ON DECK:

at Santa Clara, April 19
host UCLA, April 21-23

Leading Off

• The No. 17-ranked Stanford (15-9, 3-3 Pac-10) will return to the Bay Area for the next two weeks, hosting Pacific (10-18) on Tuesday at 5:30 p.m. and No. 9-ranked Oregon State (24-7, 5-1 Pac-10) this weekend for a three-game series on Friday at 5:30 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday at 1 p.m. Stanford spent five of the first six weekends on the road, playing 15 of its first 24 on the road. The Cardinal will now play the next 10 games in the Bay Area, with the only away games at Santa Clara on April 19 and at Santa Mary's April 26. Stanford is 8-1 at Sunken Diamond this season. The OSU series will be the fourth weekend series of the year against a top-20 opponent and the start of likely three-straight weekends against the top-25-- the Beavers, UCLA and at Arizona State. All home games will be webcast on CBS College Sports' All-Access paid service through the gostanford.com website. All games will be on KZSU, kzsus.stanford.edu and on your iPhone by downloading the Stanford App and then listening to KZSU.

Stanford-Pacific Series

(April 12 at Stanford, May 9 at Pacific)

• Series: Stanford 54-9-1; Last: Tied in 2010, 1-1

The two programs have met every year since 2005, with Stanford going 12-4. The two programs did not meet from 2000 to 2004. The two, split games last year with Stanford winning 11-6 in Stockton and the Tigers winning 9-4 at Stanford. The March 23 game at Pacific was rained out and rescheduled for May 9.

Tale of the Tape

	Opp	Stan
Avg	.268	.309
ERA	6.04	3.38
Fielding	.971	.965
RPI	208	15

• About the Tigers: Former Stanford great, Ed Sprague, is in his eighth year at the helm of the Pacific program. The Tigers had its first back-to-back 30-win seasons in 2005 and 2006 and went 31-23 last year, setting a school-record for victories. Senior outfielder Matthew Carvutto is hitting .357, while Brian Martin is chipping in a .333 average from first base. Pacific is batting .268 on the season with a .971 fielding clip and 6.04 team ERA. Pacific has dropped two of three from both Long Beach State and UC Davis to begin Big West play at 2-4.

Stanford in the Rankings

• Stanford after remaining at No. 11 for the previous two weeks, dropped to No. 17 in Baseball America, 21st in Collegiate Baseball and No. 23 in the USA Today/Coaches Poll. Stanford began the season No. 10 and moved up to No. 8 on February 21. Stanford's RPI according to boydsworld to begin the week is 15.

Stanford Strikes Out in Los Angeles

• After opening up its three-game series at USC with an 8-1 win, paced by 17 hits, the No. 11-ranked Cardinal dropped its next two games to the Trojans, 3-1 and 6-2 following career highs in strikeouts from Austin Wood and Logan Odom, who both finished with eight. In the opener, Mark Appel (2-3) pitched his first ever complete game, a four-hitter in which he allowed one unearned run. Appel struck out a career-best seven for the second-straight week, retiring 13 in a row, while pitching six no-hit innings. Seven Cardinal had multi-hit games. On Saturday, Jordan Pries lost for the first time since March 4, getting outdueled in a 3-1 Trojan win. On Sunday, Dean McArdle could not get out of the third inning, as USC went up 4-0 and never looked back behind the arm of Odom. Stanford completed its fifth weekend out of six on the road to start the season.

Pitching Shuts Down San Jose State

• Four Stanford pitchers combined for a four-hitter as Stanford won its sixth midweek game of the season, over San Jose State, 5-2. Danny Sandbrink pitched three perfect innings and gave up a walk over four no-hit innings, before Spartan Nick Borg had the first of his two hits in the sixth off A.J. Vanegas.

Home Cooking, Finally

• The Cardinal after spending nearly two months on the road to start the season, will return home to the Bay Area for the next two weeks, hosting Oregon State and UCLA in two key top-25 Pac-10 matchups. Stanford played five of its first six weekends on the road, playing in Texas twice, Tennessee, Southern California and Washington.

Closing the Door

• Continuing in the footsteps of Nationals closer Drew Storen, who led the Cardinal in saves in 2008 and 2007 with a combined 15 saves, lefthander Chris Reed has stepped into the closer's role this year. After a seven-run start on day two of the season, Reed has allowed just two runs in 11 relief appearances, lowering his ERA to 2.95 on the season with four saves. Stanford leads the conference with seven saves.

