host Arizona State, May 27-29,
NCAA Selection Show: May 31, 9:30 a.m. ESPN

Upcoming Series

Stanford Baseball (28-20, 11-10 Pac-10), tied for third in the Pac-10 standings, travel to No. 26-ranked Arizona (31-18, 10-11) this weekend for a three game series in the Desert. Friday and Saturday's games are at 6 p.m. with Sunday's game at noon. Friday, Stanford will send to the hill LHP Brett Mooneyham (2-5, 5.24) against RHP Kurt Heyer (6-2, 2.82) and on Saturday RHP Jordan Pries (3-3, 3.53) will twirl against RHP Kyle Simon (8-4, 3.68). Neither starter has been announced for Sunday. Washington State, Stanford, and Cal are in a tie for third place at 11-10, Arizona is a game back at 10-11. The final week of the regular season is next week with four home games, hosting UC Davis on Tuesday, May 25 and Arizona State May 27-29. The NCAA Selection Show will be May 31 at 9:30 a.m. Pacific on ESPN. Kenny Diekroeger and Jonathan Kaskow batting .370 on the season.

Leading Off

- Freshman Kenny Diekroeger continues to hit, riding a 22-game hit streak into the Tuesday game with Hawai'i. Over the streak he is batting .444, passing Jonathan Kaskow for the team leading in batting over the weekend.
- Stanford has 10 wins over top-25 opponents this season, one of the highest win totals in the country against top teams.
- The Cardiac Kids have won 10 games in its last at-bat this season after another victory last weekend against WSU. Stanford starts four freshmen and has 12 underclassmen on its pitching staff
- Entering the final two weekends of the regular season Stanford has lost four and won three Pac-10 series and are currently tied for third.

Scouting the Wildcats

• Arizona comes in having dropped each of its last four weekend series, including last weekend's in-state matchup with Arizona State. The Wildcats are hitting .330 as a team paced by Steve Selsky's .400 average and 46 RBIs and Robert Refsnyder's .372 average. Jett Bandy is batting .365 with a team-best 20 doubles. Selsky also has 11 steals as one of five Wildcats in double digits in steals. On the mound, Arizona has a 4.54 ERA paced by its two starters Heyer and Simon.

Upcoming Series Records

• Stanford leads the all-time series with the Arizona Wildcats 96-62, dating back to 1975. Stanford has dropped two out of three to the Wildcats every year since 2003 (7-14 mark). This was after a stretch from 1994 to 2002 in which Stanford won 33 of 40 meetings.

Pac-10 Standings

• With two weekends remaining, Arizona State (15-5) has a 2.5 game lead over UCLA (13-8) and a 4.5 game lead over Washington State, Cal and Stanford (all 11-10). Depending on the week, seven Pac-10 teams have been ranked in the top-25 this season.

In the Rankings

• After being ranked No. 25 last week, Stanford is back out of the rankings this week. They have spent three weeks completely out of the top-25 this season. The team's highest ranking was No. 18 during week two and during the last week of April. The Cardinal began the season ranked as high as No. 25 nationally in USA Today in the preseason.

Stanford Falls to Washington State

• Kenny Diekroeger continued his hit streak with three hits, pacing the Cardinal in a midweek win over Hawai'i. Diekroeger, who extended his hit streak to 22 games, ignited a three-run rally in the sixth to break a 1-1 tie. The Cardinal bullpen pitched 4.2 shutout innings making a winner out of Brian Busick (5-1).

Stanford Falls to Washington State

• After winning the first game with a five-run eighth inning, No. 25-ranked Stanford dropped the next two games to visiting Washington State (W 8-7, L 2-4, L 3-9) to fall into a tie for third place in the Pac-10 standings. In the opener, after trailing 7-3, Stanford put up five runs in the eighth, ignited by a two-run triple by Kenny Diekroeger to win the opener on FSN West. On Saturday, WSU's Jason Wise pitched eight shutout innings for the Cougars, before Stanford sent the tying run to the plate in the ninth following two runs. But an inning ending double play evened the series in the 4-2 loss. On Sunday, Dean McArdle's only blemish was a two-run homer in the sixth as the freshman pitched 5.2 shutout innings prior with six strikeouts, leaving with a 3-2 lead. WSU though got to closer Alex Pracher, scoring seven runs in the ninth to win the series. Michael Weber's two-run shot off of McArdle and a grand slam off of Pracher were two of three homers on the weekend for the WSU first baseman.

