The Cardinal

Stanford concluded the regular season with a 9-2 overall record and 6-2 in the Pacific-10 Conference ... The Cardinal finished in a three-way tie for second in the Pac-10 with Washington and Washington State ... Stanford will play in the 20th bowl game in school history on December 27 when it faces Georgia Tech of the Atlantic Coast Conference in the inaugural Seattle Bowl ... Stanford also concluded one of the best regular seasons in school history ... The Cardinal's nine wins thus far in 2001 marks the first time that Stanford has won nine regular season games since 1992 and only the second time in the last 50 years ... The Cardinal won its last four games of the season six of its last seven.

Best Regular Seasons

The 2001 Cardinal turned in one of the finest regular seasons in the 106 year history of Stanford football ... The nine wins this season marks only the eighth time in school history that Stanford won at least nine games during the regular season ... In the last 50 years (1952-2001), only two teams have won nine regular season games: 1992 and 2001 ... If the Cardinal beats Georgia Tech in the Seattle Bowl and finishes with 10 wins, it would mark only the fourth time that Stanford completed a season with 10 wins ... The only other times it occurred was in 1926 (10-0-1, tied in Rose Bowl), 1940 (10-0, won in Rose Bowl) and 1992 (10-3, won in Blockbuster Bowl) ... Stanford's best regular seasons are listed below:

Year	W-L	Pct
1926	10-0	1.000
1940	9-0	1.000
1934	9-0-1	.950
1951	9-1	.900
1930	9-1-1	.864
2001	9-2	.818
1929	9-2	.818
1992	9-3	.750

Going Bowling

Stanford will compete in the 20th bowl game in school history this season and the fourth since Tyrone Willingham took over the reigns in 1995 ... Stanford's last bowl appearance was in 1999 when the Cardinal won the Pac-10 championship and played Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl ... Willingham has previously led Stanford to the 1995 Liberty Bowl and '96 Sun Bowl in addition to the Rose Bowl two years ago ... Stanford is 9-9-1 in its previous 19 bowl games.

National Rankings

Stanford is ranked No. 11 this week by both the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN ... Stanford was ranked No. 10 in the AP poll on Oct. 28, marking the highest national rating on The Farm since the final rankings of the 1992 season when the Cardinal was No. 9 after a 10-3 season ... Stanford has been ranked in the top-25 eight of the last nine weeks ... The Cardinal first appeared in the national rankings on September 30 after beating USC and improving to 3-0 ... Wins over top-five teams Oregon and UCLA pushed the Cardinal up 19 spots in the AP poll and 16 spots in the ESPN poll during a two-week period.

Pac-10 Picture

Stanford finished the Pac-10 campaign with a 6-2 record and in a three-way tie for second place with Washington and Washington State ... The Cardinal has finished in first (1999), second (2001) and fourth (2000) in the Pac-10 the past three years and has a combined 17-7 conference record ... Stanford finished 7-1 in winning the conference title in '99, 4-4 in '00 and 6-2 in 2001 ... Stanford has won eight of its last 10 Pac-10 games and trails only Oregon and Washington for the best conference record in the last three years ... In its last 26 Pac-10 games, Stanford is an impressive 19-7.

Pac-10 Standings (1999-2001)

Team	Record	.Pct
Oregon	20-4	.833
Washington	18-6	.750
Stanford	17-7	.708

Washington State	9-15	.375
UCLA	9-15	.375
Arizona	7-17	.292
California	5-19	.208

Conference Wins

Stanford recorded six wins in conference play for the fourth time since the 1971 season, but the second time in the last three years ... The Cardinal went 7-1 en route to winning the Pac-10 title in 1999 and has gone 6-2 in 1991 and '92 before this season ... Prior to the '91 campaign, the Cardinal's last six-win season in conference play came in Stanford's back-to-back Rose Bowl years of 1970 (6-1) and '71 (6-1) ... The only other times a Stanford team won as many as six conference games was in 1940 (7-0) and 1951 (6-1).

Year	Conference	Place
2001	6-2	2nd
1999	7-1	1st
1992	6-2	1st (tie)
1991	6-2	2nd

Quick Start

Stanford began the 2001 campaign with three straight wins – matching its best start in 15 years (since 1986) ... The Cardinal also began the year with two consecutive conference wins for the first time since its 1999 Rose Bowl season ... Stanford's 5-1 start also matched the '92 team's record after six games – the best in the last 10 years – and Stanford's 7-2 record matched the best on The Farm since the 1986 team had the same record after nine games ... The Cardinal's 8-2 record after 10 games was the best at Stanford since the 1970 team also went 8-2 after 10 games.

Lately

Stanford has won 11 of its last 13 games overall and eight of its last 10 in conference play ... Stanford won their final two games of the 2000 season against Arizona State and Cal and nine of 11 in 2001 ... In Pac-10 play, Stanford's streak includes wins in 2000 vs. Arizona State and Cal, and victories this season over Arizona State, USC, Oregon, UCLA, Arizona and California ... The only conference losses during this time have come against WSU on Oct. 13 and Washington on Nov. 3.

Toughest Schedule

Stanford's schedule has been ranked by the NCAA as one of the toughest in college football ... The Cardinal played two games against teams that were ranked in the top-5 at game time (Oregon, UCLA) and two others against teams that were ranked in nation's top-10 in 2001 (Washington, Washington State) ... Six of Stanford's 11 opponents in 2001 were bowl eligible.

Experience

Stanford's 2001 club is one of the most experienced in recent years, especially on the defensive side of the ball ... Stanford returned 16 starters and 39 letter-winners from last year's team ... Fourteen starters are in their last season on The Farm, including nine on defense, four on offense and one kicker ... Only NT Trey Freeman and DT Matt Leonard will return to the Cardinal defense in '02 ... Lineman Austin Lee and Marcus Hoover, linebackers Coy Wire, Matt Friedrichs and Anthony Gabriel and the entire secondary in CB Ruben Carter and Ryan Fernandez, FS Tank Williams and SS Simba Hodari are playing their final seasons at Stanford ... Offensively, four starters are in their final seasons on The Farm, including QB Randy Fasani, RB Brian Allen, C Zack Quaccia and OG Eric Heitmann ... PK Mike Biselli is also in his final year at Stanford.

Tyrone Willingham

Head coach Tyrone Willingham is concluding his seventh season at the helm of the Stanford University football program ... He became the third winningest coach in Stanford football history when he posted career win No. 41 at Arizona on November 10 ... Only two other coaches in school history have enjoyed a longer tenure on The Farm – Glenn "Pop" Warner and John Ralston – who both coached at Stanford for nine seasons ... Willingham's tenure also ranks tied for second among current Pacific-10 Conference head coaches behind only Washington State's Mike Price and tied with Oregon's Mike Belotti ... Willingham, who has twice been named Pac-10 Coach of the Year (1995 & 1999), owns a career record of 44-35-1 (.556) and Pac-10 record of 32-24 (.571) ... He has led the Cardinal to four bowl games, including a 1999 Pac-10 Championship and a trip to the Rose Bowl on January 1, 2000 ... The Rose Bowl appearance was Stanford's first in 28 seasons.

Stanford defeated California 35-28 for its seventh-consecutive win over its cross-Bay rivals. The winner of The Big Game is awarded the Stanford Axe as a trophy in one of college football's longest-running and most colorful rivalries.

The team celebrates with Tank Williams at the bottom of the pile after Stanford's 49-42 victory over Oregon on October 20, in Eugene, OR.

Post-Season Pac-10 Honors

Stanford had 16 players earn All-Pac-10 honors and 17 players earn Academic All-Pac-10 honors in 2001 ... The only player to earn First-Team All-Pac-10 and First-Team Academic All-Pac-10 was Brian Allen ... Allen was a First-Team all-conference selection as a kickoff return specialist and honorable mention as a running back ... OG Greg Schindler was chosen Second-Team All-Pac-10 and Second-Team Academic All-Pac-10 while QB Randy Fasani and OT Kirk Chambers were honorable mention picks on both teams ... Freshman wide receiver Teyo Johnson was named the conference's Co-Freshman of the Year along with WR Reggie Williams of Washington.

Academic All-Pac-10

Stanford placed 17 players on the Pac-10 All-Academic team, including three on the first team, five on second and nine honorable mention ... First-Team selections include RB Brian Allen, NT Craig Albrecht and CB Garry Cobb ... Second-team selections were WR Ryan Wells, OG Greg Schindler, DE Cooper Blackhurst, NT Trey Freeman and ILB Matt Friedrichs ... Honorable mention honors went to PK Mike Biselli, OT Kirk Chambers, QB Randy Fasani, ILB Brian Gaffney, DE Louis Hobson, DE Austin Lee, QB Chris Lewis, WR Jamien McCullum and TE Matt Wright.

Rushing Attack

Stanford led the Pac-10 and ranked 23rd in the nation in rushing offense, averaging 201 yards per game ... This marks the first time that the Cardinal has led the Pac-10 in rushing (the conference began keeping records since 1954) ... The Cardinal has rushed for over 200 yards in six of its 11 games this season, including a season-best 276 at Arizona on Nov. 10 ... Stanford's other big rushing games include 213 vs. UCLA, 223 vs. Arizona State, 203 vs. USC, 219 vs. Washington State and 220 vs. San Jose State ... Stanford is averaging 4.4 yards per carry and scored 27 rushing TDs in 2001 ... Brian Allen (174-899-9) and Kerry Carter (123-456-9) were the main ball carriers behind Stanford's experienced offensive line.

Top Rushing Teams

Stanford rushed for 2,211 yards in 2001 and became only the third team in school history to rush for over 2,000 yards ... The Cardinal's rushing total is the most on The Farm since the 1957 team gained 2,259 yards ... The school record for rushing yards in a season is 2,481 set by the 1949 team ... Top Cardinal rushing teams of all-time:

Year	Rushing Yards
1949	2,481
1957	2,259
2001	2,211
1969	1,961
1955	1,946

Rushing Facts

Under Tyrone Willingham (1995-01), a successful rushing attack has usually equaled good things for the Cardinal ... During this time, Stanford is 20-4 when it has a RB gain over 100 yards and 31-6 when it outrushes the opponent ... Stanford is also 16-2 when it rushes for over 200 yards and 25-8 when it rushes for over 150 yards.

The Top 10 List

Brian Allen finished his career as the sixth leading rusher in Stanford football history ... Allen gained 2,117 yards in his Cardinal career and became only the sixth running back to gain over 2,000 yards on the ground ... Kerry Carter, who has 1,515 career rushing yards and one more season of eligibility, is also knocking on the door ... He is 159 yards behind Jon Volpe (1987-90, 1,674 yards) for 10th place.

Brian's Song

Senior running back Brian Allen enjoyed one of the best seasons for a running back in school history ... He rushed for 899 yards in 2001, the sixth best season in school history ... Allen was on pace to break the 1,000 yard barrier and challenge the school record, but injuries limited his play over the final three games ... He gained 102 yards on 40 carries in those games and fell short of becoming the fifth runner in school history to gain over 1,000 yards in a season ... nevertheless, Allen had a tremendous season as the team's starting running back in all 11 games ... He was named First-Team All-pac-10 as a kick returner and honorable mention All-Pac-10 as a running back ... His 26.6 kickoff return average ranked him fourth in the conference and 18th nationally ... He averaged 123.7 yards in all-purpose running, placing him third in the league and 37th in the NCAA ... In the Cardinal record book, Allen ranks 10th all-time at Stanford with 2,870 career all-purpose yards (2,055 rushing, 178 receiving, 575 kickoff returns) ... He rushed for over 100 yards in four games in '01, including 134 vs. Arizona State, 133 vs. Washington State, 138 vs. Washington and 143 vs. Arizona

Brian Allen led Stanford in rushing and finished as the sixth-leading rusher in school history.

... Against Washington, Allen had an 80-yard touchdown run, which was not only Allen's career long, but it tied for the eighth longest run from scrimmage in school history ... All these numbers despite sharing the RB duties throughout his career with Kerry Carter ... A native of Ontario, California, Allen has started the last 28 games at running back for the Cardinal.

More On Carter

Kerry Carter suffered a shoulder injury at Washington on Nov. 3 and missed the final four games of the season (at Arizona, home games vs. California and Notre Dame, at San Jose State) ... He may be ready to return for the Seattle Bowl ... For the season, he rushed for 456 yards on 123 carries and scored a team-best 10 touchdowns (nine rushing, one receiving) ... He had one, 100-yard rushing game this season – that coming on Oct. 27 vs. UCLA when he gained 102 yards and scored two touchdowns ... Against the much-heralded Bruin defense, Carter scored two touchdowns – one on a 26-yard pass play and the other on a season-high 27-yard run late in the game that clinched Stanford's upset win over UCLA ... In 2000, Carter had two, 100-yard rushing games (123 vs. USC, 103 vs. ASU) and led the team with 729 yards on the ground ... Carter is tied for fourth on Stanford's all-time career rushing touchdown list with 21.

Kerry Carter

Tolon's Time

With Kerry Carter out the final four games of the year and Brian Allen limited due to injuries, sophomore Kenneth Tolon was given the chance to see increased playing time – and he made the most of his opportunities ... Through the first seven games of the year, Tolon carried the ball six times for 10 yards ... But, in the final four games of the '01 campaign, the sophomore from Albuquerque gained 336 yards and scored three touchdowns on 48 carries while averaging 7.0 yards per carry ... He had two, 100-yard games in a three game span – a 100-yard performance vs. Arizona and a career-high 133 yards vs. Notre Dame ... Tolon also rushed for 82 yards and a touchdown against Cal ... He had a 71-yard TD run at Arizona, a 29-yard touchdown run vs. Cal and the game-winning one-yard TD against Notre Dame with 1:08 to play ... He finished the season third on the team with 346 yards and three touchdowns on 54 carries.

More Rushing Notes

Stanford's 4.4 yards per carry average this season is the second highest in school history ... Only the 1957 team, which averaged 4.5 yards per carry (2,259 yards, 506 carries) had a better average than the '01 Cardinal ... Leading the way was RB Brian Allen's 5.2 average on a team-leading 174 carries and a 6.4 average by RB Kenneth Tolon and FB Casey Moore.

On the Offensive

Under offensive coordinator Bill Diedrick, Stanford has produced one of the most feared offenses in the Pac-10 since Diedrick took over in 1998 ... During this time, Stanford has averaged 30.4 points per game and 422 yards in total offense ... The Cardinal has scored over 50 points five times, including two in 2001 (51 vs. Arizona State and Arizona) and over 40 points in 10 games ... In the Cardinal record book, three of the top five single game passing totals in school history have come in the past three years under Diedrick, including 465 vs. UCLA in '99, 450 vs. Oregon State in '00 and 422 vs. UCLA in '98 ... Diedrick's offenses have also produced two of the top eight games in Cardinal history in total offense (672 vs. UCLA in '99, 614 vs. San Jose State in '00) ... Diedrick's offenses hold school records for most points scored in a season (409 in 1999), most touchdowns in a season (54 in 2001), most yards in total offense in a season (5,138 in 1999) and most points per game (37.2 in 1999) ... Stanford's offensive numbers the past three seasons under Diedrick:

Off. Coordinator Bill Diedrick

Year	Gm	Rush	Pass	Total	Scoring
1998	11	75.5	319.6	395.2	23.7
1999	11	153.6	313.5	467.1	37.2
2000	11	138.9	236.8	375.7	23.7
2001	11	201.0	250.5	451.5	37.1
Totals	44	142.3	280.1	422.4	30.4

Offensive Numbers

The Cardinal offense was among the best in college football in 2001 ... Stanford led the Pac-10 in scoring offense (37.1 ppg), total offense (451.5 ypg) and rushing offense (201 ypg) and was fourth in passing offense (250.5 ypg) ... Nationally, Stanford's offense ranked tied for ninth in scoring, 10th in total offense, 23rd in rushing offense and 32nd in passing ... Stanford scored more than 38 points in seven of its 11 games in 2001 and has scored more than 30 in 11 of its last 16 games dating back to the 2000 season.