Stanford Coaching Staff

Clarke and Elizabeth Nelson
Director of Baseball

• Mark Marquess '69 enters his 35th season as the Clarke and Elizabeth Nelson Director of Baseball. He entered the season with an overall record of 1387-719-7, producing 2 NCAA titles (1987, 1988), 7 Super Regionals (six titles), 14 College World Series, 26 NCAA Regionals and 12 conference titles. He is one of just 10 coaches to have played and coached in a CWS, doing so while a player in 1967. He also won a Gold medal as the head coach of the 1998 Seoul Olympic team and won a gold medal at the 1967 Pan Am Games. He carries a 120-57 postseason record and 36-25 CWS mark.

Longtime Lieutenant

• Fellow alum, Dean Stotz '75, has been with Marquess for all 35 years. In his current role, he is the team's primary hitting coach, since 1997. He has developed such Major Leaguers as Carlos Quentin, Johnny Bench Award winner Ryan Garko, Sam Fuld, Jody Gerut and Jed Lowrie. From 1993 to 1996 he was the team's pitching coach, working with Cardinal stars Kyle Peterson, Chad Hutchinson and Jeff Austin.

Pitching

• Veteran coach Rusty Filter, who spent the first 17 years at San Diego State will serve as the team's pitching coach for the second season. In his first year with 12 underclassmen, the Cardinal pitchers lowered its ERA a half a point from a year earlier. San Diego State led the Mountain West Conference in ERA in six of the league's first 10 seasons, ranking in the top-three in each of those years. Individually, four players were named the MWC's Pitcher of the Year, including Stephen Strasburg the last two years (2008, 2009), Bruce Billings (2005), and Scott Shoemaker (2004). In 2009, four of his hurlers-- Cincinnati's Aaron Harang, St. Louis' Royce Ring, Boston's Jason Masterson and San Francisco's Alex Hinshaw, pitched in the Majors.

On the bases

• Dean Stotz '75 will be the third base coach and Brock Ungricht, who will also work with the Cardinal catchers, will coach first base.

Coaches of Note

• Two of the Cardinal's national title stars from the 1987 and 1988 teams are in opposing dugouts, David Esquer (Cal) and Ed Sprague (Pacific). Esquer was the starting shortstop for the 1987 club, while Sprague was the starting third baseman for both the 1987 and 1988 clubs. Sprague also won a World Series title with the Blue Jays.

Late Into the Game

• Stanford starters Mark Appel and Jordan Pries have each gone late in the game, tossing 43.2 and 41.0 innings respectively to lead the team. Appel has reached the sixth in all six of his weekend starts and into the seventh in his last four, while Pries has hit the seventh in each of his last three starts and four of his five weekend twirls. Appel is 2-3 with a 3.09 ERA, Pries is 4-2 with a 2.63 ERA.

Most Impressive on Friday

• In Mark Appel's six weekend starts, the sophomore righthander has allowed two runs or less in four outings. Appel (2-3, 3.09 ERA) is coming off a complete game four-hitter in which he allowed just one unearned run. Appel has struck out a career-best seven in each of the last two Pac-10 starts.

Getting on Base

• Two-sport standout and starting leftfielder Tyler Gaffney enters the week, leading the Cardinal in on-base percentage, at .458 thanks to a team-best 18 walks. Gaffney reached base safely in 10-straight plate appearances last week, thanks to three walks, two hit by pitches and five hits. Gaffney has also come around to score 16 times. He ranks fifth in the Pac-10 in on-base percentage.

Finals Break Heats Up the Cardinal

• After taking a longer than expected finals break, 15 days, due to a rainout with Michigan, Stanford hitters are hitting at a tune of .331 with 10 steals, while averaging just over seven runs a game. The Cardinal are 9-4 over that time.

Tops in the Majors

• According to Collegebaseballinsider.com, Stanford was one of a half dozen programs with seven or more Major Leaguers on 40-man rosters to start the season. Long Beach State led with 11, followed by Arizona State and Miami (nine). Stanford and Cal had nine a piece. Of Stanford's Major Leaguers, former first round pick Greg Reynolds returned to the Majors after injury, joining Carlos Quentin (White Sox), Drew Storen (Nationals), Jed Lowrie (Red Sox), John Mayberry, Jr. (Phillies), Jeremy Guthrie (Orioles) and Sam Fuld (Rays). Jason Castro, who is on the DL with the Astros, was also on the list.