Stanford Coaching Staff

Clarke and Elizabeth Nelson
Director of Baseball

• Mark Marquess '69 enters his 34th season as the Clarke and Elizabeth Nelson Director of Baseball. He entered the season with an overall record of 1356-694-7, producing 2 NCAA titles (1987, 1988), 7 Super Regionals (six titles), 14 College World Series, 25 NCAA Regionals and 12 conference titles. He is one of just 10 coaches to have played and coached in a CWS, doing so while a player in 1967. He also won a Gold medal as the head coach of the 1998 Seoul Olympic team and won a gold medal at the 1967 Pan Am Games. He carries a 120-55 (.686) postseason record and 36-25 CWS mark.

Longtime Lieutenant

• Fellow alum, Dean Stotz '75, has been with Marquess for all 34 years. In his current role, he is the team's primary hitting coach, since 1997. He has developed such Major Leaguers as Carlos Quentin, Johnny Bench Award winner Ryan Garko, Sam Fuld, Jody Gerut and Jed Lowrie. From 1993 to 1996 he was the team's pitching coach, working with Cardinal stars Kyle Peterson, Chad Hutchinson and Jeff Austin.

Pitching

• Veteran coach Rusty Filter, who spent the last 17 years at San Diego State will serve as the team's pitching coach. San Diego State led the Mountain West Conference in ERA in six of the league's first 10 seasons, ranking in the top-three in each of those years. Individually, four players were named the MWC's Pitcher of the Year, including Stephen Strasburg the last two years (2008, 2009), Bruce Billings (2005), and Scott Shoemaker (2004). In 2009, four of his hurlers-- Cincinnati's Aaron Harang, St. Louis' Royce Ring, Boston's Jason Masterson and San Francisco's Alex Hinshaw, pitched in the Majors.

On the bases

• Dean Stotz '75 will be the third base coach and Mario Iglesias '96, the starting pitcher of the team's 1996 CWS team, will coach first base.

Coaches of Note

• Two of the Cardinal's national title stars from the 1987 and 1988 are in opposing dugouts, David Esquer (Cal) and Ed Sprague (Pacific). Esquer was the starting shortstop for the 1987 club, while Sprague was the starting third baseman for both the 1987 and 1988 clubs. Sprague also won a World Series title with the Blue Jays.

2010 Stanford Cardinal Notes

McArdle Shows Promise on Sunday

• Freshman Dean McArdle, one of a dozen underclassmen on the pitching squad had his best performance of the season last Sunday against Washington State. He pitched 5.2 shutout innings until a two-run homer cut the Stanford lead to 3-2 and forced McArdle from the game. McArdle, mostly used out of the bullpen this season, struck out six for the second time this year. Overall he has a 4-0 record and 4.97 ERA.

Clutch Performances

• The Cardinal have won 10 games in its last at-bat, with six different players, Zach Jones (GW hit versus Pepperdine, GW single versus USC), Kenny Diekroeger (GW double versus Rice, GW Sac fly versus Cal-4/23, GW RBI double versus Cal-4/25), Jonathan Kaskow (GW hit versus UCSB), Jake Schlander (walk-off solo homer in the 11th vs. UCSB), Colin Walsh (two-run homer at OSU) and Eric Smith (two-out, RBI double in 10th at LBSU). The tenth game was a five-run eighth against Washington State, in which the go-ahead run scored on an error.

Big Innings So Far

• Trailing early, the Cardinal have been able to put together big innings to get back into the game.

