After a sixth-place finish in the regular season, the Dons marched through the top three seeds in the league to earn its fourth NCAA appearance in school history. USF knocked off No. 3 San Diego in an overtime affair, following it up with a semifinal victory against No. 2 Saint Mary's. The run was capped by a 70-68 championships win against No. 1 and fellow NCAA Tournament team BYU.

In all three games, USF was able to overtake its opponents in the final minute of regulation to survive and advance.

The Dons were paced by WCC Tournament Most Valuable Player Taylor Proctor's two double-doubles, and a last-second shot in regulation to force the extra period against San Diego. She averaged 23.3 points on 56.8 percent shooting, 9.7 rebounds and 3.3 assists in the trio of games. She's leading the squad on the season with averages of 18.5 points, 8.5 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 1.1 blocks. Fellow senior Zhane Dikes, USF's point guard and WCC Tournament, adds 14.2 points, 2.5 assists and 2.1 steals a game. Junior Rachel Howard rounds out the double-digit scorers, contributing 11.6 points per game on 41.0 percent shooting from 3-point range.

Head Coach Jennifer Azzi

Stanford '90
Sixth Season (2010-present)
Career Record - 73-113 (32-69 WCC)

Jennifer Azzi is no stranger to success. With achievements ranging from seven hall of fame inductions, an Olympic gold medal, a place on the Pac-12 All-Century team, a Stanford national championship, the Naismith award and a successful WNBA career, her accomplishments over a 25-year period have firmly established her as one of the most respected and accomplished figures in women's basketball.

And now in her sixth season as head coach at USF, Azzi has transformed the women's basketball program into a bona fide postseason contender.

The 2014-15 season saw the Dons finish with a WCC Championship finals appearance, earning a bid to the Women's National Invitation Tournament, the program's first postseason appearance since the 2001-02 season. This year, USF picked up its first win over perennial power Gonzaga in a decade, and beat San Diego on the road for the first time since '04 as the Dons continue to show its upward trajectory under Azzi's care.

She's mentored All-WCC first team selections Mel Khlok and two-time honoree Taylor Proctor, four WCC All-Freshman players and six women who earned WCC All-Academic recognition in her six seasons at the helm of the Dons.

2016 DIVISION I WOMEN'S BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Dons in the NCAA Championships

USF sports a 2-3 all-time record in the NCAA Tournament, advancing in the brackets once, when the team made a run to the Sweet 16 in 1996.

1995

NCAA First Round – March 16, 1995 - Seattle, Wash.

Arkansas 67, San Francisco 58

USF made its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1995, as the No. 11 seed in the West Region. The Dons traveled to the campus of the University of Washington in Seattle to face Arkansas. Brittany Lindhe led the way with 21 points, while Jamie Shadian and Renee Demirdjian each added 11 as the Dons got its first taste of the Dance.

1996

NCAA First Round – March 16, 1996 - Durham, N.C.
San Francisco 68, No. 16 Florida 51

USF earned its second NCAA appearance as the No. 12 seed in the Midwest Region. The Dons started their Cinderella run with a 68-61 victory over then-No. 16 Florida. Valerie Gillon dominated with a 28-point, nine-rebound performance, while Andrea Kagie added 15 points off the bench. USF led 31-29 at halftime and never trailed in the second half.

NCAA Second Round –

March 18, 1996 - Durham, N.C.

San Francisco 64, No. 13 Duke 60

San Francisco garnered the biggest win in school history as the Dons shocked regional host, then-

No. 13 Duke, 64-60, at Cameron Indoor Stadium. For the Blue Devils, it was the first non-conference loss at home since 1991. Brittany Lindhe led the Dons with 17 points, while Julie Murdent scored 14 points off the bench, and Renee Demirdjian added a dozen in the victory.

NCAA Sweet 16 –

March 23, 1996 - Chicago, Ill.

No. 2 Connecticut 72, San Francisco 44

The eyes of the country were on USF as the team faced defending national champions, Connecticut, in the Sweet Sixteen. In front of the largest crowd (7,190) to watch a women's basketball game in Illinois, the Dons fell short, dropping the 72-44 decision to the Huskies. The game was tied 13-13 midway through the first half before UConn pulled away for a 37-28 half-time lead. Valerie Gillon scored 13 points in her final collegiate contest, while Julie Murdent came off the bench to add 10 points.