Young and Good

• Stanford features seven underclassmen in its everyday lineup, with sophomore Kenny Diekroeger leading the team in average (.384) and runs (20), sophomore Tyler Gaffney leading in on-base (.458) and walks (18), freshman Brian Ragira leading in slugging (.506) and RBIs (23) and sophomore Jake Stewart leading the club in doubles (9) and steals (5).

Stanford Professionals

Stanford has had 86 players here is a list of the 2011 Major Leaguers:

- Sam Fuld, Rays
- Jeremy Guthrie, Orioles
- Jed Lowrie, Red Sox
- John Mayberry, Jr., Phillies
- Carlos Quentin, White Sox
- Greg Reynolds, Rockies
- Drew Storen, Nationals

General Managers

- Ruben Amaro, Jr., Phillies
- Kenny Williams, WSox (FB only)

World Champions

Since Tillie Shafer in 1912 and 1913 with the New York Giants, 16 former players have appeared in the Fall Classic, winning a combined 12 rings. Bobby Brown won four titles with the Yankees in the 1940s and 1950s, while Ed Sprague won back-to-back titles with the Blue Jays in the 1990s. Sprague also part of Stanford's CWS national title runs.

Award Winners

Former greats Jim Lonborg (1967) and Jack McDowell (1993) have each won Cy Young Awards. Bob Boone won a gold glove at catcher seven times from 1978 to 1989 and Mike Mussina was a gold glove winner from 1996 to 2008, seven times. Lonborg (1967), Boon (1976, 78, 79, 83), Ed Sprague (1991), McDowell (1991-93), Mussina (1992-94, 97-98) and Carlos Quentin were all All-Stars.

Trivia Time

According to Baseball America, only seven times in 46 drafts have the first two position players drafted come from the college ranks. Stanford's Jeffrey Hammons (No. 4 Orioles) and CS Fullerton's Phil Nevin (No. 1, Astros) were both drafted in 1992. The others are: Evan Longoria (No. 4, Rays), Drew Stubbs (No. 11, Reds) in 2006 B.J. Surhoff (No. 1, Brewers) and Will Clark (No. 2, Giants) in 1985; Jeff King (No. 1, Pirates) and Matt Williams (No. 3, Giants) in 1986; Mike Kelly (No. 2, Braves) and Dave McCarty (No. 3, Twins) in 1991; Travis Lee (No. 2, Twins) and Chad Green (No. 8, Brewers) in 1996; and J.D. Drew (No. 2, Phillies) and Troy Glaus (No. 3, Angels) in 1997.

2011 Cardinal Game Notes

First Loss in His Career

• Sophomore righthander Dean McArdle picked up the first loss of his career last Sunday after nine consecutive wins. The nine wins without a loss was the sixth-longest streak by a Cardinal pitcher since 1996. McArdle went 5-0 as a freshman and is currently 4-1 with a 3.29 ERA this year in seven starts.

Sandy Earning a Look

• Senior righthander Danny Sandbrink, who had a 2.81 ERA for the CWS-bound Cardinal as a freshman in 2008, is putting together his most impressive streak after two years in the bullpen. Following a 7.09 ERA in 2009 and a 4.87 ERA as a junior, Sandbrink pitched back-to-back no-hit midweek outings against Saint Mary's and San Jose State and then limited USC to two runs over 5.0 innings on Sunday in relief. Sandbrink's streak of 10.1 scoreless innings helped lower his ERA to 2.49 to enter the week over 21.2 innings. Opponents are hitting .208 against him.

Hit Streak Ends

• Kenny Diekroeger's season-best 16-game hit streak ended on Saturday as the 0-for-4 Saturday and Sunday at USC were a rarity for the sophomore shortstop. Diekroeger had hit safely in 20 of the first 21 games this year and in 46 of 54 games last season. He had back-to-back 0-for's last year as well, just once, against USC, finishing as the leading hitter at .356. He is hitting .384 this year.

Tough Scheduling

• When the end of April hits, Stanford will have likely opened the season with three top-20 teams in No. 17-ranked Rice, No. 3 Vanderbilt and No. 6 Texas and closed with another three top-20 teams, No. 9 Oregon State, as well as UCLA (currently as high as No. 12) and at Arizona State (No. 10).

Top Rated Class

• For the first time in the history of Baseball America's 11-year annual recruiting survey, Stanford Baseball had the nation's No. 1 recruiting class. This year's class is headlined by Los Angeles outfielder Austin Wilson, Texas utility player Brian Ragira, San Lorenzo righthander A.J. Vanegas and Burbank infielder Lonnie Kauppila. This year's top class, adds to the No. 2 ranked class a year ago that featured Kenny Diekroeger, Stephen Piscotty, Jake Stewart and Mark Appel. Collegiate Baseball rated this year's class No. 11.