Opponent	Date	Trailing...	Runs	Result
Rice	2/20	4-2	11 runs in the seventh	W, 14-5
at UC Davis	3/4	4-2	Six runs in the sixth	W, 8-4
UCSB	3/7	14-3	Eight runs in sixth	L 11-15
at UCLA	4/2	1-0	Seven runs in fifth	W 8-4
at Oregon St.	4/16	6-4	five runs in 7th and 8th	W 14-6
Cal	4/24	3-0	six runs in 3rd and 5th	W 15-12
Washington St.	5/14	7-3	five runs in 8th	W 8-7

11 Cardinal in the Majors

• With Chris Carter (Mets) returning to the Majors in late May and Drew Storen (Nationals) getting his first callup a week later, Stanford had eight former players playing in the Majors and three more, Kenny Williams (White Sox) and Ruben Amaro, Jr. (Phillies), to a manager, A.J. Hinch (Diamondbacks), in management. The other players to have played in 2010 are starting pitcher Jeremy Guthrie (Orioles), first baseman Ryan Garko (Rangers), outfielder Carlos Quentin (White Sox), outfielder Jody Gerut (Brewers), catcher Donny Lucy (White Sox) and catcher John Hester (Diamondbacks). With Storen, the Cardinal now have 85 Stanford affiliated people to have played in the Majors.

Tickets Available

• Tickets for the team's home games are available at www.gostanford.com or by calling 1-800-STANFORD.

On the Web

• All Stanford home games are streamed through CBS All-Access through the gostanford.com website. In addition, all audio for all games are through kzsu.stanford.edu. Live stats are available through CBS' Gametracker software through the website.

Two-Sport Tradition

• Including Heisman runner-up Toby Gerhart (running back and outfielder), current head coach Mark Marquess (who was a quarterback, defensive back and punt returner) and NFL Hall of Famer John Elway (and outfielder and quarterback), the Cardinal have had a number of great two-sport stars. One of the first was Ernie Nevers, who starred for the Cardinal in the early part of the 20th Century. That list has included: Major League pitcher Joe Borchard (also a QB), NFL and MLB player Chad Hutchinson (RHP and QB), 1940s Major Leaguer Lloyd Merriman, Brian Johnson (QB) and John Lynch (QB and RHP). Backup running back Tyler Gaffney, a freshman outfielder on the team, is the latest two-sport athlete.

Storen Makes Quick Accent to the Majors

• Last year's closer, Drew Storen, is already in the Major Leagues after spending barely a full season in the Washington National minor leagues. Storen was called up late Sunday after 41 games in the minors where he had a 1.68 ERA. Storen, the tenth overall selection last season, went 7-3 with a 3.80 ERA last year and struck out 116 over 99.0 innings in his two-year career.

Streak for Diekroeger Continues

• Freshman Kenny Diekroeger continues to produce one of the longest hit streaks in school-history, checking in at 22 straight games, to enter the week. The last game Diekroeger did not have a hit was in the first game of a doubleheader with Oregon on April 10. During the streak, Diekroeger is batting .444 with 12 multi-hit games. Overall he leads the team with a .370 average and has a team-leading 21 multi-hit games after three hits on Tuesday.

Mooneyham Continues Strong Second Half

• Brett Mooneyham continues to pitch a strong second half as he has a 3.76 ERA and 1-2 record over his last six starts. He has 39 strikeouts over his last four starts. He has pitched into the sixth in five of the last six games after reaching the sixth just once previously (eight starts) to start the year. He struck out seven over 6.2 innings in a no-decision this past Friday.

Ready to Bloom

Freshman Sahil Bloom nearly picked up his first two collegiate wins of the weekend. On Friday his two-pitch double play ball in the eighth sent it into the eventual game-winning five run rally, in which Bloom was credited with the win before nearly picking up another win the next day against the Cougars. He pitched a scoreless ninth on Saturday as Stanford scored two runs in the bottom of the ninth and had the winning run at the plate before a game ending double play ball. Bloom has thrown just 5.1 innings this season.

Stanford Professionals

With Drew Storen heading to the Majors and Chris Carter getting a callup in late May, Stanford has eight players in the Majors this season. An additional 21 players are playing in the minors. The Cardinal featured 11 players in the Major Leagues in 2009, including the 84th player to go to Stanford and player in the Majors, John Hester, who made his debut for another Cardinal great, A.J. Hinch, who was his manager for the Diamondbacks. Storen is the 85th player in the Majors.

2010 Major Leaguers

- Chris Carter, OF, Mets
- Donny Lucy, C, White Sox
- Ryan Garko, 1B, Rangers
- Jody Gerut, OF, Brewers

- Kenny Williams, general manager, WSox (FB only)

World Champions

Since Tillie Shafer in 1912 and 1913 with the New York Giants, 16 former players have appeared in the Fall Classic, winning a combined 12 rings. Former Yankee Bobby Brown won four titles with the Yankees in the 1940s and 1950s, while Ed Sprague won back-to-back titles with the Blue Jays in the 1990s. Sprague also part of Stanford's CWS national title runs.