1997

NCAA First Round – March 15, 1997 - Gainesville, Fla.

Southern California 68, San Francisco 55

The Dons were awarded a No. 11 seed in the Midwest Region and were slated to face No. 6 USC in the opening round. San Francisco came out of the gates strong and trailed by only six at halftime. The Dons eventually fell 68-55 to the Women of Troy. Brittany Lindhe paced USF with 15 points, while Renee Demirdjian added 13 points in her final game wearing Green and Gold.

USF in the Rankings

Entering postseason play, the Dons find themselves sitting pretty in both the West Coast Conference and NCAA rankings as a team and individually.

The Dons are in the top three in the WCC in scoring offense (72.0 ppg/2nd), field goal percentage (.431/2nd), 3-point field goal percentage (.367/3rd) and free throw percentage (.745/2nd). USF is also near the tops in the league in assists (15.3 apg/2nd). On the other side of the ball, the Dons are second in defensive rebounds (26.2) and third in defensive rebound percentage (.695) in the WCC's final tally.

Nationally, USF rates ninth in free throws made (487), 19th in 3-point field goal percentage, 37th in free throw percentage, and 46th in assists per game.

Individually, All-WCC First Team selection and WCC Tournament Most Valuable Player Taylor Proctor dots the conference and NCAA lists in a plethora of categories, including points per game (18.5 ppg - 3rd WCC/50th NCAA), rebounding (8.5 rpg - 4th WCC), field goal percentage (.488 - 5th WCC), assists per game (3.3 - 8th WCC) and blocks per game (1.1 - 3rd WCC). Also of note, Rachel Howard enters the NCAA tournament shooting 41.0 percent from 3-point range, good for fourth in the league and 26th in the NCAA, and Zhane Dikes' 139 made free throws rates third in the conference and 34th in the country.

On the Offensive

Under the tutelage of one of the best point guards to play the game, the Dons have improved their offensive output and team mentality of sharing the ball and assisting the shooter.

In the year previous to Azzi's arrival on the Hilltop, the Dons shot .338 from the field, .308 from 3-point range and averaged 9.8 assists per game. Currently, the Dons are connecting on 43.1 percent of their attempts, and hitting threes at a rate of 36.7 percent, and USF is second the WCC in assists per game with 15.3.

70 - The Magic Number

The Dons are 17-1 on the season when scoring at least 70 points, with the loss coming at the hands of Utah Valley in a 94-88 overtime game on Nov. 23.

NCAA Active Career Leaders

Taylor Proctor currently stands as one of 10 women in the NCAA with at least 1,500 points and 900 rebounds. She is joined on the senior-laden list by defending NCAA Player of the Year Breanna Stewart (UConn), Shereesha Richards (Albany), Jillian Alleyne (Oregon), Courtney Williams (South Florida), Nathalie Fontaine (Ball State), Joy Adams (Iona), Erika Livermore (Fairleigh Dickinson), Brittney Martin (Oklahoma State), . Michigan State's Aerial Powers is the lone junior to join the list.

She ranks 35th among active Division I scoring leaders (1,772 points). She also lands in the top-50 among active players in field goals (645/37th) and double-doubles (27/35th). Fellow senior Zhane Dikes rates 15th in NCAA Division I in career free throw attempts (609) and 17th in makes (439).

USF Record-Setters

The senior duo of Taylor Proctor and Zhane Dikes both grace USF's 1,000-point scoring list of 21 women as well as the 20-member 500-rebound club. Dikes notched her 500th rebound in USF's final non-conference game of the season against San Francisco State.

Along with her distinction on the points and rebounds lists, Dikes became the USF all-time leader in minutes played in USF's game at Santa Clara on Jan. 23. She is averaging more than 33 minutes per game in her career wearing Green and Gold, and passed Rheina Ale ('08-12 - 3,755 minutes) and men's minutes leader Angelo Caloiaro ('08-12 - 3,781 minutes) to earn the new school record. She also earned distinction as the program's leader in career free throws made with 427 and counting.