One Point Shy

Stanford finished the 2001 season with 408 total points scored, one shy of the school record of 409 set in 1999 ... Stanford scored more than 50 points in two games, more than 40 points in four games and more than 35 points in eight of 11 games in 2001.

Touchdown Record

Stanford set a school record by scoring 54 touchdowns in 2001 ... The previous school record was 52 TDs, which was set in Stanford's 1999 Rose Bowl season ... Only three times in school history had a Stanford team scored as many as 44 touchdowns in season (44 in 1969, 47 in 1991 and 52 in '99) ... The Cardinal also scored 27 touchdowns on the ground this season, second best on The Farm and just two shy of the school record of 29, set in 1991 ... In the air, the Cardinal scored 25 touchdowns, which ranks tied for fourth all-time ... The school record of 27 passing TDs was set in 1980 (with QB John Elway) and 1993 (QB Steve Stenstrom) ... The 1969 team with Jim Plunkett at QB, scored 26 TDs through the air.

Lewis' Legacy

While junior Chris Lewis did not play the last two games of the season vs. Notre Dame and San Jose State as Randy Fasani returned to the lineup, his play during Fasani's absence proved to be one of the keys to Stanford's success in 2001 ... Lewis played four-and-a-half games for Stanford in place of the Fasani ... During this time, Lewis led Stanford to a comeback win at Oregon as well as victories against UCLA, Arizona and California ... For the season, he has completed 90-of-163 (.552) for 1,277 yards, 12 touchdowns and eight interceptions ... Lewis played the entire second half against Oregon (Oct. 20) and started four consecutive games vs. UCLA, Washington, Arizona and California ... In those games, Lewis completed 84-of-150 (.560) for 1,229 yards and 12 touchdowns ... He threw for a career high 390 yards and four touchdowns in his final start vs. Cal ... He threw seven TD passes in his final two starts (four vs. Cal, three vs. Arizona) ... In his first start of the season against UCLA, he was impressive in Stanford's win over the No. 4 Bruins as he completed 20-of-29 for 250 yards and three touchdowns ... He started three games in 2000 (at home vs. Arizona, at Notre Dame, at Oregon State) ... Lewis, whose sister Robyn is a member of Stanford's nationally-ranked women's volleyball team, has shown the knack for coming off the bench and leading the Cardinal to come-from-behind wins, which he has done three times in the last two seasons ... He has already done it once this year- October 20 at fifth ranked Oregon ... After Fasani was knocked out of the game, Lewis came on to spearhead Stanford's upset win in Eugene ... After completing just three-of-10 for 28 yards in the first half against the Ducks, he came out in the second half to complete nine-of-16 for 161 yards and two touchdowns ... Last season, he threw for 214 yards and three TDs, including the game-winner with 1:12 to play, to beat No. 5 Texas ... He came off the bench against USC to throw a touchdown pass on the game's final play to beat the Trojans.

Randy's Rhetoric

Fifth-year senior quarterback Randy Fasani was enjoying an outstanding season before suffering a knee injury Oct. 20 at Oregon ... The Granite Bay, Calif. native, who was one of 20 candidates for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award presented to the nation's top senior quarterback, suffered an MCL sprain of his right knee at Oregon and did not play against UCLA, Washington or Arizona ... He played one play vs. Cal on Nov. 17 and returned to the starting lineup Nov. 24 vs. Notre Dame ... Prior to leaving the Oregon game, he had completed seven-of-11 passes for 141 yards and led the Cardinal to three first half touchdowns before leaving the game in the second quarter ... He was among the national leaders in pass efficiency (144.13 rating), points responsible for (14.4) and total offense (235.4) before the injury ... The Cardinal has thrived under Fasani since he won the starting QB job prior to the 2000 season ... In the 15 games Fasani has started since winning the job, Stanford is 11-4 and averaging 32.9 points per contest (494 points) ... In those 15 contests, Stanford has scored fewer than 24 points only twice and has put up 30 or more eight different times ... In the three games he missed in 2000 because of injury, Stanford was 0-3 with 7.7 points per game ... He threw for 232 yards and four TDs in the 2001 season opener vs. Boston College, 295 yards and four more touchdowns vs. Arizona State, 194 yards and two TDs at USC and 202 yards and two touchdowns vs. WSU ... He is the first Cardinal quarterback to throw four TDs in back-to-back games since John Elway accomplished the feat in 1980 (5 at Washington State and 6 vs. Oregon State) ... In addition, Stanford quarterbacks have thrown for four touchdowns or more in a game on 20 occasions in program history and Fasani, who also threw for four TDs against San Jose State last year, joins Elway (four) and 1970 Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett (three) as the only QBs to accomplish that feat three or more times ... Fasani, who married longtime girlfriend Monica Stahr this summer, threw for 1,400 yards and 11 TDs in 2000 ... His best single game numbers in 2000 came against San Jose State, when he was threw for 373 yards and a career-high four TDs and one interception ... Also last season, Fasani threw for 242 yards and three TDs in the Big Game at Cal, including the game-winning pass in overtime ... He also engineered drives of 64-, 58- and 48- yards in the final six minutes against Pac-10 champ Washington to erase a 24-6 deficit ... Prior to becoming the Cardinal's starting QB in 2000, Fasani had also received playing time at tight end, linebacker and special teams.

Fasani on the Run

QB Randy Fasani has proven to be an effective runner out of the pocket and very capable of alluding the defense and scrambling for big gains ... He has gained 322 yards rushing in eight games, but has netted just 174 due to yardage lost through sacks ... However, Fasani has made some big plays with his legs in 2001 ... He has 12 runs over more than 10 yards and six of more than 20 yards ... In the season finale at San Jose State, he rushed for a career-high 68 yards on five carries, including a 34-yard touchdown run ... Against Notre Dame, he ran for 19 yards in Stanford's game-winning drive ... He had a 20-yard scramble in Stanford's upset win at Oregon ... Against WSU, he had runs of 20 and 29 yards ... In Stanford's win at USC, Fasani had key runs of 21 and 23 yards ... His other big runs have been a 13 yard and 11 yard scramble against Boston College and a 15-yard gainer vs. Arizona State ... He finished the season third on the team with 59 rushing attempts.

Stanford's Running Quarterbacks

Randy Fasani's rushing numbers are among the best in school history for a starting quarterback ... Fasani rushed for 321 net yards in his career ... Of the top 10 quarterbacks on the Cardinal's all-time passing list, only one finished his career with positive rushing numbers - Jim Plunkett, who rushed for 343 yards from 1968-70 ... Other Cardinal quarterbacks who finished with positive rushing numbers include Don Bunce (1968-71) with 479 rushing yards, Bobby Garrett (1951-53) with 238 yards and Mike Cordova (1973-76) with 92 rushing yards ... Some of the great Cardinal quarterbacks who did not have positive rushing yards include John Elway (-279 net yards rushing), Steve Stenstrom (-706), John Paye (-130), Todd Husak (-136) and Guy Benjamin (-181).

Tight End Production

Led by senior Brett Pierce, Cardinal tight ends provided some key plays for Stanford during the 2001 campaign ... As a group, Stanford's tight end corps accounted for 25 catches for 365 yards and five touchdowns ... Pierce, who started all 11 games, led the way with 19 receptions for 258 yards (13.6 ypc) and three touchdowns ... It was the most receptions by a Cardinal tight end since Greg Clark (now with the San Francisco 49ers) caught 20 in 1996 ... Against Cal on Nov. 17, Pierce caught two passes for 68 yards, including a 45-yard touchdown, and Naatjes had a 32-yard reception ... Against Washington on Nov. 3, Pierce was a key weapon as he caught four passes for 45 yards ... Against WSU, Naatjes had two receptions for 28 yards and two touchdowns while Pierce added one catch for 15 yards ... Pierce recorded five catches for 40 yards and one TD against USC ... In game two vs. Arizona State, Wright had two receptions for 17 yards and Pierce caught a 25-yard touchdown pass from Fasani ... A year ago in 2000, starter Russell Stewart led all Cardinal tight ends with eight catches.

The O-Line

Stanford's offensive line was expected to be a team strength heading into the 2001 season and the experienced-laden group did not disappoint ... All five starters received post-season recognition, including OG Eric Heitmann as a First-Team All-America and First-Team Pac-10 selection, OG Greg Schindler, C Zack Quaccia and OT Kwame Harris as Second-Team All-Pac-10 picks and OT Kirk Chambers as an honorable mention All-Pac-10 selection ... Prior to the season, the Cardinal's offensive line was rated No. 5 in the nation by Athlon's and No. 10 by Lindy's ... Stanford's starting five represent four players who were starters a year ago and a sophomore (Harris) who played as a true freshman and was one of the nation's top recruits two years ago

(Chambers was also a true freshman in '00) ... In Heitmann, Schindler and Quaccia, the Cardinal has three players who were in the starting lineup for the past three seasons ... The trio combined to start 96 games from 1999-01 ... Schindler was the team's starter at right tackle in '99 and '00, but was moved to guard in 2001 to strengthen the Cardinal's front five ... Harris has proven to be one of the most talented young lineman in the nation ... Sixth man Paul Weinacht, who started two games this season for the injured Schindler at USC and at Washington, is also a talented lineman who provided Stanford with a versatile and very capable backup ... Stanford's league-leading rushing game and offensive success in 2001 is largely due to what has to be considered one of the finest lines in school history.

Eric Heitmann

Heitmann Hits

Senior Eric Heitmann placed his name firmly in the Cardinal record book as one of the best offensive lineman in school history after he concluded his Stanford career as a First-Team All-America by both the American Football Coaches Association and the Football News ... He was also named Second-Team All-America by The Sporting News and First-Team All-Pac-10 ... He became Stanford's first, First-Team All-America offensive lineman since Bob Whitfield in 1991 ... He was on the Lombardi Award Watch List as one of the top lineman in college football ... Named Honorable Mention All-Pac-10 in 1999 and Second-Team All-Conference in '00, Heitmann was a consensus preseason First-Team All-Pac-10 selection and a First-Team All-America choice by Athlon's and Preview Sports ... Street & Smith's named Heitmann as the No. 6 offensive guard in the country ... A native of Katy, Texas, Heitmann played in all 45 games of his Stanford career and started the last 34.

Teyo's Tale

Stanford two-sport standout Teyo Johnson was converted from quarterback to wide receiver prior to the 2001 campaign and quickly earned a reputation as one of the top, young receivers in the nation ... He was named the Pac-10's Co-Freshman of the Year after catching 38 passes for 565 yards (14.9 ypc) and seven touchdowns ... He was also named Fourth-Team Freshman All-America by The Sporting News and honorable mention All-Pac-10 ... At 6-7, Johnson created matchup problems for opposing defenses all season ... Johnson, who is also a member of the Cardinal's nationally-ranked basketball team, came to Stanford as a highly-touted quarterback out of Mira Mesa High School in San Diego ... After playing QB as a true freshman in 2000, Johnson was moved to wide receiver in the final week of spring practice last April ... He began his career as a wide receiver by catching four passes for 51 yards and one TD in the season opener vs. Boston College ... He had three catches for 42 yards and one touchdown a week later vs. Arizona State ... Johnson received extensive playing time at Oregon on October 20 and responded with his biggest game to date – five catches, 95 yards one touchdown ... He caught a three-yard TD pass from Lewis vs. UCLA ... Against Washington on Nov. 3,

Johnson recorded six receptions for 80 yards, including a career-long 54-yarder from Lewis ... Johnson also caught a two-point conversion which tied the score at 28-28 in the third quarter ... He had his best game at Arizona on Nov. 10 ... He caught eight passes for 116 yards and two touchdowns ... He caught a 23-yard touchdown from Lewis in the first quarter, then had a three-yard TD pass play in the second quarter on a "jump ball" in the corner of the end zone ... He had six catches for 84 yards and a touchdown vs. Cal, that coming on a 31-yard pass from QB Chris Lewis ... As a true freshman in 2000-01, Johnson was used as a reserve forward on the basketball team ... He was named to the Honorable Mention All-Pac-10 Freshman team after averaging 4.1 ppg and 2.2 rpg ... He will contend for a starting assignment in 2001-02 ... Johnson is the younger brother of Riall, who recently graduated from Stanford after a stellar four-year career on The Farm in which he twice led the Pac-10 in sacks and was named First-Team All-Conference in 2000 ... Riall is currently playing with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Defending the Run

Stanford led the Pac-10 and ranked 17th nationally in run defense, averaging 109.6 yards allowed per game ... It marks only the second time in school history that Stanford finished the season No. 1 in the league in rush defense (the only other season was 1971) ... Stanford held five opponents under 100 yards rushing in 2001, including 28 against USC, 30 against San Jose State, 57 vs UCLA, 82 against California and 86 vs. ASU.

Powell's Play

Junior FL Luke Powell became Stanford's first, First-Team All-America as a kick returner when he was named to the Football Writer's Association of America All-America team ... Powell was also chosen Second-Team All-Pac-10 as a punt returner and honorable mention as a receiver ... He led the Pac-10 and was second in the nation with a 16.0 punt return average ... He led the Cardinal in receiving with 40 catches for 790 yards (19.8 ypc) and seven touchdowns ... Proved once again to be one of the most dangerous players in college football ... His 19.8 yards per reception average this season ranked second in the Cardinal record book and his punt return average ranked third all-time on The Farm ... He finished the season with a big game against San Jose State in the finale ... He caught six passes for 158 yards and one touchdown and two punts returns for 78 yards ... He had a 27-yard TD catch to go along with receptions of 54, 37 and 27 yards ... He also returned a punt 58 yards ... In The Big Game against Cal, Powell had five catches for 152 yards and two touchdowns, including a 79-yard TD pass play that ranks as the 12th longest in school history ... In the final three games of the season, Powell had 12 receptions for 333 yards (27.8 ypc) and three touchdowns ... His long punt returns included a 49-yard return vs. Boston College in the season opener, a 51-yard return vs. Arizona State, a 46 yard return against Washington State and a 58-yard return vs. SJS ... In his career, Powell has 58 receptions for 1,292 yards – an average of 22.3 yards per catch ... Stanford's school record for career yards per catch average is 21.1 (Bob Blunt, 1964-66) ... Against USC, Powell had four receptions for 124 yards and one touchdown ... Other big games this year include Arizona State (six receptions, 143 yards) and USC (4-124-1 touchdown).

2. Bob Blunt, 1964-66 (35-738) 21.1
3. Miles Moore, 1971-72 (65-1,234) 19.0
4. Randy Vataha, 1969-70 (83-1,234) 18.5
- Emile Harry, 1981-84 (123-2,270) 18.5

Tank's Tale

Clevan "Tank" Williams was named First-Team All-America by the American Football Coaches Association, making him the first defensive back to capture such an honor in school history ... Williams was also named First-Team All-Pac-10 and Second-Team All-America by Football News ... A pre-season candidate for the Jim Thorpe Award, Williams, a 6-3, 225-pound free safety from Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, was Stanford's top playmaker on defense ... He was second on the team with 68 total tackles, but he also accounted for a team-leading five interceptions, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 13 pass break-ups, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries ... He returned one of his fumble recoveries 25 yards for a touchdown against Arizona ... He was tied for third in the Pac-10 and tied for 16th in the NCAA in interceptions per game (0.45) ... He is tied for ninth all-time at Stanford with nine career interceptions ... Named Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week after his game against Arizona ... In addition to his 25-yard fumble return for touchdown, he also forced a fumble which was brought back for a Stanford touchdown, had one interception, one quarterback sack, one tackle for loss and three total tackles ... "Physically, he's everything you look for in a football player," says Cardinal secondary coach Denny Schuler. "He's got corner-back speed, but linebacker size. Clearly, a big-time NFL player."