Award Winners

Former greats Jim Lonborg (1967) and Jack McDowell (1993) have each won Cy Young Awards. Bob Boone won a gold glove at catcher seven times from 1978 to 1989 and Mike Mussina was a gold glove winner from 1996 to 2008, seven times. Lonborg (1967), Boon (1976, 78, 79, 83), Ed Sprague (1991), McDowell (1991-93), Mussina (1992-94, 97-98) and Carlos Quentin were all All-Stars.

2010 Stanford Cardinal Notes

Garko Named to All Legends Team

- Former Stanford star and current major leaguer Ryan Garko was one of the 28 players selected to be a part of the College World Series Legends Team, to be honored during the 2010 championship series at Rosenblatt Stadium. Garko was one of two catchers selected, joining South Carolina's Landon Powell. Garko, currently playing for the Rangers, starred for the Cardinal during Stanford's three-straight CWS seasons in 2001, 2003 and 2003. He finished his Stanford career ninth all-time in batting (.350), fifth in doubles (60), ninth in homers (39) and seventh in RBIs (191) over a four-year career. He was a third round pick of the Indians in 2003, making his major league debut two seasons later.

Quentin One of Decade's Best

- Stanford Major Leaguer Carlos Quentin was named one of Baseball America's players of the decade for the first 10 years of the new century, joining four other Pac-10 players on the national publication's look back at the decade. A four-year Major Leaguer with the Diamondbacks and White Sox. Pac-10 players included: UCLA second baseman Chase Utley, Oregon State outfielder Jacoby Ellsbury, USC pitcher Mark Prior and Washington pitcher Tim Lincecum.

Cardinal Catchers

Since 1993, eight starting catchers have gone onto play professionally. Four have reached the Majors and a fifth, Jason Castro, is one of the top prospects in the Astros organization.

Here are Stanford's starting catchers since 1993:

1993-96	A.J. Hinch (3rd round pick, MLB)
1997	Jon Schaeffer (9th)
1998-00	Damien Alvarado (free agent)
2001-03	Ryan Garko (3rd, MLB)
2004	Donny Lucy (2nd, MLB)

Game Winning Rallies (10)

2/20 v. Rice... Kenny Diekroeger, two-out, two-run double after trailing 6-5 in the ninth to win Sunday 7-6.

3/5 v. UCSB... Jonathan Kaskow, pinch-hit, two-out RBI 1B in ninth of 6-5 win of Friday opener.

3/6 v. UCSB... Jake Schlander, first pitch walk-off solo homer to left in the 11th to win Saturday, 5-4.

3/19 v. Pepperdine... Zach Jones game-winning RBI single in bottom of the ninth to win 9-8 after trailing 7-3 in series opener.

3/27 v. USC... Zach Jones, two-out, two-run single on first pitch to win it 5-4.

4/17 at OSU... Colin Walsh, two-run homer in 10th to take series in Corvallis, 5-3.

4/23 v. Cal... Kenny Diekroeger, sacrifice fly to win series opener, 3-2

4/25 v. Cal ... Kenny Diekroeger, capped three-run ninth, swept series with one-out RBI double.

5/8 at Long Beach State ... Eric Smith hit a two-out pinch-hit double in the 10th after Diekroeger's two-out, two-run homer gave the Cardinal the lead in the ninth.

5/17 v. Washington State... five-run eighth inning erases 7-3 lead in opener in 8-7 win. Error allows go-ahead run to score after Eric Smith's pinch-hit RBI single tied it.