Proctor leapt to second in career rebounding in USF's game against Loyola Marymount, and she stands in third on the all-time scoring lists. She is one of five women to rate in the top-10 in both categories. In the Dons' game at Pacific, she joined career-leader and Legend of the Hilltop Mary Hile-Nepfel as the second woman to reach the top five in both points and rebounds.

Individually, Rachel Howard etched her name in the record books after swishing seven 3-pointers at Long Beach State. The seven triple mark in a game ties Andrea Kagie (at San Diego, 02/08/97) and Amy Touli (Northwestern State, 12/19/92).

It's Academic

An all-academic honorable mention selection a year ago, junior Rachel Howard earned the nod as a WCC All-Academic first team performer. She maintains a 3.75 grade-point average in her studies in kinesiology, holding the highest gpa on the 10-women all-academic squad. A trio of Dons earned honorable mention status with Kalyn Simon (3.86/international studies with a concentration in environment and development), Michaela Rakova (3.65/psychology) and Anna Seilund (3.47/organizational behavior and leadership) each earning recognition.

Stanford 100, San Francisco 45 • Dec. 22, 2010

Stanford's Tara VanDerveer became the sixth women's coach to reach the elite 800 wins mark, doing so in her third try as the eighth-ranked Cardinal routed San Francisco 100-45 and former Stanford stars turned coaches Jennifer Azzi and Katy Steding.

Kayla Pedersen scored her team's first eight points of the second half on the way to 16 and grabbed a career-high 20 rebounds to lead Stanford (7-2), which was coming off losses last Thursday at No. 16 DePaul and then at fifth-ranked Tennessee on Sunday.

VanDerveer is 800-197 in 32 seasons as a head coach, 25 of those years at Stanford - where she is 648-146. Azzi embraced the Hall of Fame coach after the final buzzer sounded, then fans and players held up 800 signs reading "Congratulations Tara." Azzi and Steding presented VanDerveer with flowers and the game ball in a ceremony at midcourt.

"Eight hundred's a lot of games," VanDerveer said. "It's a little ironic with Jennifer and Katy. It's apropos it's with them. Jennifer's taken part in a lot of these wins. I'm just a little bit blown away about Jennifer and Katy being here and the large number."

VanDerveer beat a pair of familiar faces to reach the milestone, facing first-year USF coach and Hall of Famer Azzi and her associate head coach, Steding. The two women were part of Stanford's first NCAA title in 1990 and on the VanDerveer-coached 1996 Olympic team that won gold in Atlanta.

Azzi, the Pac-10 player of the year in that 32-1 title run in '90, and Steding received a rousing ovation from the Stanford section when introduced. The coaches from both sides chatted before tipoff and planned to catch up over dinner afterward.

Azzi didn't schedule this game, which was on the calendar before she was hired in April to take over the struggling Dons program.

16 WCC CHAMPIONSHIPS

After a sixth-place finish in the regular season, the Dons marched through the top three seeds in the league to earn its fourth NCAA appearance in school history.

USF didn't make the trip to Las Vegas an easy one. Against No. 3 San Diego in the quarterfinals, the Dons had to rally from a 12-point third-quarter deficit before claiming the victory in dramatic fashion. In the semifinal contest against No. 2 Saint Mary's, the margin was seven at the close of the third quarter. And for the final game of the week in Vegas, USF saw No. 1 BYU up by 15 as the first quarter wound down. In all three games, USF was able to overtake its opponents in the final minute of regulation to survive and advance.

Taylor Proctor was named tournament Most Valuable Player after picking up two double-doubles, and sinking the last-second shot in regulation to force the extra period against San Diego. She averaged 23.3 points on 56.8 percent shooting, 9.7 rebounds and 3.3 assists in the trio of games. Zhane Dikes earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team after averaging 15.3 points, 3.0 rebounds and 3.0 steals during the run to the title. Rachel Howard was also statistically stout on the court, posting 15.0 points and 3.7 rebounds for the Dons, including a game-high 26-point outing on .700 shooting against San Diego in the quarterfinals.