Tank Williams

High Wire

Senior ILB Coy Wire completed his season on defense by earning First-Team All-Pac-10 honors ... He led the team and was among the league leaders in tackles with 92 ... He also led the team with 12 tackles for loss ... He was on the Lombardi Award Watch List ... ESPN's Mel Kuiper ranked Wire as the fifth best senior safety prospect in the country (along with teammate Tank Williams) and the 30th best player in college football prior to the 2001 campaign ... He had an 89-yard fumble return for a touchdown at Arizona ... Against UCLA's vaunted rushing offense and Heisman Trophy candidate DeShaun Foster, Wire led Stanford with nine tackles, one tackle for loss and a half-sack ... He recorded a career-high 15 tackles against Notre Dame on Nov. 24 ... A running back his first two seasons at Stanford, Wire has the distinction of being the only Cardinal player in modern times to lead the team in rushing and tackles ... He was a running back in 1998 and '99 and, after redshirting the '97 season, he led the team in rushing in '98 (298 yards) ... He was then was moved to linebacker for the 2000 campaign, where he promptly earned the starting role and led the team in total tackles ... "A lot of what we're doing defensively is based on what Coy can do," said defensive coordinator Kent Baer. "No question, he's one of the best defensive players in our conference."

Stanford's Bowl Notebook

Bowl History

Stanford will be playing in its 20th bowl game in school history when it faces Georgia Tech on December 27 in the Seattle Bowl.

The Cardinal is 9-9-1 in its previous 19 bowl games ... Stanford is 5-6-1 in the Rose Bowl, 2-0 in the Sun Bowl, 1-0 in the Bluebonnet and Blockbuster Bowls and 0-1 in the Gator, Aloha and Liberty Bowls.

Stanford vs. Georgia Tech

Stanford's opponent, Georgia Tech, finished the season 7-5 overall and 4-4 in the Atlantic Coast Conference ... They were expected to contend for the ACC championship in 2001.

Georgia Tech Stat Rankings

Category	Avg.	NCAA Rank
Rushing Offense	139.0	70
Passing Offense	278.92	17
Total Offense	417.92	34

Stanford and Georgia Tech have met once before, that coming in the 1991 Aloha Bowl in Hawaii ... The Yellow Jackets beat the No. 17 Cardinal 18-17 on Christmas Day, ending Stanford's seven-game winning streak ... Georgia Tech scored a touchdown by QB Shawn Jones with 14 seconds remaining in the game and Jimmy Lincoln scored on a two-point conversion to give the Yellow Jackets the win ... Stanford was up 17-10 with 1:41 to play when its punt to GT was returned 63 yards by Willie Clay, giving Georgia Tech the ball on the Cardinal 31-yard line.

Stanford's 1991 team, dubbed the "Now Boys" by Cardinal head coach Denny Green, was led by All-American OT Bob Whitfield, FB Tommy Vardell and RB Glyn Milburn ... Tyrone Willingham was in his third season as Stanford's running backs coach ... Following the game, Green took a job as the Minnesota Vikings head coach and the Yellow Jackets' Bobby Ross took a job as the San Diego Chargers head coach ... Willingham went with Green to coach the running backs in Minnesota.

Stanford is 2-4 all-time vs. the Atlantic Coast conference ... The Cardinal is 1-1 vs. North Carolina and Duke and 0-1 vs. Georgia Tech and Clemson ... Both the Georgia Tech and Clemson games came in bowls ('86 Gator vs. Clemson, '91 Aloha vs. Georgia Tech) ... Stanford's last game vs. an ACC opponent was September 19, 1998 against North Carolina (Stanford won 37-34)

Seattle Bowl Notes

Tyrone Willingham is the only coach in Stanford history to lead his team to four post-season bowl games ... The other coaches to lead Stanford to three bowl games are Pop Warner (1925, '27, '28 Rose Bowls), Tiny Thornhill (1934, '35, '36 Rose Bowls) and Bill Walsh ('77 Sun, '78 Bluebonnet, '92 Blockbuster).

Willingham is 1-2 in his three previous bowl game appearances as Stanford's head coach ... He lost to East Carolina in the 1995 Liberty Bowl, beat Michigan State in the 1996 Sun Bowl and lost to Wisconsin in the 2000 Rose Bowl.

The Seattle Bowl will give Stanford an opportunity to do something it hasn't done since 1975 – and that's to win a football game in the city of Seattle ... Of course all those games have come against the University of Washington, including a November 3 loss this season ... Stanford has lost 10 straight to the Huskies in Seattle ... The Cardinal's last win in Seattle was a 24-14 victory on October 18, 1975.

Stanford has four players from the state of Georgia ... They include Fr. CB Calvin Armstrong (Decatur, Columbia HS), Fr. RB J.R. Lemon (Fayetteville, Sandy Creek HS), Fr. FS Kevin Schimmelman (Marietta, Lassiter HS) and So. CB Leigh Torrence (Atlanta, Marist HS).

Stanford also has four players from the state of Washington, including Jamien and Justin McCullum (Mercer Island, Mercer Island HS), TE Brett Pierce (Vancouver, Columbia River HS) and QB Ryan Eklund (Federal Way, Decatur HS).

Stanford Team Notes

NFL Ties

Stanford has six players on its current roster with fathers who played in the NFL and three others with brothers who played in the NFL ... Those with NFL dads include CB Garry Cobb (father, Garry, played 11 seasons with the Lions, Eagles and Cowboys), CB Ryan Fernandez (father David, Kansas City Chiefs), WRs Jamien and Justin McCullum (father, Sam, played in the NFL for 10 seasons with the Seahawks and Vikings), TE Alex Smith (father, Edwin, played for Broncos for four years) and CB Stanley Wilson (father, Stanley, played six seasons for the Cincinnati Bengals) ... Three other players have brothers with NFL experience, including SS Colin Branch (brother Calvin), WR Teyo Johnson (brothers Ahmani and Riall) and OG Dustin Stimson (brother Nate).

In the Classroom

Stanford has 50 players on its current roster who are members of the National Honor Society ... Twelve players have been recognized as National Merit Scholars and 10 players have been honored as National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Scholar-Athletes.

Two-Sport Athletes

Stanford has eight two-sport athletes on the football team ... WR Teyo Johnson is a member of the Cardinal basketball team, TE Darin Naatjes is on the Stanford baseball team while six other athletes participate in track, including RB Brian Allen, WR Brandon Royster, WR Nick Sebes, DE Will Svitek, CB Leigh Torrence and CB Stanley Wilson.

Sibling Rivalry

The Cardinal has six players on its roster with siblings who are or were student-athletes at Stanford ... QB Chris Lewis' sister, Robyn, is a senior setter on Stanford's nationally-ranked women's volleyball team ... C Zack Quaccia's brother, Luke, played baseball at Stanford in 1996 and '97, WR Teyo Johnson's brother, Riall, played football at Stanford from 1997-2000 and freshman WR Gerren Crochet's brother, Damien, played football on The Farm from '92-95 ... The other two are, of course, the McCullums, freshman Justin and senior Jamien.

NFL Head Coaches

Sixteen current or former NFL head coaches have spent time on The Farm as a head or assistant coach for Stanford, including six who are presently head coaches in the National Football League ... The current NFL head coaches with Stanford experience include Denny Green with the Minnesota Vikings (assistant at Stanford in 1977, '78, '80 and head coach from '89-91), Brian Billick of the Baltimore Ravens (Stanford assistant from 89-91), Jim Fassel with the New York Giants (Stanford assistant from '79-83), Jim Mora with the Indianapolis Colts (Stanford assistant in 1967), George Siefert with the Carolina Panthers (Stanford assistant from '72-74 and '77-79) and Dick Vermeil with the Kansas City Chiefs (Stanford assistant from '65-68) ... The list of others who have coached at Stanford and been head NFL coaches includes Frankie Albert (San Francisco 49ers, 1956-58), Phil Bengsten (Green Bay Packers, 1968-70), Monte Clarke (49ers, 1976; Detroit Lions '78-84), Rod Dowhower (Baltimore Colts, 1985), Ray Handley (New York Giants, 1991-92), Norb Hecker (Atlanta Falcons, 1966-68), John Ralston (Denver Broncos, 1972-76), Bill Walsh (San Francisco 49ers, 1979-88), Mike White (Oakland Raiders, 1995-96) and Paul Wiggin (Kansas City Chiefs, 1975-77).

Musical Cards

Several Stanford players are very accomplished in the arts, particularly music and dance ... The list includes Eric Heitmann (pianist, composes his own music), Kwame Harris (played piano for 11 years, played violin in high school orchestra), David Bergeron (A Capella Choir, performed at Carnegie Hall), Kerry Carter (R&B dance group performed throughout Canada), Kirk Chambers (choir), Evan Combs (high school orchestra), O.J. Oshinowo (jazz band, wind symphony orchestra) and Jared Newberry (choir).

International Cardinal

Stanford's roster is dotted with players from around the nation and the world ... Three players are of Nigerian descent: Chijioke Asomugha, O.J. Atogwe and O.J. Oshinowo ... OT Kwame Harris was born in Jamaica, RB Brian Allen is of Jamaican decent and DE Will Svitek was born in the Czech Republic ... RB Kerry Carter was born in Trinidad and Tobago and is a Canadian citizen while DE Louis Hobson is also a Canadian citizen.

Tyrone Willingham

Head Football Coach

In seven seasons at the helm of the Cardinal football program, Tyrone Willingham has built a reputation as one of the most respected coaches in college football.

A former Cardinal assistant coach, Willingham had established himself as one of the top, young assistant coaches in the NFL during his three seasons with the Minnesota Vikings. So when Stanford Athletic Director Ted Leland went looking for a head coach to follow Bill Walsh after the 1994 season, it was a former Cardinal assistant whose character, integrity and leadership skills had impressed Leland years earlier who became Leland's top choice.

Willingham, Stanford's running backs coach from 1989-91 under Dennis Green, returned to The Farm on November 28, 1994 as the Bradford M. Freeman Director of Football at Stanford University.

In his seven years on The Farm, Willingham has led Stanford to four bowl games, including the 1999 Pacific-10 Conference championship and the school's first Rose Bowl appearance in 28 years. Willingham has twice been honored by his peers as the Pac-10 Coach of the Year (1995, 1999).

With Willingham came a leader committed to making Stanford football a post-season bowl contender every season. The goal of the program, Willingham said, is to "win."

"I want people to talk about the Stanford football program as one that produces winners – winners on the field, in the classroom and in their social and spiritual development. If we can win in those areas, then I believe that will give us our best chance to be successful."

In 2001, Willingham led Stanford to a 9-2 overall record and a 6-2 reading in the Pacific-10 Conference. It marked the second time in the last 50 years that the Cardinal won nine games during the regular season (not including bowl games). Stanford's national ranking rose as high as No. 10 on October 28 and marked the school's first top-10 ranking since the 1992 season. A Cardinal win in the Seattle Bowl would not only give Willingham's team a 10-2 record, but it would become only the fourth team in school history to win 10 games in a season.

Willingham hit paydirt in 1999 following a 7-1 conference record, a Pac-10 championship and a trip to the Rose Bowl. He was named the Pac-10 Coach of the Year for the second time in his career at Stanford after leading the Cardinal to an 8-4 overall record, the first Pac-10 championship on The Farm since the 1971 season and Stanford's first Rose Bowl appearance since January 1, 1972. He was a finalist for National Coach of the Year honors and was named the American Football Coaches Association District-5 Coach of the Year.

Willingham guided a record-setting 1999 Stanford team to the Rose Bowl and garnered Pac-10 Coach of the Year honors.

Willingham already has a list of accomplishments matched by few of his predecessors. He is the only coach in Stanford history to be named conference Coach of the Year on two occasions (1995, 1999). He led the Cardinal to consecutive bowl games in his first two seasons ('95 Liberty, '96 Sun) at Stanford, becoming only the third coach to accomplish this feat. The other two are Tiny Thornhill in 1933 and '34 and Walsh in '77 and '78.

Willingham also became the first coach since Walsh to have back-to-back winning seasons in his first two years at Stanford. He is the only coach in school history to guide Stanford to four bowl game appearances (Walsh, Thornhill and Pop Warner led Stanford to three bowl games) and his current tenure – seven years – is the longest on The Farm since John Ralston's nine-year run from 1963-71.

Willingham's career record stands at 44-35-1 overall and 32-24 in the Pacific-10 Conference. He is the third all-time winningest coach in school history behind Warner (71 wins) and Ralston (55 wins).

Willingham's first Cardinal team went 7-4-1 in '95 en route to earning a berth in the Liberty Bowl while his second team in 1996 finished 7-5 after beating Michigan State 38-0 in the Sun Bowl.

In 1996, Willingham found his team with a 2-5 overall record and a 1-3 reading in the conference. Most people had written the Cardinal off as a team destined to suffer a losing season. But, Stanford wound up winning its final four games of the regular season to finish 6-5 overall and 5-3 in the Pac-10, good for third place. A 38-0 win over Michigan State in the Sun Bowl, Stanford's first shutout since 1974, gave Willingham's team a 7-5 final record.

In his first season as the Cardinal head coach, Willingham turned a 3-7-1 team in '94 into a 7-4-1 bowl team in 1995. Prior to the '95 season, most of the so-called experts picked Stanford to finish last in the Pacific-10 Conference. But, after the Cardinal's fourth place finish in the Pac-10, the conference coaches voted Willingham their 1995 Pac-10 Coach of the Year. It was the first time a Cardinal head coach had been selected Coach of the Year since Walsh in 1977. Willingham was also selected the National Coach of the Year by the Black Coaches Association in 1995 and '96. The award honored Willingham for "Exemplifying the highest standards in coaching."

Willingham, who was a finalist for National Coach of the Year honors in '95, began his career by going 4-0-1 in his first five games, marking the best start on The Farm in 44 years (the 1951 team won its first five games).

Like his two predecessors – Walsh and Dennis Green – Willingham had previously served as assistant coach at Stanford before being named its head coach. He was Stanford's running backs coach under Green from 1989-91 before moving with Green to the Minnesota Vikings, where he again coached running backs from 1992-94.

Willingham (born December 30, 1953) was an assistant coach on the collegiate and professional levels for 17 years prior to his appointment as Stanford's head coach. During his career as an assistant, he coached on offense, defense and special teams. He has been a part of coaching staffs who have turned programs into winners in short order, and his character and leadership skills have become his trademarks.

A 1977 graduate of Michigan State University, Willingham coached under Green for six seasons, three at Stanford and three with the Vikings. In Minnesota, Willingham helped the Vikings return to prominence as one of the top teams in the NFL.

The Vikings finished 8-8 in 1991, the year before Willingham arrived with Green in Minnesota. In his three seasons in Minnesota, Willingham helped the Vikings win two NFC Central Division championships and advance to the playoffs all three seasons.

In 1992, the Vikings finished 11-5 and won the NFC Central Division championship. Willingham's top pupil that season, Terry Allen, set a club record by rushing for 1,201 yards. In 1993, Minnesota finished 9-7 and earned a wildcard berth. The Vikings won the division title and earned another playoff berth in 1994 with a 10-6 record.

While at Stanford (1989-91), Willingham was part of Green's staff that helped turn the program around. The Cardinal went 3-8 in '89, 5-6 in '90 and 8-4 in 1991. The '91 season culminated with a berth in the Aloha Bowl, Stanford's first post-season appearance in five seasons.

The '91 squad, known as the "Now Boys," began the season 1-3, but came back to win its final seven regular season games to finish 8-3 overall, 6-2 in the Pac-10. It was Stanford's best season in five years and first bowl appearance since the 1986 Gator Bowl.

Willingham coached two of the top running backs in Stanford football history during his brief tenure on The Farm: Glyn Milburn and Tommy Vardell. Vardell was a first round NFL pick following the '91 campaign. Milburn is the fifth leading all-time rusher in Stanford history with 2,178 yards and he is second in the Cardinal record book in all-purpose running with a three-year total of 5,857 yards. Vardell, meanwhile, is sixth all-time at Stanford in rushing with 1,789 yards and is first on The Farm in touchdowns with 37.

Vardell earned the nickname "Touchdown" Tommy after his record-setting performance in 1991. In spearheading the "Now Boys" attack, Vardell set a school record for rushing (1,084 yards) and touchdowns (20) while being named the Academic All-American of the Year. Milburn, who set a Stanford record for all-purpose running in 1990 with Willingham as his coach (2,222 yards), went on to earn First-Team All-America honors as an all-purpose player in 1992.

Willingham's career has taken him to several stops along the way. After graduating from Michigan State in 1977, he continued with the Spartan program as a graduate assistant in '77 under head coach Darryl Rodgers. In '78-79, Willingham was the defensive secondary coach at Central Michigan University.