Cardinal Player Notes - Starting Pitching

#16 Jordan Pries, Sophomore, RHP - Alameda, CA

HIGHs: Complete Games-3 (WSU, 3/1/09-8 IP; Pepperdine, 3/20/10-9 IP, at UCLA, 4/1/10-9 IP)...
5 walks (3 times)... 10 strikeouts (v. Arizona State, 4/18/09)

In a game won in extra innings, Pries struck out a season-best nine giving up two runs on nine hits after the Stanford bullpen lost the lead in the ninth only to win in the 10th at Long Beach State (5/8)... hit a stretch in mid to late April where he went just 3.2 innings against No. 15 Cal (4/23) and 4.1 innings at Washington (5/1) at Safeco Field, the first time under five innings in 12 starts... No-decision in game won in the 10th after 7.1 innings of three runs (all in the fifth) on six hits. Second-straight no-decision at Oregon State (4/17)... produced a 1.97 ERA over four starts from March 20 to April 10... was in line for his third win in four weeks with 7.0 innings against Oregon (4/10), allowing a single run on five hits, but the bullpen blew a 6-1 lead (4/9) in series opener... threw second complete game in three weeks at No. 2 UCLA snapping the Bruins 22-game win streak to the start season (4/1), earning Pac-10 Pitcher of the Week honors. Pitched an eight-hitter, twice retiring seven in a row. Went the first 7.2 innings, giving up just one unearned run on four hits before tiring to even the series.... first career shutout was a two-hitter against Pepperdine in the series clincher on Saturday. Pitched to the minimum over 16 batters into the sixth, including 12 in a row, striking out six for first win since the season opener... In season opener, after giving up a leadoff homer and five hits to the first eight batters against No. 5 Rice in season opener in 2010, settled down to pitch into the eighth in eventual sweep of Owls... was in 1-0 pitcher's duel until grand slam at Texas in the fifth, taking loss with six runs over 5.1 innings... went 4-4 with a 4.62 ERA over 11 starts in 2009.

 DIEKROEGER WINS IT WITH TWO-RUN DOUBLE IN THE NINTH

• No. 25-ranked Stanford scored 27 runs and three freshmen started for Mark Marquess club during the first weekend of the season, as it defeated No. 5 Rice (6-4, 14-5, 7-6). In the opener, Jordan Pries rebounded from a rough start in which he gave up five hits over the first eight batters to go 7.2 innings, giving up four runs (one earned) as freshman Stephen Piscotty had three hits in his debut. On Saturday, in a pushed-forward doubleheader due to potential rain, the Cardinal swept the doubleheader thanks to an 11-run seventh inning in game one to erase a 4-2 lead, and freshman Kenny Diekroeger's walk-off two-run double in the ninth of game two, after Rice took at 6-5 lead in the top of the inning. Jonathan Kaskow drove in runs in each game and five for the series.

• In an exciting series, the Cardinal took two of three from UC Santa Barbara (W 6-5, W 5-4 (11), L 11-15), paced by two wins in its last at-bat and another eight-run inning in the Sunday finale. On Friday, in a back-and-forth game, Jonathan Kaskow delivered the game-winner in the bottom of the ninth after Stanford trailed 2-0, 4-3 and 5-4. On Saturday, it took extra innings, but Jake Schlander launched the first pitch of the 11th into left field for the second come-from-behind victory in as many days. Saturday also saw reliever Brian Busick come on after UCSB took a 4-1 lead and retire 12 in a row and pitch to the minimum over 18 batters and 6.0 innings. Busick's previous career-best was 2.0 innings as the team won it two innings later. On Sunday, Brett Mooneyham could not get out of the first inning, giving up six runs to the Gauchos, as the team's comeback came up short. Stanford scored eight runs in the sixth to close to within 14-11, after a 14-3 deficit.

• Stanford opened up Pac-10 play by winning the final two games against USC after a rough Friday game (L 8-13, W 5-4, W 3-1). Cardinal pitching walked eight and gave up 11 runs over the first six innings as freshman Mark Appel could not get out of the third in his first collegiate start. The tides turned on Saturday, when Jordan Pries pitched seven solid innings as each team traded leads until Zach Jones evened the series with the team's fifth walk-off win of the season, a two-out, two-run single in the ninth. On Sunday, Stanford's pitching of Brett Mooneyham and Alex Pracher allowed just one run on five hits as Colin Walsh delivered the go-ahead two-run single in the seventh to clinch the series. Mooneyham, who had struggled with an 8.85 ERA over his first five starts, struck out seven over six innings, before Alex Pracher won the bullpen's 10th win following three scoreless innings.

