducks and has 61 this season, which is already tied for the second-most in a single season in school history. She is now two blocks away from setting the school new single-season record (62 by Lauren Beckman in 2001-02). Potter is already eighth in school history with 104 career blocks and two away from moving past Halie Sawyer (105 from 2006-10) for seventh place.

Junior wing Paige Crozon secured her ninth double-double of 2015-16 with a team-high 12 boards and 10 points. The Humboldt, Saskatchewan native has been in double-figures for rebounds nine times this season and has been in double-figures 16 times this season and 24 times over her career.

Senior point guard Danielle Rodriguez registered her fourth straight game with 10 or more points with 10 points after a 5-of-10 shooting night. She tied for game-high honors with five assists and is ranked fifth in school history with 426 career assists and is 14 away from tying Karen Alcorn (440 from 1998-92). She had three steals in the contest, which was one shy of tying her career best, and tied her season high with two blocks.

Redshirt sophomore wing Malia Nawahine scored nine points with two assists and two steals, just missing her fifth consecutive game with at least 10 points.