From the Diamond to a Degree

• Stanford academics and athletics continues to rank amongst the nation's elite as Stanford Baseball, with an academic progress report number of 985, was ranked in the top-10 percent of all Division-I baseball programs. Some Cardinal Major Leaguers who have earned their degrees include: Gold Glove catcher Bob Boone, Cy Young Award winner Jack McDowell, All Star Mike Mussina, Phillies general manager Ruben Amaro, Jr., former manager A.J. Hinch and long-time Major Leaguers Mike Aldrete and Jeffrey Hammonds.

Smart at the Top

• Of the 12 Major Leaguers in 2010, nine earned their degrees with Jason Castro and Drew Storen, both on pace to earn their degrees as well. An A1 feature in the San Jose Mercury News on February 28, featured both newly minted Major Leaguers. A Wall Street Journal report said that only two dozen Major Leaguers had earned their degrees in 2010. Jed Lowrie finished up his degree the last week of February giving the Cardinal nine of 12 Major Leaguers.

Professional Development

• The 2010 season saw the debuts of Drew Storen (Nationals) and Jason Castro (Astros), the retiring of eight-year veteran and former MLB pitcher Mike Gosling and the return to form for former Major Leaguers Greg Reynolds (Rockies) and Jed Lowrie (Red Sox). Two future stars also continued to move up the charts in Indians infielder

2011 Cardinal Game Notes

Cord Phelps and A's outfielder Michael Taylor as both former Cardinal stars finished the year in Triple-A. Stanford had a dozen players in the Majors in 2010 given them 86 all-time. Marquess has coached 52 Major Leaguers since 1977 (53 have made the Majors with current White Sox GM Kenny Williams only playing football at Stanford).

Tickets Available

- Tickets for the team's home games are available at www.gostanford.com or by calling 1-800-STANFORD.

Two-Sport Tradition

• Including Heisman runner-up Toby Gerhart (running back and outfielder), current head coach Mark Marquess (who was a quarterback, defensive back and punt returner) and NFL Hall of Famer John Elway (and outfielder and quarterback), the Cardinal have had a number of great two-sport stars. One of the first was Ernie Nevers, who starred for the Cardinal in the early part of the 20th Century. That list has included: Major League pitcher Joe Borchard (also a QB), NFL and MLB player Chad Hutchinson (RHP and QB), 1940s Major Leaguer Lloyd Merriman, Brian Johnson (QB) and John Lynch (QB and RHP). Orange Bowl Champion and backup running back Tyler Gaffney is the latest two-sport athlete.

Cardinal Catchers

Since 1993, eight starting catchers have gone onto play professionally. Four have reached the Majors and a fifth, Jason Castro, is one of the top prospects in the Astros organization.

Here are Stanford's starting catchers since 1993:

1993-96	A.J. Hinch (3rd round pick, MLB)
1997	Jon Schaeffer (9th)
1998-00	Damien Alvarado (free agent)
2001-03	Ryan Garko (3rd, MLB)
2004	Donny Lucy (2nd, MLB)
2005-06	John Hester (13th, MLB)
2007	Brian Juhl (35th)
2008	Jason Castro (1st, MLB)
2009-	Zach Jones

Head Coach Mark Marquess

Since his arrival, The Clarke and Elizabeth Nelson Director of Baseball in the fall of 1965, Marquess' impact upon Stanford baseball is beyond measure, even by the benchmark of his long list of on-field accomplishments. A member of the American Baseball Coaches Hall of Fame, Marquess opened the season as the seventh-winningest coach in NCAA Division-I baseball history - fourth among active skippers - with a career 1,387-719-7 (.658) record. He moved past USC's Rod Dedeaux's 1342 victories in 2009. Each of those 1,387 victories have come on The Farm, as he has won more games than any coach in any sport ever at Stanford. As head coach of USA Baseball in 1981, Marquess guided the U.S. collegiate team to a gold medal at the World Games in Santa Clara. Following that accomplishment, he led the club to the gold medal at the Intercontinental Cup in Edmonton, Canada. His squad edged Cuba, 5-4, in the finals to mark the first time since 1970 that the United States had beaten the Cubans in international competition. In addition, Marquess became the only person ever to post victories over the Cuban team as both a player and a coach. Marquess' success as a coach can be traced to his days as a player. A three-year starter at first base for Stanford (1967-69), he earned first-team All-America honors in 1967 and garnered second-team All-America recognition in 1968. He was also named first-team All-Pac-8 and All-District-8 both seasons. Marquess' name is still etched in the school's record book, as his .404 batting average in 1967 is fifth all-time on the school's single-season list and his 15 career triples are tied for fifth. In addition, Marquess is one of only 10 to have both played in and coached at the College World Series. He also competed on the 1967 USA Pan American Games team that captured the gold medal. One of the greatest two-sport athletes ever on The Farm, he completed his collegiate baseball career with three seasons on the Stanford football squad as a quarterback, split end, defensive back and punt returner.