• A playoff atmosphere engulfed the second Pac-10 series of the year as UCLA was riding a 21-game win streak and No. 2 ranking and were glad its guests from the North departed in a series separated by one run (L 5-6 (10), W 8-4, L 5-7). In the opener, Stanford had leads of 1-0, 2-1 and 5-3, and nearly won it in the ninth when Tyler Gaffney, after falling around third, nearly left over catcher Steve Rodriguez for the go-ahead run. Instead UCLA escaped with a 6-5 win four and a half hours after the start. UCLA's 22-game win streak was over on Saturday, as Jordan Pries had his second complete game in three weeks, an eight-hitter to even the series. Stanford scored seven runs in the fifth to take a 7-1 lead, as Pries twice retired seven in a row in the contest and allowed just one unearned run on four hits over the first 7.2 innings. But needing a complete game with a tired bullpen after day one, Pries finished off the night to send the game into Sunday. Stanford starter Bretty Mooneyham struggled, as he did not get out of the fourth as UCLA built a 5-1 lead, which was shipped away to 5-3 in the fifth on a Kenny Diekroeger two-run homer and 7-5 in the eighth on a pinch-hit Jonathan Kaskow two-run single off of Bruin closer Dan Klein. Klein though recovered in the ninth to escape with the series victory.

• No. 22-ranked Stanford dropped its second-straight Pac-10 series to Oregon (L 2-5, L 6-9, W 2-1) in a series that was almost won by the Cardinal. After dropping the opener 5-2, a doubleheader was scheduled for Saturday to avoid a rainout on Sunday. In game one, the Stanford bullpen gave up eight runs over the final two innings to ruin a solid start from Jordan Pries. Pries, who has a 1.97 ERA over his last four starts, gave up just one run on five hits over the first seven innings, gave it over to the bullpen with a 6-1 lead. After three runs in the eighth, a two-out, three-run triple off of closer Alex Pracher gave Oregon a 7-6 lead to take the series. In game two, needing a win, Brett Mooneyham responded. The lefthander pitched eight scoreless innings before a single run came across in the ninth of a 2-1 victory. Freshman Eric Smith, who came into Saturday's doubleheader just 2-for-19, came through with an RBI triple and two hits in game one and an RBI single in game two.

• Scoring 29 runs and batting .352, Stanford swept No. 14-ranked Oregon State (W 14-6, W 5-3 (10), W 10-7) to move back into the national rankings after an seven out of nine losing streak the weeks prior. In the opener, Stanford pounded out a season-best 19 hits as Jake Schlander drove in a career-best six and the Cardinal scored five runs a piece in the seventh and eighth innings after trailing 6-4. The bullpen combined for 4.1 scoreless innings, including three shutout innings from Mark Appel for his first career save. In the series clincher, Jordan Pries pitched seven strong innings, but it was not until Colin Walsh connected on a two-run homer in the 10th did Stanford take its first Pac-10 series in three weeks. In the Sunday finale, the Cardinal pounded out three runs in the second and six more in the third to lead 9-1, as the bullpen allowed five runs after Brian Busick pitched a career-best six innings, allowing two runs on seven hits. Collegebaseballinsider.com named Stanford its "team of the week" for its performance. Pac-10 Player of the Week Jonathan Kaskow hit .625 for the week.

• Stanford won its last non-conference weekend of the series, taking the first two games of its series at Long Beach State behind strong pitching, before dropping the Sunday finale (W 3-2, W 4-3 (10), L 5-10). In the opener, Brett Mooneyham struck out nine over six innings and Brian Busick pitched the final three scoreless innings for his first save as Mooneyham continued a strong second half of the season. In the Saturday clincher, Jordan Pries struck out nine and allowed just two runs over eight innings but it was not until late that the real fireworks occurred. Trailing 2-1, Jonathan Kaskow worked a 12-pitch two-out walk against Jake Thompson, who was trying to complete a nine-strikeout complete game. Kenny Diekroeger then followed with a two-run homer to give Stanford a brief 3-2 lead. The bullpen relinquished the lead before Eric Smith, following another two-out walk, delivered an RBI double in the 10th. On Sunday, Mark Appel gave up five runs in the second and Stanford could not recover for the sweep. Kenny Diekroeger's second home run of the weekend extended his hit streak to 17 games.
