STANFORD BASEBALL QUICK TEAM NOTES

Stanford heads into its final three regular season road games of the season at California this Friday-Sunday with a season-best 11-game road win streak ... Stanford (13-5 Pac-10) is one and a half games ahead of Arizona State (10-5 Pac-10) and two games in front of Arizona (11-7 Pac-10) with six conference games to play ... Stanford has won 16 career Pac-10 championships (includes Southern Division and shared titles) and finished either first or second in the conference 20 times in the last 22 years ... Stanford moved up two spots to No. 7 in the latest Baseball America poll released May 5 ... Stanford is also ranked No. 3 by Collegiate Baseball, No. 5 by the NCBWA and No. 7 by Sports Weekly/ESPN ... Stanford is hitting .317 (#3 Pac-10) as a team, which would rank fourth on the school's all-time single-season list ... Stanford's pitching staff is second in the Pac-10 with a 4.19 ERA and has held its opponents to a Pac-10 low .248 batting average ... Stanford is looking to extend its school record of consecutive appearances at the College World Series to five.

STANFORD BASEBALL QUICK INDIVIDUAL NOTES

Carlos Quentin leads the team and ranks second in the Pac-10 with a .416 batting average, .014 percentage points behind Stanford's single-season record of .430 set by Tom Williams in 1972 ... Quentin, who was named one of five finalists for the USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award on May 6, is also attempting to become the first Stanford player to hit .400 or better since 1991 ... Quentin has hit safely in 32 of his last 34 games (.456, 62-136) and had a career-high 26-game hit streak that lasted two months (February 22 - April 22) ... Quentin also paces the team in hits (74), doubles (22), walks (31), hit-by-pitches (10), on-base percentage (.520), multiple-hit games (21, co-leader) and extra-base hits (29, co-leader) ... Ryan Garko, a Johnny Bench Award candidate, is the team's leader in homers (13), RBI (64), total bases (125), slugging percentage (.698), multiple-RBI games (20), multiple-hit games (21, co-leader) and extra-base hits (29, co-leader) ... Garko has earned NCBWA National Co-Hitter, Pac-10 Player and College Baseball Insider West Regional Player of the Week honors each for the first time in his career this week after going 10-for-13 (.769) with three homers, 12 RBI and a stolen base in the USC series ... John Hudgins (7-3, 3.29) leads the conference in innings pitched (104.0) and strikeouts (96), and was named a 2003 Verizon All-Academic District VIII selection ... Mark Romanczuk (9-0, 3.63) paces the Pac-10 with nine victories and has been invited to the 2003 USA National Team Trials.

STANFORD-CALIFORNIA SERIES HISTORY

Stanford holds an all-time lead in the series over California, 220-207. Stanford swept the Golden Bears in a non-conference series at Sunken Diamond earlier this season (March 7-9; 11-2, 9-4, 11-2). Last year, Stanford won five of the six games between the clubs March 8-10 at California; W, 15-4; L, 1-2; W, 4-2; May 3-5 at Stanford; W, 8-4; W, 13-6; W, 8-5). California last won a series over the Cardinal with two-of-three wins in Berkeley from April 27-29, 2001 (W, 7-4; W, 7-0; L, 5-9).

THIS WEEK'S GAME REVIEW (SAN JOSE STATE)

Stanford 3, at San Jose State 0 (May 6, 2003)

Stanford extended its season-long road win streak to 11 games with a 3-0 victory at San Jose State in a non-conference game at Municipal Stadium. Stanford starter Tim Cunningham (2-2), the first of seven Cardinal pitchers that combined for Stanford's third shutout of the year and held the Spartans to four hits, earned the victory with 3.0 scoreless innings of one-hit work. Ryan McCally came on with two outs in the bottom of the ninth and struck out the only batter he faced to end the game, earning his second save of the season and 13th of his career.

Stanford's Danny Putnam (2-4) was the only player for either team with more than one hit. Mark Jecmen (0.1 IP, 1 BB, 1 HB), Kodiak Quick (1.2 IP, 2 SO), Billy Paganetti (1.0 IP, 1 BB), Drew Ehrlich (1.0 IP, 1 H), Jonny Dyer (1.2 IP, 2 H, 1 BB, 1 SO) and McCally (0.1 IP, 1 SO) combined with Cunningham for the shutout.

San Jose State starter Jose Amaya (3-4), the first of five Spartan pitchers, suffered the loss by giving up one run and two hits over the first 2.0 innings.

LAST PAC-10 SERIES GAME REVIEWS (USC)

Stanford 22, at USC 10 (May 3, 2003)

John Mayberry, Jr. (5-6, HR, 6 RBI) set new career-highs with five hits and six RBI to lead Stanford to a 22-10 victory over USC in the delayed opener of a key three-game Pac-10 series at Dedeaux Field. Ryan Garko (4-6, 2B, HR, 3 RBI) also hit a homer, tied a career-high with four hits and drove in three runs. Stanford's 22 runs and 18 RBI were season-highs.