From 1980-82, Willingham was the defensive secondary and special teams coach at Michigan State University under head coach Muddy Waters. He moved on to North Carolina State University for three seasons (1983-85), where he again coached special teams and the defensive secondary.

Prior to accepting the position as running backs coach at Stanford under Green, Willingham coached receivers and special teams at Rice University from 1986-88.

Since his arrival at Stanford in 1995, Willingham has taken an active role in both campus and community activities. He is currently a board member for OICW (Opportunities Industrialization Center West) and is a former National Advisory Board Member for the Haas Center for Public Service at Stanford. He is member of the American Football Coaches Association rules committee and a speaker for American Football Quarterly University, and other coaching clinics. Willingham has participated in numerous appearances for local charities and has been a guest speaker at Nike Coach of the Year clinics.

For his commitment to community service, Willingham was honored with the 2000 Eddie Robinson Coach of Distinction Award. The award is presented to a college football coach nationwide for career achievement and his outstanding service as a role model.

A walk-on in both football and baseball at Michigan State, Willingham went on to earn three letters in each sport. As a quarterback, he was named the team's Most Inspirational Player in 1976. In 1977, Willingham was awarded the Big-10 Medal of Honor as the Outstanding Scholar-Athlete in the conference. In baseball, he received the Sportsmanship Award in 1975 and was an All-Big-10 selection in '77.

A native of Jacksonville, North Carolina, Willingham earned his degree in physical education with a minor in health education from Michigan State. Tyrone and his wife, Kim, have three children: Cassidy (born 1/10/84), Kelsey (born 5/9/88) and Nathaniel (born 7/9/90).

Coach Willingham receives congratulations from Tiger Woods following a last-second victory over Texas.

Kent Baer

Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

The Baer File

Full Name: Kent L. Baer

Date of Birth: May 2, 1951

Hometown: Logan, Utah

High School: Sky View High School (Utah)

College: Utah State, 1973

Graduate Degree: Utah State, 1974

Children: Brian, Aaron James, Steven

Playing Experience: LB, Utah State, 1969-72

Kent Baer is in his seventh season at Stanford and third as the Cardinal's defensive coordinator. Baer, who also coaches the linebackers, was promoted to defensive coordinator by Tyrone Willingham on February 2, 1999. He came to Stanford in '95 after serving as a defensive coordinator for 12 seasons at Arizona State, California and Utah State. He was named to Willingham's staff at Stanford University on February 9, 1995.

While at Stanford, Baer has coached some of the finest defensive players in school history, including ILB Coy Wire and FS Tank Williams on this year's team and '00 graduates Riall Johnson and Willie Howard.

Williams has earned First-Team All-America honors this season while Wire, a First-Team All-Pac-10 selection, is recognized as one of the top linebackers in college football. Johnson, who plays for the Cincinnati Bengals, became the first player in Pac-10 history to lead the league in sacks in back-to-back seasons (1999-2000) while Howard, a defensive end, became only the fourth defensive lineman in school history to earn First-Team All-Pac-10 honors in consecutive seasons. Other defensive greats who have played under Baer are ILB Chris Draft, currently with the Atlanta Falcons and DE Kailee Wong, a member of the Minnesota Vikings.

Baer, who was the defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach at Arizona State for three seasons (1992-94) prior to coming to Stanford, is a 28-year veteran of the coaching ranks. He has coached at the University of California (1987-91), University of Idaho (1986), Utah State University (1977-85) and the Yokosuka Seahawks (U.S. Navy) from 1973-76. Baer is a 1973 graduate of Utah State.

Baer (born 5/2/51), worked under Bruce Snyder for 14 years; six at Utah State, five at Cal and three at ASU. His Sun Devil defense in 1992 allowed just 268.8 yards per game and was ranked seventh in the nation. All-Americans Shante Carver, Craig Newsome and Brett Wallerstedt were all mainstays on Baer's ASU defense.

Prior to moving on to Arizona State, Baer was Cal's defensive coordinator for five seasons. He was part of Snyder's staff that led the Bears to a 17-6-1 record in 1990 and '91 with victories in the Copper Bowl (1990) and Citrus Bowl (1991). Baer helped lead Cal to a 10-2 record and a No. 8 national ranking in '91.

In his one season at Idaho, Baer was the defensive coordinator for a Vandals team that went 8-4 and earned a berth in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. Another member of that staff, Bill Diedrick, rejoined Baer on the Cardinal coaching staff as its offensive coordinator in 1998.

At Utah State, Baer coached outside linebackers for six seasons (1977-82) before becoming the defensive coordinator and secondary coach for three years (1983-85). In two of his three years as defensive coordinator, the Aggies led the conference in total defense.

Baer also brings an international coaching flavor to Stanford, having served as the head coach of the Yokosuka Seahawks (U.S. Navy) team in Japan for four years (1973-76) before returning to his alma mater. While coaching in Japan, he was the athletic and recreation director for the entire U.S. Navy there, including the 7th Fleet, with over 100 employees working under him.

For the past 11 years, Baer has coached in and coordinated the Heisei Bowl in Nishinomiya, Japan. The game features two of the best Japanese college teams from the Osaka area and 12 college players from the U.S. Each team receives six players and two coaches from a U.S. college team.

Baer was a standout linebacker at Utah State (1969-72), where he lettered for four straight seasons. He broke the school record for tackles with 116 in 1972, a mark that stood for 10 seasons. He graduated in 1973 with a degree in physical education and recreation. Baer enjoyed a fine prep career at Sky View High School in Smithfield, Utah.

A native of Logan, Utah, Baer has three sons: Brian, currently a graduate assistant coach at Stanford, Aaron James (A.J.) and Steven.

Mike Denbrock

Offensive Line (tackles & tight ends)

Mike Denbrock is in his first season on The Farm as an offensive line coach for tackles and tight ends. Denbrock, who coached in the Arena Football League the past two seasons, was named to his current position by head coach Tyrone Willingham on January 22, 2001.

This season, Denbrock, along with John McDonell, coached one of the finest offensive lines in college football. One of Denbrock's pupils, sophomore Kwame Harris, earned Second-Team All-Pac-10 honors in 2001 while the Cardinal tight ends have played a major role in the Cardinal offense.

Denbrock, 37, was the assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and offensive and defensive line coach for the Buffalo Destroyers of the AFL in 1999 and 2000. In their second year in the league, Denbrock helped the Destroyers land a playoff berth in 2000. His '99 defense finished third in the league in both scoring and total defense.

Prior his two years in the Arena League, Denbrock had coached at his alma mater, Grand Valley State (1992-98), Illinois State (1990-91) and Michigan State (1988-89). He also held the position of Director of Pro-Player Personnel.

During his coaching career, Denbrock has coached nine First-Team All-Americans and several others who have gone on to professional football, including four NFL players.

At NCAA Division II Grand Valley State, Denbrock was both the offensive coordinator and defensive coordinator during his seven years in Allendale, Michigan ('92-98). He was the offensive coordinator, quarterbacks and wide receivers coach from 1992-95, then switched to the defensive side of the ball where he was the coordinator and linebackers coach from '96-98.

Denbrock's defense at Grand Valley ranked among the nation's top 30 in total defense, scoring defense and rush defense from 1996-98. His '96 defense led the MIFC and was 11th nationally in scoring defense while also leading the conference in total defense. As the offensive coordinator, Denbrock's squad was first in the MIFC in both total and scoring offense from 1992-94. In '95, his offense ranked eighth in the nation in scoring and 12th in total offense. Eight of his players earned First-Team All-America honors during his seven-years at Grand Valley State.

Following four seasons as a graduate assistant, Denbrock's first coaching assignment came in 1990 and '91 as the tackles and tight ends coach at Illinois State, an NCAA Division IAA team.

Denbrock began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Grand Valley State in 1986 and '87 before moving on to Michigan State in '88 and '89, also as a graduate assistant.

A 1986 graduate of Grand Valley State, Denbrock holds a bachelor's degree in communication. He recently earned a master's degree in Athletic Administration from Michigan State. As a member of GVSU football team from 1982-85, Denbrock won the Phillip Shultz Award for attitude and commitment to the football program as a senior.

Bill Diedrick

Offensive Coordinator/ Quarterbacks

The Diedrick File

Full Name: William M. Diedrick, Jr.

Date of Birth: October 21, 1946

Hometown: Spokane, Washington

High School: North Central
(Washington)

College: Eastern Washington, 1970

Graduate Degree: Hawaii, 1971

Children: Mathew, Justin, Joey

Playing Experience: QB,
Eastern Washington, 1965-69

Bill Diedrick is now in his fourth season as Stanford's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. A veteran coach of 30 years, Diedrick came to Stanford after a four-year stint at the University of Washington. He was named Stanford's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach on February 27, 1998.

During his four years on The Farm, Diedrick has guided Stanford to unparalleled offensive success. His Cardinal offenses have averaged over 30 points and 420 yards in total offense, has scored over 50 points in five games and over 40 in nine games. His 2001 offense ranked among the best in school history in scoring, touchdowns scored, total offense and rushing offense.

Under Diedrick, Stanford's offense re-wrote the record books in '99 as it set school records for points in a season (409; old record, 366, 1949) and total offense in a season (5,138; old record, 4,919, 1969). The Cardinal put 30 or more points on the scoreboard nine times in 1999, and 40 or more on five occasions. Stanford also produced the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year in wide receiver Troy Walters, as well as First Team All-Pac-10 quarterback Todd Husak. The Cardinal finished the regular season ranked among the top 10 in the nation in scoring offense (37.2 pg.; 6. NCAA, 1. Pac-10), total offense (467.09 pg.; 5. NCAA, 2. Pac-10) and passing offense (313.5 pg.; 10. NCAA, 1. Pac-10).

In his first season at Stanford in 1998, Diedrick's offense became the second most prolific passing attack in school history. Under his tutelage, the Cardinal threw for 3,516 yards while Husak became only the third QB in school history to throw for over 3,000 yards in a season when he totaled 3,092.

Diedrick, born 10/21/46, had been a member of the Washington Huskies staff from 1994-97 prior to arriving on The Farm. He was the Huskies offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in '94 and '95 and quarterbacks coach in '96 and '97.

During his tenure in Seattle, Diedrick was a part of three bowl teams and some of the finest quarterbacks and offenses in the Pac-10. In 1995, with Diedrick as the offensive coordinator, the Huskies offense ranked among the school's all-time top five in total offense, total yards per game and yards per play, the latter setting a new school record. All this came against the seventh toughest schedule in the nation. His team also became the first UW offense to score at least 20 points in every regular season game. His quarterback that season, Damon Huard, became Washington's all-time leader in passing and total yards.

Diedrick developed one of the top young quarterbacks in college football in Brock Huard in 1996 and '97. Huard set records in '96 as the top freshman QB in Washington history and in 1997, he ranked seventh in the nation in passing efficiency.

Prior to his appointment at Washington, Diedrick coached in the Canadian Football League with the Edmonton Eskimos (1991-92), where he was the offensive coordinator. He also coached quarterbacks, receivers and running backs during his two-year stint. Diedrick's '91 team won the Western Division championship while scoring 671 points and accumulating over 8,000 yards in total offense.

Diedrick's first tour of duty in the Pac-10 was as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Washington State from 1989-90. There, he coached Drew Bledsoe, the eventual No. 1 NFL Draft pick. Diedrick's 1989 WSO offense led the Pac-10 and was 10th nationally in total offense while Bledsoe was the nation's top-rated quarterback in passing efficiency.

Diedrick coached the quarterbacks and receivers while serving as offensive coordinator at Idaho from 1986-88. During that time, he coached future NFL starter John Friesz, who was twice named the Big Sky Player of the Year and All-American. Under Diedrick, the Vandal's offense was consistently one of the best in NCAA Division 1-AA, including being ranked #2 nationally in 1987. In '88, Idaho won its second straight Big Sky championship and was ranked #1 in the nation. In 1986, Diedrick coached with current Cardinal Defensive Coordinator Kent Baer, who was the Vandals defensive coordinator.

From 1984-85, Diedrick was the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Montana State. His offenses broke 36 school records, eight league records and six NCAA 1-AA playoff records while his quarterback earned Big Sky Player of the Year honors. In 1984, Montana State won the NCAA Division 1-AA national championship.

Diedrick was the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Whitworth College in 1982-83, head coach at Rogers High School in Spokane, Wash., from 1976-81, assistant coach at Ferris High in Spokane from 1971-75 and a graduate assistant at the University of Hawaii in 1970.

Diedrick graduated from Eastern Washington in 1970 with bachelor's degrees in physical therapy and physical education. He earned a master's degree in education from Hawaii in 1971.

He was a four-year letterman at Eastern Washington on both the baseball and football teams and earned NAIA All-America honors in football in 1967 while leading Eastern to the national finals. He was also an honorable mention All-America in baseball.

Diedrick attended North Central High School in Spokane, where he was a standout quarterback.

He is the father of three sons: Mathew, Justin and Joey.

John McDonell

Offensive Line (centers and guards)

A veteran of the Pac-10 Conference, John McDonell was named Stanford's offensive line coach for centers and guards on January 19, 2001. He is in his first season on The Farm after spending the last 12 years coaching at Washington State University under Mike Price.

In his first season at Stanford, McDonell, along with Mike Denbrock, produced one of the finest offensive lines in the nation and in school history. All three of his starters at center and guard earned All-Pac-10 honors with OG Eric Heitmann earning First-Team All-America honors. OG Greg Schindler and C Zack Quaccia were named Second-Team All-Pac-10 in 2001.

McDonell was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach in Pullman the last seven years (1994-00). He coached the offensive line and tight end for the Cougars from '89-93. McDonell spent five seasons under Price at Weber State (1984-88) as their offensive line coach. He has coached under Price for the past 17 seasons. McDonell began his coaching career at Carroll College in 1981 before becoming the head coach at Scobey High School in Montana in 1982 and '83.

While at WSU, McDonell (born June 2, 1959) was a member of three bowl teams, one Pac-10 championship team and some of the greatest offenses in school history. In 1997, with McDonell as the offensive coordinator, WSU captured the Pac-10 title and Rose Bowl berth with a record breaking offense. The Cougars finished as the nation's ninth ranked team with a 10-2 record. McDonell's offense led the Pac-10 and was second nationally after averaging 502 yards in total offense per game. His offense also set conference records for most points scored and most yards gained in a season.

In 1994, WSU finished the season with an 8-4 record, a win in the Alamo Bowl and a No. 24 final ranking. McDonell was part of the Washington State team that went to the Copper Bowl in 1992 and defeated Utah, 31-28. The Cougars led the Pac-10 in total offense, posted a 9-3 record and a No. 15 final ranking. His running backs coach from 1994-1997 was current Cardinal coach Buzz Preston.

At Weber State, McDonell coached one of the top offenses in NCAA Division IAA. In 1987, Weber State finished 10th in the final regular season poll, won the Big Sky championship and reached the IAA semi-finals. WSC led the nation in total offense in 1985 and ranked third in 1986.

McDonell chalked up a 10-6 record as the head coach at Scobey High School in Montana in 1982 and '83. As a player, he was a four-time letter-winner as an offensive tackle for Carroll College from 1977-80. McDonell was named First-Team NAIA All-America following his senior season in 1980. He was also a three-time All-Frontier Conference tackle. Following his graduation, he became an offense line coach at Carroll College for the 1981 season.

McDonell earned a bachelor's degree from Carroll College in 1981. He was a three-sport letter-winner at Gonzaga Prep High School in his hometown of Spokane, Washington. McDonell and his wife, Mindy, have two children: Michael and Megan.

Trent Miles

Wide Receivers

The Miles File

Full Name: Trent Miles
Date of Birth: July 29, 1963
Hometown: Terre Haute, IN High School: South Vigo
College: Indiana State, 1987
Marital Status: Single Playing Experience: WR,
 Indiana State, 1982-86

Trent Miles is in his first season coaching wide receivers at Stanford after spending the 2000 campaign with the Green Bay Packers. Miles, 37, brings with him 13 years of coaching experience on the collegiate level. He was named to the Cardinal staff by head coach Tyrone Willingham on February 26, 2001.