• After dropping the opener, No. 11-ranked Stanford used strong pitching to win its first series since Rice, beating an un-ranked, but tough Long Beach State team (L 3-6, W 6-1, W 6-5) in its first home series of the year. In the opener, Stanford starter Mark Appel got roughed up for six runs as Andrew Gagnon, a top arm in the June draft, struck out eight to take the win. LBSU went up 6-0 by the fourth inning and never looked back. On Sunday, Jordan Pries struck out a season-best seven over 7.0 innings to take the win to improve to 3-1. Tyler Gaffney and Kenny Diekroeger each drove in two. In Sunday's rubber game, after LBSU struck Dean McArdle for four runs in the first, Stanford took advantage of three errors by the Dirtbags to win 6-5. Chris Reed retired the final eight batters for his second save of the week, striking out four in the process after A.J. Vanegas and Scott Snodgress bridged the gap from the first with one run. LBSU came into the series with an RPI of 28.

• It wasn't pretty, but Stanford came away with its fifth midweek win, 16-14 over Saint Mary's, surviving seven and five run rallies by the Gaels in the seventh and ninth innings. In the seventh alone, SMC erased a seven-run lead to close to within 10-9, before Stanford scored six times to lead 16-9. Four of the Cardinal's six errors came in the ninth, leading to five more runs as Scott Snodgress got the save with the final two outs. Jake Stewart drove in four, Stephen Piscotty three, as Stanford had a season-high 16 runs, 19 hits and six errors.

• No. 11-ranked Stanford won its Pac-10 opening series for the eighth time in 11 years, coming back after surrendering eight runs in the eighth inning on Friday to take the final two games of the series at Washington State (L 8-10, W 22-3, W 4-3). On Friday, Stanford built an 8-0 lead for Mark Appel, who gave up two runs over 7.0 innings with a career-best seven strikeouts. Appel left with an 8-2 lead, as relievers A.J. Vanegas, Scott Snodgress and closer Chris Reed surrendered eight in the eighth. A three-run, two-out homer by Derek Jones off of Reed capped the inning. On Saturday it was all Cardinal-- as Brian Ragira drove in seven, Lonnie Kauppila had six hits and Austin Wilson drove in another four, more than enough for Jordan Pries to win his fourth with a season-best seven strikeouts over 7.0 innings with two runs. After Stanford went up 16-1, a 33-minute snow delay occurred, before Stanford answered with another five runs to score 20 or more runs for the first time since 2008. On Sunday, Stanford went up 4-0 before four errors led to three runs. Chris Reed though induced a double play to end the eighth and then pitched a perfect ninth to rebound after a tough Friday night. The starting trio combined for a 1.74 ERA over 20.2 innings. The win on Sunday was Mark Marquess' 1400th. Dean McArdle struck out a career-best six over 6.2 innings on Sunday.

WP-Odom (3-4) LP-McArdle, Dean (4-1) T-2:35 A-538

- After opening up its three-game series at USC with an 8-1 win, paced by 17 hits, the No. 11-ranked Cardinal dropped its next two games to the Trojans, 3-1 and 6-2 following career highs in strikeouts from Austin Wood and Logan Odom, who both finished with eight strikeouts. In the opener, Mark Appel (2-3) pitched his first ever complete game, a four-hitter in which he allowed one unearned run. Appel struck out a career-best seven for the second-straight week, retiring 13 in a row, while pitching six no-hit innings. Seven Cardinal had multi-hit games. On Saturday, Jordan Pries lost for the first time since March 4, getting outdueled in a 3-1 Trojan win. On Sunday, Dean McArdle could not get out of the third inning, as USC went up 4-0 and never looked back behind the arm of Odom. Stanford completed its fifth weekend out of six on the road to start the season.