Stanford scored 16 runs in the final three innings to break open a game that had been tied 6-6 after six innings and posted the most runs ever by a USC opponent at Dedeaux Field. The old record was held by Arizona (20, April 18, 1982).

Danny Putnam (3-3, 2B, 2 HBP) continued his hot hitting for the Cardinal with a three-hit game. Donny Lucy was 2-for-4 with a double and an RBI, while Jed Lowrie had a pair of career-highs with three RBI and three runs scored.

David O'Hagan (5-1) got credit for his fifth win of the season as the first of three Stanford relievers, scattering one run and three hits over 1.2 innings.

Stanford 8, at USC 3 - Game 1; Stanford 8, at USC 3 - Game 2 (May 4, 2003)

Stanford stayed in first place in the Pac-10 by winning both ends of a doubleheader versus USC by identical 8-3 scores to conclude a three-game sweep of the Trojans. Ryan Garko (4-4, 2 HR, 7 RBI, SB) hit a pair of homers, including his first career grand slam in the first inning, drove in a career-high seven runs and tied a career-high with four hits in the nightcap. Mark Romanczuk (9-0) picked up his Pac-10 leading ninth victory with a complete-game three-hitter in the opener.

Romanczuk allowed just three hits in the opener, the fewest by a Cardinal pitcher in a complete game effort this season, as he went the distance for the second time this year.

In the nightcap, Stanford starter Matt Manship (2-3) picked up the victory in his first collegiate start. Manship lasted a career-long 7.2 innings, scattering three runs on eight hits with three strikeouts.

Garko finished the doubleheader 6-for-7 with two homers, nine RBI and a stolen base.

Carlos Quentin (2-4, 2B) had his 22nd double of the season in the nightcap and now ranks tied for fourth on Stanford's single-season list in that category.

NOTEBOOK

TOP OF THE PAC

Stanford leads the Pac-10 standings by one and a half games over Arizona State (10-5 Pac-10) and is two games ahead of Arizona (11-7 Pac-10) with six conference games remaining for the Cardinal. Stanford has already won two-of-three versus Arizona State but Arizona holds the tiebreaker edge over the Cardinal after taking two-of-three at Sunken Diamond. Stanford has won a total of 18 conference championships in school history, including 16 Pac-10 crowns (includes Southern Division and shared titles). Stanford's last Pac-10 championship came in 2000 when the team finished in a three-way tie for the conference title with Arizona State and UCLA. Stanford has finished second in the conference behind two-time defending league champion USC each of the last two years and has been among the top two in the conference standings (includes Pac-10 Southern Division) for nine straight seasons and 20 times in the last 22 years.

CARLOS QUENTIN NAMED USA BASEBALL GOLDEN SPIKES FINALIST

Carlos Quentin was named one of five finalists for the prestigious 2003 Golden Spikes award announced by USA Baseball in partnership with Major League Baseball on May 6. Quentin becomes the 10th finalist from Stanford in the 26-year history of the award honoring the top amateur baseball player in the country. This year's winner will be announced on various regional cable networks on Tuesday, July 15, the same day as the 2003 Major League Baseball All-Star Game. Quentin is continuing his run at Stanford's single-season batting average record and ranks second in the Pac-10 with a .416 average that is .014 percentage points off the school record of .430 set by Tom Williams in 1972. Quentin is also attempting to become the first Stanford player to hit .400 since David McCarty hit .420 in 1991. In addition, Quentin leads the Cardinal in hits (74, #4 Pac-10), runs scored (52, co-leader with Sam Fuld, #6T Pac-10), doubles (22, #3 Pac-10), walks (30, #6 Pac-10), hit-by-pitches (10, #4T Pac-10), extra-base hits (29, co-leader with Ryan Garko), on-base percentage (.520, #3 Pac-10) and multiple-hit games (21, co-leader with Ryan Garko). Marquess was also an accomplished football and baseball standout on The Farm and is a member of the Stanford Athletic Hall of Fame. He is one of only six collegiate baseball head coaches to have both played and coached in the College World Series. ### COMMENTS FROM MARK MARQUESS

(On the balance of the Pac-10 standings)

"It's even a little more balanced than I thought initially. There are six teams that really still have a pretty good shot at it. It's probably going to go right down to the last weekend."

(On the team's approach)

"We just have to pitch and play well, and hopefully get some timely hitting."

(On the team playing well on the road)

"We've played pretty well on the road, but you can't normally count on that. Each weekend is different, it's really more about how you play and how your opponent plays, especially at this time of the year."

(On Carlos Quentin's season to date)

"Carlos Quentin is having a great season and been a really tough out. Anytime you have a player hitting over .400 he is having a phenomenal year."