In his first season on The Farm, Miles coached a receiving corps that included Teyo Johnson, the Pac-10 Co-Freshman of the Year and Luke Powell, Stanford's top big-play threat and a First-Team All-America kick returner.

A 1987 graduate of Indiana State University, Miles' coaching career has landed him stops at Indiana State, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Northern Illinois, Hawaii and Fresno State. He was an offensive assistant working with wide receivers and the quality control coach with the Green Bay Packers last season.

Throughout his career, Miles has coached on both sides of the ball, including wide receivers, defensive backs, linebackers and special teams. Last season in Green Bay, he worked with NFL All-Pro receiver Antonio Freeman.

Prior to last year in the NFL, Miles had spent the previous 13 years on the collegiate level. He was the wide receivers coach at Fresno State for three years (1997-99), producing some of the great receivers in Bulldog's history. Two of his receivers in 1999, sophomores Rodney Wright and Charles Smith, combined to produce over 1,600 yards and 14 touchdowns on 120 receptions and earned Wright All-Western Athletic Conference honors in the process. Their production helped the Bulldogs to a share of the WAC championship and a berth in the EA Sports Las Vegas Bowl.

Miles began his coaching career at Indiana State, his alma mater, in 1987, tutoring the wide receivers and defensive backs as a graduate assistant. A grad assistant position followed at the University of New Mexico (1988-89), where he worked with the receivers and linebackers. Miles then moved on to the University of Oklahoma in 1990 to coach the wide receivers as a graduate assistant.

The Terre Haute, Ind., native then headed west to the University of Hawaii for two seasons (1995-96), where he spent a season each with the wide receivers and defensive backs. Miles earlier had been a wide receiver at Indiana State (1982-86), where his 1983 and '84 squads each won nine games and advanced to the NCAA Division 1AA playoffs. The 1984 Sycamores were ranked No. 1 in the nation for most of the season. He earned a B.S. degree in criminal justice from ISU in 1987.

Born July 29, 1963, in Terre Haute, Ind., Miles was an all-state selection as a wide receiver at the city's South Vigo High School, where he also played baseball.

Buzz Preston

Running Backs

Buzz Preston is in his third season as running backs coach at Stanford University. He was named to Tyrone Willingham's staff on February 23, 1999.

Preston coached a group of running backs that put together one of the finest ground attacks in Stanford history this past season. The 2001 Cardinal became only the third team in school history to rush for over 2,000 yards. Under his tutelage, Brian Allen put together one of the finest seasons for a running back in school history. Allen also finished his career No. 6 on Stanford all-time rushing list. Another pupil of Preston's, Kerry Carter, is among the school's all-time leaders in career rushing touchdowns with 21 and is knocking on the door of the school's all-time top-10.

In its first season under Preston's direction, the Cardinal running game more than doubled its yardage output from the previous year. After rushing for 831 yards on 346 carries (2.4-yard average) in 1998, the Cardinal ground game amassed 1690 yards on 480 carries (4.1-yard avg.) in '99.

A native of Los Angeles, Preston, born 11/9/56, was the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator/QB coach at UNLV in 1998. Prior to that, he was the running backs and special teams coach at Washington State University from 1994-97. Preston coached at his alma mater, Hawaii, from 1987-93. He coached offensive special teams, receivers, defensive backs and was the strength conditioning coordinator for the Rainbows.

Preston, a 1982 graduate of the University of Hawaii, coached receivers and the defensive backfield at Southern Illinois University from 1984-86. He was a graduate assistant at Hawaii in 1980 and '81, a part-time coach at UH in '82 and a graduate assistant at Washington in 1983.

While at UNLV, Preston helped develop the top two receivers in Las Vegas history while improving the team's rushing offense by 45 yards per game.

During his four-year stint at Washington State (1994-97), Preston was part of a coaching staff that guided the Cougars to the Pacific-10 Conference championship in 1997 and its first Rose Bowl appearance in 67 years. The Cougar offense broke the Pac-10 record for most total yards in a single season. One of Preston's pupils, Mike Black, gained over 1,100 yards rushing and was named to the All-Pac-10 team. The Cougars finished 10-2 overall and ranked ninth in the nation.

In his first season in Pullman in 1994, the Cougars went 8-4, defeated Baylor in the Alamo Bowl and finished with a #19 national ranking.

Preston's seven-year stay at Hawaii included leading the Rainbows to the first two bowl games in school history and the only Western Athletic Conference title ever for UH. While coaching special teams, receivers and defensive backs, Preston's accomplishments included coaching two All-American kickoff return specialists and three of the top six receivers in Hawaii history. In 1989, Hawaii participated in its first post-season bowl game, losing to Michigan State in the Aloha Bowl. The Rainbows won the WAC championship in 1992 and went on to defeat Illinois in the Holiday Bowl.

Preston's first full-time coaching assignment came at Southern Illinois University from 1984-86 as the secondary coach. During his three seasons in Carbondale, SIU's defense improved dramatically during Preston's tenure — from eighth to second in the conference — while nine of Preston's pupils received all-conference recognition.

Preston received a bachelor's degree in speech from Hawaii in 1982. The following year, he served as a graduate assistant at the University of Washington. During his career, Preston has been a guest coach for the Toronto Argonauts, Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Miami Dolphins.

A 1975 graduate of Banning High School in Los Angeles, Preston was a two-year letterwinner at Hawaii in 1978 and '79. He and his wife, Audrey, have three children: Amber, Evan and Quinn.

Denny Schuler

Defensive Secondary

The Schuler File

Full Name: Denny Schuler
Date of Birth: January 25, 1946
Hometown: Snohomish, WA
High School: Snohomish
College: Oregon, 1969
Wife: Cindy
Children: Heather, Missy
Playing Experience: WR, Oregon,
 1964-68

A veteran of the Pacific-10 Conference, Denny Schuler was named to Tyrone Willingham's staff on February 9, 1999 as the team's defensive secondary coach. Schuler brought with him more than 25 years of college coaching experience, including 23 years as an offensive or defensive coordinator. He is now in his third season on The Farm.

A 1969 graduate of the University of Oregon, Stanford marks Schuler's fifth Pac-10 school at which he has coached. He has previously coached at Washington, California, Oregon and Oregon State.

Schuler was the defensive coordinator and defensive secondary coach at Northern Iowa in 1998 before coming to Stanford. His resume includes stops at Oregon State (1996) as the offensive coordinator / QB coach, California in 1993-95 as the offensive coordinator/QB coach and 1983-84 as the defensive coordinator/outside linebackers coach, Oregon from 1986-92 as the defensive coordinator/secondary coach, Utah State from 1976-82 ('76-77 as offensive coordinator, '78-82 as defensive coordinator), Washington in 1975 as an assistant secondary coach, Weber State in '73-74 as offensive coordinator and Idaho State in '71-72 as wide receivers coach.

All totaled, Schuler has been a defensive coordinator for 15 years and an offensive coordinator for eight seasons. He has coached at four other Pac-10 schools for a total of 14 years, 13 as a coordinator.

In his three seasons at Stanford, Schuler has coached some of the finest defensive backs in school history, including FS Tank Williams, who was named a First-Team All-America by the America Football Coaches Association. Williams became the first defensive back in school history to earn First-Team All-America honors. Along with Williams, Stanford's two starting cornerbacks in 2001 – Ruben Carter and Ryan Fernandez – both earned All-Conference recognition.

In 1998, Schuler's defense at Northern Iowa improved from 102nd to 17th in the nation in scoring defense among NCAA Division I-AA schools.

While in Berkeley as offensive coordinator (1993-95), Schuler's quarterback, Dave Barr broke the Pac-10 record for passing efficiency. His '93 Cal team led the Pac-10 in total offense and was a major reason for the Bear's 37-3 win over Iowa in the Alamo Bowl.

As the defensive coordinator at Oregon from 1986-92, Schuler put together some of the Duck's best defenses in school history. In all but one season from '87-92, Schuler's defenses ranked from second to fourth in the Pac-10. He helped Oregon advance to three bowl games during a four-year stretch, the first time that had ever been accomplished at Oregon. Schuler coached 10 defensive backs who were selected in the NFL from '86-92 and only Notre Dame and Miami had more defensive backs drafted during this time. In a vote of Pac-10 head coaches and coordinators, Schuler was named the top defensive assistant in 1990 and the runner-up in '91.

While at Utah State from 1976-82, Schuler coached with current Cardinal defensive coordinator Kent Baer. Baer was the outside linebackers coach from '77-82 while Schuler spent two seasons as offensive coordinator (1976-77) and five years as defensive coordinator ('78-82). Baer succeeded Schuler as the defensive coordinator at Utah State when Schuler departed in 1983.

Schuler began his coaching career in 1971 as the receiver coach at Idaho State University. After two seasons ('71-72), he moved to Weber State College where he was the offensive coordinator, quarterbacks and wide receivers coach in 1973 and '74. He spent one season, 1975, as an assistant defensive secondary coach at Washington under Don James.

Schuler was a two-year letterwinner and two-year starter at Oregon as a wide receiver in 1967 and '68. He received a bachelor's degree in history from Oregon in 1969. He and his wife, Cindy, have two daughters: Heather and Missy.

Dave Tipton

Defensive Interior Line/Recruiting Coordinator

The veteran of the Cardinal coaching staff, Dave Tipton, is now in his 13th season on The Farm. Tipton, who was hired as part of Denny Green's staff on July 11, 1989, coached on Green's staff for three seasons (1989-91) and Bill Walsh's staff for three years (1992-94). He is in his seventh season as a member of Tyrone Willingham's staff.

Under Willingham, Tipton coaches the defensive interior line as well as taking on the responsibility as the program's recruiting coordinator. Under Green, Tipton coached the outside linebackers, while under Walsh, he moved over to coach the defensive line.

One of Tipton's pupils, DT Willie Howard was named First Team All-Pacific-10 Conference in both '99 and '00 and became only the fourth Cardinal defensive lineman to earn First-Team all-league honors in consecutive seasons. In 1999, Howard was also named winner of the Morris Trophy as the best defensive lineman in the Pac-10.

Tipton, born 4/23/49, was the defensive line coach at Oregon State in 1988. Prior to that stint, he was the defensive line coach and special teams coordinator at Cal State-

Fullerton for four seasons (1984-87). While at Fullerton, he also served as the strength and conditioning coordinator.

From 1981 to '83, Tipton was the defensive coordinator at Sweetwater High School in National City, California. The '83 Sweetwater team recorded nine shutouts and won the CIF Championship. The '81 and '82 Sweetwater teams reached the CIF semifinals in the playoffs.

From 1978 to 1980, Tipton was the defensive coordinator at Bonita Vista High School in Chula Vista, California. His '80 squad was also a CIF semifinalist.

In 1977, Tipton was defensive line coach at United States International University in San Diego, California.

Tipton graduated from Stanford in May 1971 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science. He later received a Master of Arts degree in Education with an emphasis in Physical Education from Azusa Pacific University in August 1981.

While at Stanford, Tipton was named to the Coaches All-America team as a senior defensive tackle in 1970. He was also named All-West Coast and All-Pac-8. On January 1, 1971, while Jim Plunkett and mates were controlling the offense, Tipton and the remaining Thunderchickens were controlling the defense as Stanford defeated Big-10 Champion Ohio State, 27-17, to win the Rose Bowl.

Tipton, a native of Hollister, California, then began a six-year pro career when he was drafted in the fourth round by the New York Giants. He played three years with the Giants (1971-73), two years with the San Diego Chargers (1974-75), and one year with the Seattle Seahawks (1976).

Dave and his wife, Mia, have four children – Matthew (born 11/25/77), Megan (born 5/9/81), Will (born 8/14/84) and Amanda (born 7/16/87). Mia, Megan and Matt have sung the national anthem at Stanford football and women's basketball games. Matt, who graduated from Stanford in June, was a manager for the football team.

Phil Zacharias

Defensive Ends/ Special Teams

The Zacharias File

Full Name: Philip Keith Zacharias

Date of Birth: February 12, 1959

Hometown: Sewickley, PA

High School: Quaker Valley

College: Salem College, 1981

Graduate Degree:
Georgetown College, 1982

Wife: Linda

Children: Jameson

Playing Experience: RB/ILB,
Salem College, 1977-80

Phil Zacharias was named to Willingham's staff on March 6, 1995. He is in his seventh season as Stanford's defensive ends and special teams coach.

Zacharias came to Stanford after a three-year stint as outside linebackers coach at Rutgers (1991-93) and a two-year stay at Eastern Michigan (1989-90), also as the outside linebackers coach.

In 2001, one of Zacharias' pupils, defensive end Marcus Hoover, earned Second-Team All-Pac-10 honors. Stanford's special teams were once again one of the most dangerous in the nation. The Cardinal's punt return team ranked second in the nation and first in the conference. KOR Brian Allen (First-Team All-Pac-10) and PR Luke Powell (First-Team All-America) were both among the best in the nation.

In 1999 Zacharias led a special teams unit that included a First-Team All-Pac-10 place-kicker and a kickoff return specialist who ranked 10th in the country. PK Mike Biselli made 14-of-17 field goals, 49-of-52 PATs and scored 91 points, fifth best single season in school history, while KOR Ryan Wells was among the nation's best with a 27.47 kickoff return average.

In 1995, Zacharias helped the Cardinal put together an impressive group of special teams, including the kickoff return team which ranked #1 in the Pac-10 and #2 in the nation, and the punt return team, which set a school record by blocking four punts during the season. In 1996 and '97, one of his pupils, Kailee Wong, was named First-Team All-Pac-10 each year after finishing among the league leaders in the Pac-10 in sacks and tackles-for-loss. He led the league in both categories in 1997, was named First-Team All-American and was a finalist for the Lombardi Award. Wong went on to be selected in the third round of the NFL Draft and currently plays for the Minnesota Vikings.

Zacharias (born 2/12/59) began his coaching career in 1981 after completing an impressive college football career at Salem College in West Virginia. Zacharias earned his bachelor's degree in physical education and health from Salem College in '81. He was a four-year letterman in football, one as a running back and three as an inside linebacker. Zacharias received his master's degree in education from Georgetown College in Kentucky.

Following his playing days, Zacharias began his coaching career at Georgetown College as the defensive secondary coach in 1981.

From 1982-84, he was again the defensive secondary coach at St. Paul College in Virginia. While at St. Paul, he served as the head baseball coach in 1983. Zacharias was a part-time coach at the University of North Carolina in 1985 before moving on to Morehead State University in Kentucky, where he remained for three seasons (1986-88). There, he coached outside linebackers and was the strength coach in '86, the outside linebackers and special teams coach in '87, and in 1988 he was promoted to defensive coordinator.

In 1989-90, Zacharias coached outside linebackers at Eastern Michigan University. He then moved on to Rutgers, where he also coached outside linebackers, from 1991-93. During the summer of '94 he served an internship with the Los Angeles Rams before becoming the defensive coordinator for Asbury Park High School in New Jersey.

At Rutgers, Zacharias was part of the Scarlett Knights program that made its debut as a member of the Big East Conference. In their first season in the Big East, Rutgers finished 6-5 overall in 1991. The following season, the Knights improved to 7-4 overall and 4-2 in the Big East, but fell to 4-7 in '93. Zacharias was on the same staff as current Cardinal receivers coach Mose Rison.

Prior to playing football at Salem College, Zacharias played football, baseball and ran track at Quaker Valley High School in Leetsdale, Pennsylvania.

Zacharias and his wife, Linda, have one son: Jameson (born 4/10/91).

Mark Wateska

Head Strength & Conditioning Coach

Mark Wateska is in his sixth season at Stanford University as head strength and conditioning coach. He was named to the Cardinal staff on January 9, 1995 and in 2001 he was named Assistant Athletic Director for strength and conditioning.

Wateska, who has over 17 years experience as a player or coach at the NCAA Division I level, worked in the strength and conditioning programs at Boston College and Maine before coming to Stanford. In his first year on The Farm, Wateska was named the 1995-96 Pac-10 Strength and Conditioning Professional of the Year by the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

At Stanford, Wateska is directly responsible for the Cardinal football program while overseeing the development and implementation of the strength and conditioning programs for all of Stanford's 33 varsity sports. He is also responsible for managing the strength and conditioning programs for all recreation and weight room facilities on campus.

A 1989 graduate of Penn State University, Wateska earned a bachelor's degree in Exercise and Sport Science while playing for Joe Paterno on the Nittany Lions football team from 1985-88. Wateska participated in three bowl games for Penn State, including two for the national championship (1985 Orange Bowl, 1986 Fiesta Bowl). His 1986 team beat Miami to win the national title.

He went on to earn his master's degree in Exercise and Sport Science from Penn State in 1991 while serving as a graduate assistant coach in 1989 and '90. From there, Wateska moved on to the Philadelphia Eagles where he was involved in player personnel along with various aspects of the strength and conditioning program.

Wateska spent four years at Boston College (1991-94) in their strength and conditioning program, the first three as an assistant coach and the final year as the head coach. He was the head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Maine in 1994 before coming to Stanford in 1995.

"Overload and progression are the foundation of the Stanford Strength and Conditioning Program," says Wateska. "The goals are to improve every time you strength train, condition or practice. The purpose of the program are three-fold: 1) to reduce the chance for injury, 2) to increase performance potential and, 3) to develop each player to his maximum genetic potential," says Wateska.

Wateska (born October 2, 1965) is a native of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He and his wife, Kim, have one daughter, Julia (born 5/5/00).

Mike Bradley

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

Mike Bradley is in his fourth year at Stanford as Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach. Bradley, who came to Stanford in 1998 from the University of Miami, works directly with Mark Wateska and the Cardinal Football Program.

Bradley earned his bachelor's degree in chemistry in 1989 from San Diego State and his master's in chemistry at U.C. Santa Barbara in 1990. He coached football at San Diego High School in 1988 and at UCSB in 1989 and '90 before moving on to his first position as a strength and conditioning coach at SMU in 1991, where he stayed for two years.

Following his two seasons at SMU as assistant strength and conditioning coach, Bradley held similar positions at South Carolina in 1993-94, the U.S. Military Academy at West Point in 1994-95 and at Miami from '95-98 before coming to Stanford.

Ryan Capretta

Weight Room Assistant

Ryan Capretta is in his first season as a weight room assistant. Capretta, who earned a bachelor's degree in Exercise Physiology from Indiana State in 1999, played college football at Santa Barbara City College and Indiana State. He coached wide receivers at Indiana State in '99 and last year he worked in the strength and conditioning program with the Baltimore Ravens.

Brian Baer

Graduate Assistant Coach – Defense

Brian Baer is in his second season as a graduate assistant coach at Stanford University. Baer, the son of Cardinal defensive coordinator Kent Baer, is enrolled in the Civil and Environmental Engineering Department and working on a master's degree in Design and Construction Integration.

His duties include working with the Cardinal defense and assisting secondary coach Denny Schuler with the defensive backs.

A native of Logan, Utah, Baer graduated from Utah State in May 2000 with a degree in Civil Engineering and a minor in Japanese. He spent the summer of 1998 working in Japan for an engineering firm translating for English-speaking customers.

A graduate of Logan High School, Baer was a three-year starter in both football and baseball. He was named Academic All-State in both sports while receiving numerous other local and regional honors.

Brian and his wife, Kristen, have been married for two years.

Mike Burke

Graduate Assistant Coach – Offense

Mike Burke is in his first year as a graduate assistant coach at Stanford University. Burke, who was a reserve inside linebacker for the Cardinal from 1997-99, is currently working on a Master's Degree in Sociology with an emphasis on Organizational Studies. He received his bachelor's degree from Stanford in Political Science in June, 2001.

His duties include working with the Cardinal offense and assisting offensive coordinator Bill Diedrick.

Burke was a heavily recruited prep All-America from Mullen High School in Colorado. After redshirting the '97 season as a true freshman, Burke played a reserve role in '98 and '99 before injuries forced him to retire from football. His final game at Stanford was the 2000 Rose Bowl vs. Wisconsin.

Burke earned national honors while at Mullen. He received All-America honors by PrepStar and BlueChip, among others, as well as earning several academic honors. He was a member of the National Honor Society and a finalist for the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award.

Marty Brunke

Asst. to the Offensive & Defensive Coordinators

Marty Brunke is in his first year as an Assistant to the Offensive & Defensive Coordinators and third overall at Stanford. He worked in the football operations department for the past two seasons.

In his new role, Brunke assists offensive coordinator Bill Diedrick and defensive coordinator Kent Baer in assembling scouting reports, organizing game day reports and assisting in day-to-day practice preparation.

Brunke, who earned a B.S. degree in International Management from Menlo College, worked in the investment industry for nine years before coming to Stanford. He earned nine varsity letters and received numerous awards in football, basketball and track in his high school career. He played two years of college football at Western New England College.

Brunke and his wife, Erika, have two sons: Duke (born 8/5/96) and Brooks (born 2/4/99).

Mike Gleeson

Video Director

Mike Gleeson is in his ninth year as the Video Director for the Department of Athletics. A native of Napa Valley, Gleeson came to Stanford after 10 years in professional football, including two with the New Orleans Saints, four with the Miami Dolphins, two with the Atlanta Falcons and two in the World Football League.

In his current position, Gleeson oversees all of the audio, video, and computer needs of the Football Department. His responsibilities include video taping of all practices and games and editing for the strategic preparation and planning by the football coaching staff.

In addition, Gleeson also edits weekly highlight videos for the football program as well as season recruiting videos for football, men's basketball and women's basketball.

Gleeson, who graduated from California State University at Sacramento in 1989, with a bachelor's degree in business management, has a nine-year-old daughter, Clare.

His play during Randy Fasani's absence is one of the keys to Stanford's success in 2001 ... With Fasani out for four-and-a-half games with a knee injury, Lewis stepped in and guided the Cardinal to a come-from-behind win at No. 5 Oregon and a 3-1 record as the starting quarterback ... He completed 90-of-163 for 1,277 yards and 12 touchdowns for the season ... He played the entire second half against Oregon on October 20 and started the next four vs. UCLA, Washington, Arizona and California ... In those games, he completed 84-of-150 for 1,229 yards and 12 touchdowns ... Against Oregon, Lewis engineered a 21-point fourth quarter that saw the Cardinal erase a 42-28 deficit to win 49-42 ... He completed 12-of-26 for 189 yards and two TDs in that game ... The next week against No. 4 ranked UCLA, Lewis was an efficient 20-of-29 for 250 yards and three touchdowns ... In Stanford's 35-28 Big Game win over Cal, he threw for a career-high 390 yards and four TDs ... Did not play in the final two games of the season vs. Notre Dame and San Jose State after Fasani returned from his injury ... Lewis was named honorable mention Academic All-Pac-10 ... Career: Although a backup for the past two years, he has received significant playing time due to injuries to Randy Fasani ... Chris has played in 16 games and started seven in 2000 and '01, throwing for 2,456 and 20 touchdowns on 182-of-367 passing ... Played in eight games and started three in '00 ... Came off the bench to throw game-winning touchdowns in the final moments vs. Texas and USC in 2000 ... His starts came in games four, five and six vs. Arizona, at Notre Dame and at Oregon State ... He threw for 1,179 yards and eight touchdowns while completing 92-of-204 with five interceptions ... He replaced Randy Fasani in the first quarter vs. #5 Texas and proceeded to throw for 214 yards and three touchdowns ... He threw the game-winning touchdown to DeRonnie Pitts with 1:12 to play to give Stanford a 27-24 upset win ... He came off the bench in the final moments vs. USC and threw a game-winning 20-yard TD pass to Jamien McCullum on the game's final play, giving the Cardinal a 32-30 victory ... Co-winner along with Kirk Chambers for the Menlo-Atherton Trophy as the team's top freshman in 2000 ... Two years of eligibility remaining.

When he finally got an opportunity to play due to injuries to Kerry Carter and Brian Allen, Kenneth was indeed impressive ... He had received little playing time through the first seven games of the season (six carries, 10 yards), but in game eight he got the call ... It was in Arizona on November 10 that Tolon opened some eyes with his 12-carry, 100-yard performance ... He was especially impressive on a 71-yard touchdown run against the Wildcats ... The following week against Cal, he carried 12 times for 82 yards and one touchdown, that coming on a 29-yard run in the second quarter ... He followed that performance by rushing for 133 yards on 18 carries vs. Notre Dame ... For the season, he carried 54 times for 346 yards, three touchdowns and a 6.4 yards per carry average ... He still has three years of eligibility remaining ... Career: Redshirted the 2000 campaign as a true freshman. ... First-Team All-State running back from Valley High School in Albuquerque, New Mexico ... USA Today Honorable Mention All-America.

A four-year letter-winner whose accomplishments are matched by few in the history of the Stanford football program ... In four years, Coy went from the team's leading rusher and top running threat, to Stanford's top tackler and one of the best defensive players in the nation ... In 2001, he again led the team and was among the league leaders in tackles with 92 ... Named First-Team All-Pac-10 linebacker ... Despite several injuries which plagued him throughout most of the season, he nevertheless started all 11 games and was the leader of the Cardinal defense ... Finished the year with a team-leading 92 tackles and 12 tackles for loss to go along with three quarterback sacks, two pass deflections and one fumble recovery ... He returned a fumble 89-yards for a touchdown against Arizona ... Had more than 10 tackles in four games, including 15 vs. Notre Dame, 12 vs. Arizona State and 11 each vs. Cal and Washington State ... Against WSU, he also had four tackles for loss and one QB sack ... Career: Perhaps no player in the history of Stanford football can make the claim Coy Wire can: team leader in both rushing and tackles ... While records do not verify this fact, certainly in modern times

Stanford has not had a player who led the team in rushing and then, two years later, led the team in tackles ... Wire has done just that ... He led the team in rushing in 1998 and tackles in 2000 and '01 after being moved from running back to safety to inside line-backer ... Coy had started seven games at running back from 1998-99, but was moved to safety in the spring of 2000 and then to ILB in the fall of 2000 ... He was the team's starter at running back as a redshirt freshman in 1998 before a hand injury forced him to miss the final six games of the year ... He still finished the year as the team's leading rusher ... Started the first two games of the '99 season and was a key performer throughout the year ... Has rushed for 615 yards and scored six touchdowns in his Stanford career ... At ILB, he started 21 consecutive games in 2000 and '01 and had a team-best 201 total tackles ... Honorable mention All-Pac-10 in 2000 and First-Team All-Pac-10 in 2001 ... Winner of two team awards following the 2000 season: the Gundelach Award as the team's top junior, and the Russell-Huston Award as the player exemplifying the highest standard of leadership, aggressiveness and competitive attitude.

Game #1

Stanford 38 Boston College 22

September 8, 2001
Stanford Stadium (41,250)
Stanford, California

Stanford left little doubt in its season opener that its 2001 club was indeed improved from the previous year. An experienced group of returning starters and lettermen dispatched of Boston College by taking a 21-7 halftime lead and building it to 38-16 in the fourth quarter before winning by 16 in its most lopsided opening day win since 1985.

Quarterback Randy Fasani threw for 232 yards and four touchdowns and the Cardinal defense held the Eagles and its star running back, William Green, in check throughout the day. Stanford scored 17 unanswered points in the second half to put the game out of reach.

After BC took an early 7-0 lead, Stanford finished the half by scoring 21 straight points to take a 21-7 lead at the intermission.

Sophomore Nick Sebes, playing in his first collegiate game, scored the Cardinal's first TD of the season on a 19-yard reception from a scrambling Fasani, capping a three-play, 42-yard drive and tying the game at 7-7. It was Sebes' first career reception.

WR Ryan Wells, who caught six passes for 138 yards, scored the first of his two touchdowns when he ran under a 46-yard TD pass from Fasani in the second quarter. The six-play, 74-yard drive gave Stanford its first lead at 14-7.

On BC's ensuing possession, Cardinal cornerback Brian Taylor intercepted a pass at the Eagles' 41 yard line and returned it 32 yards to the BC nine. Two plays later, RB Kerry Carter powered home from five yards out to put Stanford on top 21-7.

Boston College put itself back in the game by scoring the first nine points of the second half. Stanford helped the Eagles cause by giving BC possession on the Cardinal 19-yard line after a fumbled punt attempt. Although the Cardinal defense held BC out of the end zone, Kevin McMyler kicked a 45-yard field goal to pull the Eagles within 11 at 21-10.

On its next possession, BC drove 90 yards on 10 plays and scored on a 23-yard pass from Brian St. Pierre to Ryan Read. Suddenly, Stanford's lead had dwindled to 21-16.

It took the Cardinal all of three plays to get the touchdown back. Fasani and Wells hooked up on a 69-yard TD pass play with 1:52 left in the third quarter, extending Stanford's lead to 28-16.

The Cardinal made it 35-16 on its next possession by driving 97 yards on 14 plays for another touchdown. This time, Fasani's fourth TD pass went to WR Teyo Johnson, a converted quarterback playing in his first game at receiver. The 14-yard scoring pass put the game out of reach with 8:05 remaining.

Wide receiver Ryan Wells scored on a 46-yard pass in the second quarter and a 69-yard reception in the third quarter.

Green, who rushed for over 200 yards the week before, found the Cardinal defense swarming him every time he touched the ball. He had just 39 yards rushing on 14 carries in the first half and was never able to dominate as he did the previous week.

The Cardinal defense recorded two interceptions, which led to 10 Stanford points, two sacks and 11 tackles for loss in an impressive season opening performance.

Game #2

Stanford 51 Arizona State 28

September 22, 2001
Stanford Stadium (39,580)
Stanford, California

While the two teams combined to score 79 points and amass 1,053 yards in offense, it was the Cardinal's offense that did most of the damage against an Arizona State defense that had trouble stopping Stanford's ground game and air attack. The Cardinal improved its record to 2-0 for the first time since 1995.

In the end, it added up to a 51-28 blowout by the Cardinal. Stanford rushed for 223 yards and gained 548 yards in total offense as it led 30-13 at the half en route to its second straight win in 2001 and fourth straight win overall.

RB Brian Allen paced the Cardinal ground game with 134 yards rushing on just 13 carries. QB Randy Fasani enjoyed another four-touchdown game and FL Luke Powell provided the highlight film material. Defensively, ILB Coy Wire (12 tackles) and FS Tank Williams (11 tackles, 1 interception, 4 passes defended) led the Cardinal, which limited the ASU rushing attack to just 88 yards on 23 carries.

Stanford jumped out to leads of 7-0 and 20-7 in the first quarter after a pair of 80-yard drives and Powell's 51-yard punt return set up the Cardinal deep in ASU territory.

The Sun Devils lost an opportunity to take a 7-0 lead when FB Mike Karney's fumble at the Stanford one yard line went out of the end zone for a touchback, giving the Cardinal possession of the ball at its own 20. From there, Fasani directed a 10-play, 80-yard drive for the game's first touchdown. For the third time in five quarters, Ryan Wells was the recipient of a Fasani TD pass. Wells capped the drive with a six-yard touchdown reception from Fasani, putting Stanford on top 7-0.

ASU tied the score on its next possession, but Stanford came right back with another 80-yard drive to retake the lead at 14-7. After a five yard run on first down, the Cardinal drove down the field in three plays: a 23-yard pass from Fasani to Teyo Johnson, a 33-yard run by Allen and a 19-yard touchdown run by FB Jared Newberry.

The Cardinal defense then held ASU to three downs and a punt, which was promptly returned 51 yards by Powell to the Sun Devils' 17-yard line. Two plays later, RB Kerry Carter gave Stanford a 20-7 advantage after scoring on a three yard run.

Stanford's third 80-yard drive of the first half led to a Cardinal touchdown and a 30-13 halftime advantage. Nick Sebes, who made his first collegiate catch a touchdown in the season opener vs. Boston College, made his second career catch a TD as well, this one from 32-yards out.

ASU scored first in the second half, reducing the Cardinal lead to 30-20. But, the Cardinal came back with two unanswered touchdowns to put the game out of reach at 44-20 late in the third quarter.

TE Brett Pierce capped a six-play, 58-yard drive with a 25-yard touchdown pass from Fasani at the 8:59 mark of the third period. On Stanford's next possession, Fasani hooked up with Johnson on a 13-yard touchdown pass. It was Fasani's second straight four-TD game and his eighth touchdown pass without an interception.

Game #3

Stanford 21 USC 16

September 29, 2001
L.A. Coliseum (53,962)
Los Angeles, California

Stanford ran its overall record to 3-0 and its Pac-10 mark to 2-0 with a 21-16 victory over USC at the Los Angeles Coliseum. The Cardinal could boast of several milestones after the game, including: first 3-0 start since 1986; three straight wins over USC for the first time since 1955-57; second straight win at the L.A. Coliseum for the first time since 1955 and '57; first 2-0 Pac-10 start since 1999.

Indeed Stanford's win not only put it atop the league standings, but it also placed the Cardinal on the national landscape. Stanford moved into the top-25 rankings after the win (No. 22 by AP, No. 24 by ESPN/USA Today) and gave notice that it will be a challenger for the Pac-10 championship in 2001.

The game could be dissected in two distinct halves. Stanford led 21-0 at the intermission and had to hold on in the second half as the Trojans closed the gap to 21-16 and threatened to erase a very impressive first half for the Cardinal.

The Trojans took their opening possession to the Cardinal 29 and decided to go for it on a fourth and six play. But, RB Sultan McCullough was stopped for a two-yard loss by nose tackle Trey Freeman and the Cardinal took over on its own 31. Six plays later, it was 7-0 Cardinal after RB Kerry Carter scored on a four-yard touchdown run. The big play in the drive was a 50-yard pass play from QB Randy Fasani to FL Luke Powell.

Later in the first quarter, McCullough fumbled at the Trojan 35, putting Stanford in position to extend its lead. It took just two plays for the Cardinal to go up 14-0. Again, it was Fasani and Powell hooking up on a long pass play, this one from 34 yards out for the TD.

Stanford's third touchdown was set up after Ryan Fernandez intercepted a Carson Palmer pass at the Trojan 40-yard line. Fasani hit WR Teyo Johnson for a 27-yard gain which put the ball at the Trojan two. From there, TE Brett Pierce caught a two-yard touchdown pass from Fasani and with 8:53 remaining in the half, Stanford was up 21-0.

In the second half, however, the Trojans made a run. Two Cardinal turnovers and a Trojan punt return led to 16 consecutive points.

The Trojans' David Davis kicked a 41-yard field goal at the 9:48 mark in the third quarter to get USC on the scoreboard. The Trojans took possession at the Stanford 43 after recovering a Fasani fumble.

USC pulled to within 21-10 after Kevin Arbet returned a punt 47 yards to the Cardinal eight yard line to set up a first-and-goal for the Trojans. McCullough scored on the ensuing play on an eight-yard run and USC was back in the game with 6:00 to go in the third quarter.

Stanford mounted an impressive drive to begin the fourth quarter and looked as though it would add to its lead and put the game out of reach. The Cardinal took 9:32 off the clock by driving 76 yards on 17 plays to the Trojans' 22-yard line, setting up a Mike Biselli field goal attempt.

USC, however, blocked the field goal (by Chris Cash) and returned it 65 yards the other way for a touchdown (by Kris Richard). Instead of a two touchdown lead, Stanford's advantage had dwinned to five points. USC failed the two point conversion attempt to pull within a field goal.

Stanford had possession for 13:53 of the fourth quarter and held the ball for the final 4:13 to secure its third straight win of the year.

Game Notes

- Stanford beat USC for the third straight season for the first time since 1955-57.
- Stanford's 3-0 start is its first since 1986.
- The Cardinal held the ball for 13:53 of the fourth quarter.
- Luke Powell had four catches for 124 yards and one touchdown.
- Stanford held USC to 28 net yards rushing.

Game #4

Wash. State 45
Stanford 39

October 13, 2001
Stanford Stadium (40,950)
Stanford, California

Washington State scored the first three times it touched the ball and took advantage of several Cardinal mistakes to hand Stanford its first loss of the season after three straight wins. The Cardinal, ranked No. 22 by ESPN and No. 23 by AP entering the game, saw its record dip to 3-1 overall and 2-1 in the Pac-10 while WSU remained unbeaten at 6-0, 4-0 in Pac-10 play.

A Homecoming crowd at Stanford Stadium was treated to an offensive battle that saw both teams combine for 59 points and 525 yards in total offense in the first half. After the Cardinal fell behind 35-24 at the intermission, Stanford scored two unanswered touchdowns in the third quarter to take a 39-34 lead. But, the Cougars scored the final 10 points in the fourth quarter to secure the win.

The Cougars took control of the game in the fourth quarter as the WSU defense limited the Cardinal to just two possessions, four plays and eight yards of total offense in the final stanza. WSU, meanwhile, had two long drives that not only kept the ball away from the Cardinal's offense, but netted the Cougars 10 points.

WSU drove 86 yards on 11 plays for the go-ahead touchdown with 8:22 remaining in the game. Cougar QB Jason Gesser hit WR Mike Bush on an 11-yard TD pass for the score and a 42-39 WSU lead. After Stanford was forced to punt four plays later, the Cougars again drove down the field and scored. This time, WSU used over five minutes and drove 58 yards on 13 plays, culminating in a 26-yard field goal by Drew Dunning to give the Cougars a 45-39 lead with 1:03 to play.

Stanford took the opening drive 71 yards on 11 plays to grab an early 7-0 lead. QB Randy Fasani, who threw for 202 yards on the day, hit TE Darin Naatjes on a 10-yard TD pass. But, WSU came storming back to score 21 points in a 4:05 span to take a 21-7 lead.

Stanford made it 21-14 on RB Brian Allen's 17-yard touchdown run at the end of a very entertaining first quarter. Naatjes and Fasani hooked up again – this time on an 18-yard TD pass play – with 14:33 to go in the second quarter to pull the Cardinal even at 21-21.

Two key Cardinal mistakes allowed WSU to open up its lead to 35-21.

The Cougars broke the tie when Josh Moen blocked an Eric Johnson punt and Jeremy Bohannon picked up the loose ball and ran into the end zone from four yards out for a WSU touchdown. Later in the period, Billy Newman picked off a Fasani pass and ran 54 yards for a touchdown. A Mike Biselli 35-yard field goal in the final minute of the first half brought the Cardinal to within 35-24 at the intermission.

Allen, who rushed for 133 yards and three touchdowns on the day, scored twice in the third quarter. He scored on a one-yard run after Stanford took over on the Cougar six-yard line. Luke Powell's 46-yard punt return put the Cardinal in position for the easy score.

On the final play of the third quarter, Allen capped a 62-yard drive by racing 27 yards for his third TD of the game. The play put Stanford on top 39-35 heading into the fourth quarter.

Randy Fasani rushed 11 times for 33 yards and threw a pair of touchdowns against Washington State.

Game Notes

- Stanford suffered its first loss of the season, ending its five game winning streak.
- WSU scored two touchdowns on a blocked punt and an interception return.
- Stanford battled back from deficits of 21-7 and 35-21 to take a 39-35 lead.
- Stanford had two fourth quarter possessions that netted four yards on eight plays.
- Two teams combined for 59 points and 525 total yards in the first half.

Game #5

Stanford 49 Oregon 42

October 20, 2001
Autzen Stadium (46,021)
Eugene, Oregon

In a game that will be remembered as one of the greatest comebacks in Stanford history, the Cardinal scored 21 unanswered points in the final nine minutes to erase a 42-28 deficit and defeat the fifth-ranked Ducks 49-42 before a stunned crowd of 46,021 in Autzen Stadium.

The win not only pushed the Cardinal's record to 4-1 overall and 3-1 in the Pac-10, but it ended the nation's longest home winning streak at 23. Oregon and its fans were used to winning at Autzen Stadium and with a comfortable two-touchdown lead in the fourth quarter, many thought their 24th consecutive win was in the bag.

The problem, however, was that the Cardinal did not buy into that theory. Stanford came storming back on the strength of a blocked punt, an onside kick and an interception to score three, fourth quarter touchdowns and take a 49-42 lead with 1:10 to play.

Reserve QB Chris Lewis entered the game in the second quarter as starter Randy Fasani suffered a knee injury after playing an impressive quarter and a half. Fasani was seven-for-11 and led Stanford to three touchdowns before giving way to Lewis. The sophomore went three-for-10 for 28 yards in the second quarter, but came out in the second half to complete nine-of-16 for 161 yards and two touchdowns.

RB Kerry Carter tied a school record by rushing for four touchdowns, including the final two. He scored his third TD of the game with 5:32 to play on a fourth-and-one and his fourth score proved to be the game-winner – a three-yard run with 1:10 to play.

Trailing 42-28, Stanford closed to within a touchdown on a 24-yard pass from Lewis to FL Luke Powell with 9:09 to play. The drive was set up after Amon Gordon blocked a punt and recovered on the Ducks' 19-yard line. After a five-yard penalty by the Cardinal, Powell and Lewis connected on their TD play.

Stanford then attempted an onside kick, which was recovered by Colin Branch at the Oregon 40-yard line. Eight plays later, Carter scored on a fourth-and-one. The extra point, however, was blocked and the Cardinal still trailed, 42-41, with 5:32 to play.

On Oregon's next possession, QB Joey Harrington was intercepted by defensive end Marcus Hoover at Oregon's 33 yard line. Harrington, who was nine-of-11 for 173 yards and three touchdowns in the first quarter, was held in check over the final three periods, completing just 13-of-30 for 97 yards, no touchdowns and three interceptions.

It took the Cardinal eight plays to get into the end zone for the go-ahead score. On first and goal from the Duck six yard line, Stanford gave the ball to Carter on three successive plays, the last one going for three yards and a touchdown with 1:10 remaining.

Stanford then converted a two-point conversion on a "jump ball" play from Lewis to 6-7 WR Teyo Johnson.

The Ducks took possession on their own 28-yard line with 1:06 left in the game. Oregon, however, used nine plays and got as far as the Stanford 37 before a final "Hail Mary" pass went incomplete in the end zone.

Game Notes

- Stanford ended Oregon's 23-game winning streak at Autzen Stadium.
- The Cardinal scored 21 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to erase a 42-28 deficit.
- Reserve QB Chris Lewis replaced injured starter Randy Fasani in the second quarter.
- RB Kerry Carter tied a school record with four rushing touchdowns.
- Oregon threw for 203 yards and three TDs in the first half, but just 67 yards and two interceptions in the second half.

Game #6

Stanford 38
UCLA 28October 27, 2001
Stanford Stadium (64,495)
Stanford, California

Stanford continued to assert itself on the national map as it beat a top-5 team for the second straight week, this time handing fourth-ranked UCLA its first loss of the season after six consecutive wins. The Cardinal's convincing 38-28 win left no doubt that Stanford should be considered one of the best teams in the country.

The Cardinal improved its record to 5-1 overall and 4-1 in the Pac-10. Following the win, Stanford moved up to No. 10 in the Associated Press rankings, No. 13 in ESPN/USA Today and No. 6 in the BCS rankings.

Stanford powered its way to 213 yards on the ground and 463 yards in total offense against a defense that came into the game rated as one of the best in college football. The Cardinal, however, moved the ball in impressive fashion in the first half as the team scored four touchdowns and led 28-7 at the intermission.

The game started on an ominous note for the Cardinal. On the game's fourth play from scrimmage, QB Chris Lewis threw what appeared to be an incomplete pass to RB Brian Allen. Allen, however, was five yards behind the line of scrimmage and the play was ruled a lateral and a live ball. The Bruin's Ryan Neece promptly picked up the loose ball and raced 39 yards to the end zone for a UCLA touchdown and an early 7-0 lead.

But, the Cardinal offense was just getting started. Later in the first period, Lewis led Stanford on a 13-play, 91-yard drive that culminated in a 20-yard scoring play from Lewis to FL Luke Powell to tie the game at 7-7.

In the second quarter, Stanford scored on three straight possessions, thanks in large part to a Bruin fumble and interception.

Lewis threw his second TD pass of the afternoon to WR Teyo Johnson with 9:40 to play in the first half to put Stanford on top 14-7. On a second and goal from the three, Johnson out-leaped the UCLA defense on a perfectly thrown lob pass in the corner of the end zone.

On UCLA's next possession, DeShaun Foster, who entered the game as a leading candidate for the Heisman Trophy, fumbled at his own 35-yard line. Foster was held to a season-low 77 yards rushing on the day.

It took the Cardinal all of one play to score. RB Brian Allen darted through the left side of his offensive line 35 yards to the end zone, putting Stanford ahead 21-7.

Ryan Fernandez intercepted a Cory Paus pass at the Cardinal three yard line on the Bruins' ensuing possession. Again, Lewis took Stanford on a long drive – this one covering 97 yards on seven plays.

Teyo Johnson made an impressive "jump ball" catch for a touchdown in the second quarter.

Lewis hit WR Ryan Wells for a 52-yard pass play before connecting with RB Kerry Carter for the final 26 yards and a Cardinal touchdown. Stanford went into the locker room with a commanding 28-7 halftime lead.

In the second half, the Bruins made a charge. Mike Biselli's 30-yard field goal gave Stanford a 31-7 lead early in the third quarter. UCLA then scored 21 straight points and, with 4:49 to play, had cut the lead to 31-28.

On the first play of the Cardinal's ensuing possession, UCLA's Matt Ware intercepted a Lewis pass and with 4:36 to play, the Bruins had the ball at their own 39. UCLA, however, could not muster a scoring drive. Their fourth-and-six pass play fell incomplete at their own 43 yard line, giving Stanford possession and the opportunity to put the game away – which is exactly what Stanford did.

Carter scored his second touchdown of the game on a 27-yard run that gave the Cardinal a 38-28 lead with 2:00 left on the clock.

Game Notes

- Stanford beat a top-5 team for the second consecutive week.
- The Cardinal's 5-1 record matches the school's best since 1992.
- QB Chris Lewis, in his first start of the season, completed 20-of-29 for 250 yards and three touchdowns.
- Stanford held Heisman Trophy Candidate DeShaun Foster to 77 yards rushing.
- Stanford rushed for 213 yards and gained 463 against a Bruin defense ranked among the best in the nation.

Game #7

Washington 42 Stanford 28

November 3, 2001
Husky Stadium (72,090)
Seattle, Washington

Stanford's first win at Husky Stadium in 26 years would have propelled the Cardinal into the national spotlight and put Stanford in the hunt for the conference championship. But, as has been the case since 1975, Stanford left Husky Stadium with a loss.

In a battle between No. 10 Stanford and No. 11 Washington, it was the Huskies who scored two touchdowns in the final 3:48 to break a 28-28 tie and come away with a hard-fought 42-28 victory before a sellout crowd of 72,090 in Husky Stadium.

The loss left Stanford with a 5-2 record and a 4-2 mark in Pac-10 play. After playing nationally-ranked Washington State, Oregon and UCLA, the Cardinal concluded one of the toughest four-game stretches in school history.

Stanford jumped on top first and led 3-0 after taking the opening possession 48 yards on 11 plays. Mike Biselli's 30-yard field goal at 10:07 capped the drive.

Washington came back on its opening possession and put the ball in the end zone for a 7-3 lead. The Huskies drove 76 yards on 11 plays for the score.

The Cardinal came right back on its next possession and again moved the ball on the Husky defense. QB Chris Lewis, starting his second straight game for the injured Randy Fasani, led his team on an 89-yard, 12-play drive that consumed 5:53. RB Kerry Carter scored the touchdown on a two-yard run and Stanford found itself in the lead at 10-7.

But Washington took control of the game over the next 15 minutes of play and scored three touchdowns to take a 28-13 lead with 9:44 to play in the third quarter.

Stanford got back to within a touchdown when RB Brian Allen, who rushed for 138 yards and two touchdowns, outran the Husky defense en route to an 80-yard touchdown. Not only was the play tied for the eighth longest TD run in school history, but it immediately put Stanford back in the game at 28-20 with 9:25 in the third period.

The Cardinal tied the game at 28-28 with 10:01 left in the game when Allen capped a 69-yard drive by scoring from eight yards out and the Cardinal was successful on a two-point conversion. Stanford's eight play drive was highlighted by a 26-yard pass play from Lewis to WR Ryan Wells on a third-and-10 from the Husky 34.

After Allen's second TD, Stanford had to go for two trailing 28-26. Once again it was WR Teyo Johnson out-jumping a defender and coming down with the ball. Johnson's second two-point conversion of the season brought his team to a 28-28 tie.

Brian Allen scored two touchdowns, including an 80-yard run which is the eighth longest in school history.

Washington then used 6:13 of the clock and drove 77 yards on 14 plays to score the go-ahead touchdown with 3:48 left in the game. Willie Hurst, who rushed for 108 yards and three touchdowns, scored on a two-yard run.

Stanford took possession on its own 18 but could not muster a drive. A fourth-and-four pass fell incomplete and Washington took over on the Cardinal's 24 yard line. Three plays later, Hurst scored on a 15-yard run, ending Stanford's attempt to win for the first time at Husky Stadium since 1975.

Game #8

Stanford 51
Arizona 37November 10, 2001
Arizona Stadium (40,632)
Tucson, Arizona

Stanford returned to the win column after suffering its second loss of the season the week before at Washington. The Cardinal simply dominated Arizona 51-37 in a game that was not as close as the score indicated.

Stanford turned a 10-3 first quarter deficit into a 51-16 lead in the fourth quarter before surrendering three late touchdowns and allowing the Wildcats to pull within two touchdowns. Despite the score, this was a game that was all Stanford. The Cardinal moved to 6-2 overall and 5-2 in the Pac-10 after the win.

The Cardinal took the opening possession of the game and marched 35 yards on seven plays to take an early 3-0 lead on a 29-yard field goal by Mike Biselli. Arizona, however, scored 10 consecutive points to take a 10-3 lead with 4:07 to play in the first quarter. From there, Stanford outscored UA 48-6 in a span of 37 minutes.

Leading the charge for the Cardinal was RB Brian Allen, who rushed for a career-high 143 yards and WR Teyo Johnson, who had a career day with eight receptions for 116 yards and two touchdowns.

QB Chris Lewis, starting his third consecutive game for the injured Randy Fasani, was efficient in completing 13-of-23 for 169 yards and three TDs.

Defensively, FS Tank Williams was named the Pac-10's Defensive Player of the Week after his performance against the Wildcats. Williams returned a fumble 25 yards for a touchdown, caused a fumble which went for a touchdown, had one sack, one tackle for loss, one interception, one pass deflection and three tackles.

After Arizona built a 10-3 lead, the Cardinal scored on its next four offensive possessions mixed in with two defensive touchdowns.

Lewis and Johnson connected on two TD passes in those four possessions. A 23-yard scoring pass with 2:02 left in the first quarter tied the score at 10-10. Lewis then hit FL Luke Powell on a 26-yard pass to cap a six-play, 53-yard drive that put Stanford on top 17-10 with 14:05 to play in the second quarter.

On the Cardinal's next possession, Lewis and Johnson hooked up for TD No. 2 on a three-yard "jump ball" play in the corner of the end zone. It capped a 10-play, 69-yard drive and put the Cardinal ahead 24-10 at the 7:06 mark of the second quarter.

With the score reading 27-13 at the intermission, Stanford put the game away with two defensive touchdowns and a 71-yard run in the third quarter to make the score 48-16 after three quarters.

On Arizona's first play of the second half, Williams scored on a 25-yard fumble return. The Cardinal free safety took the ball in midair after FS Tank Williams scored on a 25-yard fumble recovery against Arizona.

ILB Matt Friedrichs jarred the ball loose from Arizona WR Bobby Wade on a completed pass.

After an Arizona field goal, Stanford's defense scored again on a fumble return. This time, ILB Coy Wire picked up a Wildcat fumble on his own 11-yard line and raced 89 yards the other way for a Cardinal touchdown and a 41-16 lead.

RB Kenneth Tolon, receiving his first extensive game experience, scored on the Cardinal's next possession on an impressive 71-yard run. Tolon gained an even 100 yards on 12 carries on the day.

Stanford finished its scoring on Biselli's third field goal of the day, this one from 21 yards out.

Three Arizona touchdowns in a span of 5:16 brought the Wildcats within 14 at 51-37 with 4:17 remaining in the game. But, the Cardinal managed to halt the scoring spree and take home its sixth win in eight games in 2001.

Game Notes

- Stanford led 51-16 with 10:44 remaining in the game.
- The Cardinal outscored Arizona 48-6 in a 37-minute span.
- Stanford scored touchdowns on fumble returns of 89 and 25 yards.
- RB Brian Allen rushed for a career-high 143 yards.
- WR Teyo Johnson had a career day with eight receptions for 116 yards and two touchdowns.
- FS Tank Williams had a TD on a 25-yard fumble return, caused a fumble which went for a touchdown, had one sack, one tackle for loss, one interception, one pass deflection and three tackles.

Game #9

Stanford 35 California 28

November 17, 2001
Stanford Stadium (71,150)
Stanford, California

While Stanford entered the 104th Big Game as a prohibitive favorite over the 0-9 Bears, the Cardinal had to struggle to beat Cal 35-28 for a series record seventh consecutive win. The Cardinal ended its Pac-10 season at 6-2 and assured itself of no worse than a tie for second place.

The Cardinal committed five turnovers, an uncharacteristic 10 penalties for 90 yards, had one field goal blocked and allowed three sacks against a Cal team that was determined to get its first win of the season. In the end, however, Stanford did manage to set a Big Game record by gaining 568 yards in total offense and made just enough big plays to hold off the Bears.

QB Chris Lewis did throw three interceptions, but in between completed 20-of-38 for a career-high 390 yards and four touchdowns. Two of those touchdown passes went to FL Luke Powell, who had a long TD pass play for the second straight Big Game.

Powell put Stanford ahead 7-0 in the first quarter when he capped an eight-play, 82-yard drive by catching a 23-yard touchdown pass from Lewis. A 23-yard run by RB Justin Faust and a 22-yard pass to WR Teyo Johnson were key plays in the drive.

Cal then scored 10 unanswered points on the strength of two Cardinal turnovers. Mark Jensen kicked a 43-yard field goal after the Bears recovered a Stanford fumble on the Cardinal 28-yard line. On Stanford's next possession, Lewis' first interception was returned 19-yards for a touchdown by the Bears' Nnamdi Asomugha, giving Cal a 10-7 lead with 3:01 to play in the first quarter.

Stanford quickly answered by taking its next possession and moving 79 yards on 10 plays to retake the lead at 14-10. RB Kenneth Tolon, who led all rushers with 82 yards on 12 carries, scored the touchdown on a 29-yard run.

The Bears held the ball for 6:20, drove 66 yards on 17 plays but had to settle for a field goal on their next possession. Jensen connected from 30 yards out for his second field goal of the day, pulling the Bears to within a point at 14-13.

Again, the Cardinal responded on the following drive. Lewis hooked up with TE Brett Pierce on a 45-yard touchdown play to cap a 75-yard drive, putting Stanford on top 21-13 at the intermission.

While Stanford was driving up and down the field, the Bears simply would not go away. Cal made it 21-20 after RB Terrell Williams scored from a yard out with 8:05 to play in the third quarter. The drive was set up after Atari Callen intercepted a Lewis pass at the Cardinal 42-yard line. Williams scored five plays later.

For the third time in the game, Stanford came right back on its next possession to score. This time, Powell supplied the firepower. On a second-down play, Powell, who had a 75-yard touchdown pass in the 2000 Big Game, caught a Lewis pass near the Cal sideline and raced 79 yards for a touchdown and a 28-20 lead.

Luke Powell scored on a 79-yard reception in the third quarter to help lift Stanford to its seventh straight Big Game victory.

Stanford extended the lead to 35-20 on the second play of the fourth quarter when Lewis hit WR Teyo Johnson from 31-yards out.

What appeared to be a comfortable lead evaporated quickly as the Bears scored on their next possession when QB Kyle Boller and LaShaun Ward connected on a 48-yard TD pass play. Cal's two-point play was successful and with 13:01 remaining, it was a seven-point game.

But the Cardinal defense stiffened. Cal's next four possessions all ended after three plays and a punt, and the Bears were never allowed to be in a position to threaten.

For the 50th time, the Big Game was decided by a touchdown or less ... and for the seventh straight time under Tyrone Willingham, Stanford came out on top against the Bears.

Game #10

Stanford 17
Notre Dame 13November 24, 2001
Stanford Stadium (51,780)
Stanford, California

The Cardinal scored two touchdowns in the final seven minutes to erase a 13-3 deficit and defeat Notre Dame 17-13 to run its record to 8-2 overall before 51,780 rain-soaked fans at Stanford Stadium.

QB Randy Fasani, returning to the starting lineup after a four-game absence, led Stanford on scoring drives of 81 and 59 yards in the fourth quarter while the Cardinal defense limited the Fighting Irish to 80 yards of total offense and five first downs in the second half.

While the Irish rushed for 241 yards, they netted just 64 yards through the air. Notre Dame completed just two-of-20 passes, including a one-for-16 effort by starting QB Carlyle Holiday. His only completion, however, went for a 47-yard touchdown pass to Omar Jenkins on a third-and-eight play with 2:12 left in the first quarter. The Irish drove 95 yards on 11 plays and used 6:21 to score its only touchdown of the game.

The Irish used another big play on its next possession to add to the lead. RB Julius Jones, who rushed for 106 yards on the day, got 59 of them on one play to set up an Irish field goal. PK Nicolas Setta hit a 23-yard field goal to push the Notre Dame lead to 10-3 in the second quarter.

As the Cardinal offense sputtered and struggled, Stanford's defense kept them in the game. The Irish did add to its lead in the third quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Setta with 8:39 on the clock, but Notre Dame could not mount another scoring drive the rest of the way.

Meanwhile, Fasani sparked the Stanford offense to long scoring drives in the fourth quarter. Trailing 13-3 with 8:46 remaining in the game, Fasani and the Cardinal took possession at their own 19-yard line. A 46-yard pass to Nick Sebes on a third-and-10 and a pass interference penalty on Notre Dame put Stanford on the Irish 20-yard line. On a third-and-10 from the 20, Fasani's scramble gained 11 yards and set up a first and goal at the nine. FB Casey Moore took the next play into the end zone for Stanford's first TD of the game.

Notre Dame was then forced to punt after four plays and 15 yards on its next possession and the ensuing punt gave the Cardinal the ball at their own 41 with 5:17 left in the game.

Again, Fasani and Company were on the move. RB Kenneth Tolon, who became Stanford's main runner when Brian Allen went out with an injury, was the workhorse on the drive. Tolon carried the ball seven times on the 10-play drive, gained 28 yards, and scored the game-winning touchdown on a one-yard run with 1:08 to play. Tolon finished the game with a career-high 133 yards on 18 carries.

Kenneth Tolon rushed for 133 yards and the winning score.

Fasani provided a big play on the drive when he ran for 19 yards to put the Cardinal on the Irish 18-yard line. Tolon's first two carries on the drive went for 11 and 10 yards as Stanford stayed on the ground for the entire drive.

Notre Dame's final drive lasted all of one play. Irish QB Matt LoVecchio's pass was intercepted by FS Tank Williams at the Cardinal 43 with less than a minute to play, sealing the game for Stanford.

Game Notes

- QB Randy Fasani returned to the starting lineup after a four-game absence.
- Stanford scored two touchdowns in the final seven minutes to erase a 13-3 deficit.
- RB Kenneth Tolon rushed for a career-high 133 yards and scored the game-winning TD with 1:08 to play.
- ILB Coy Wire led the Cardinal defense with 15 tackles and two tackles for loss.
- Stanford's defense held Notre Dame to 80 yards and five first downs in the second half.

Game #11

Stanford 41 San Jose State 14

December 1, 2001
Spartan Stadium (17,745)
San Jose, California

Stanford University clinched just its second nine-win season in the last 50 years with a convincing road win over San Jose State on a rainy Saturday afternoon in the Silicon Valley.

The Cardinal, which was making its first trip to Spartan Stadium since 1995, led from start-to-finish to snap its three-game losing streak against its South Bay rival.

The first quarter was a sloppy one, as both teams struggled to keep their footing on the muddy surface. The Cardinal fumbled the ball twice in the opening eight minutes, while San Jose State had two first quarter turnovers - a fumble and an interception - that led to 14 Cardinal points.

Stanford jumped on top with a seven-play, 71-yard drive that was capped by a three-yard touchdown run by Brian Allen on 3rd-and-goal with 2:44 left in the opening period. The drive, which was set up when Travis Pfeifer recovered a Bryce Partridge fumble at the Stanford 29, opened with a 54-yard completion from Randy Fasani to Luke Powell that brought the Cardinal to the Spartan 17.

San Jose State gave the ball back to the Cardinal two minutes later when Louis Hobson picked off a Marcus Arroyo pass and returned it eight yards to the San Jose State 19. Just three plays later, Fasani and Powell hooked up on a 19-yard scoring strike to put the Cardinal up 14-0 just 52 seconds into the second quarter.

Powell gave the Spartan secondary fits all afternoon, and finished with six catches for 158 yards and the score. The junior wide receiver also returned two punts for 72 yards to finish the day with 230 all-purpose yards.

The Cardinal tacked on another score in the closing minutes of the second quarter to take a 20-0 lead at intermission. After San Jose State turned the ball over on downs when it was stopped for a loss on a 4th-and-3 at the Stanford 16, the Cardinal went 87 yards on seven plays to go up by three touchdowns.

Fasani, who finished the game 12-of-22 for 256 yards, controlled the drive by rushing for 41 yards on two carries. The senior signal-caller capped the drive with a 34-yard quarterback keeper for a score just 1:20 before halftime. The ensuing PAT failed to keep the Cardinal lead at 20.

Stanford threatened to break the game wide open on its first possession of the second half when it drove the ball 55 yards on nine plays to the SJSU 27. The Cardinal, however, turned the ball over on downs to set up the Spartans' first scoring drive of the afternoon.

It was a wet, muddy game, but Stanford prevailed for its ninth win of the 2001 season.

San Jose State cut the lead to 20-7 when Clint Carlson connected with George Campos on a nine-yard touchdown strike with 4:44 left in the third quarter. The Spartan drive spanned 17 plays, 73 yards and 5 minutes, 33 seconds.

But the Spartan rally did not last long.

Stanford responded with a 10-play, 72-yard scoring drive of its own for a commanding 27-7 advantage with 14:49 remaining in the contest. Allen, who finished with 21 carries for 62 yards and two scores, finished the drive with an eight-yard scoring run on 2nd-and-goal.

San Jose State cut the lead to 27-14 on a seven-yard pass from Carlson to Edell Shepherd, but Stanford scored the final two touchdowns to break the game wide open.

Fullback Casey Moore, who had a team-high 68 yards on the ground, scored from five yards out with 5:30 play to make it 34-14 and Justin Faust scored on a two-yard run with 51 seconds to play for the final margin.

Game Notes

Notes on the 2001 All-Pac-10 Team

Selection Procedures: The All-Pac-10 Team is selected by the Pac-10 head football coaches.

By School: UCLA placed the most players on the first team with five selections. Arizona State, Oregon and Stanford were next with four each, followed by Washington State with three.

By Class: Of the 26 first-team selections, 14 are seniors, eight are juniors and four are sophomores. No freshmen made the first team.

Unanimous: Three players – punter Nate Fikse of UCLA, offensive guard Eric Heitmann of Stanford and tight end Justin Peelle of Oregon – were named on the first team ballots of all 10 coaches.

Repeaters: Five first-team choices are repeat selections from last year's first team – linebacker Lance Briggs of Arizona, tailback DeShaun Foster and cornerback Ricky Manning of UCLA, center Scott Peters of Arizona State and nose tackle Larry Triplett of Washington.

Duck Double Dippers: Keenan Howry of Oregon was named first-team All-Conference at both wide receiver and punt returner. A couple of other Ducks were named to the second team twice – Onterio Smith at running back and kick returner and Wesly Mallard at linebacker and special teams performer.

Classroom Stars: Center Kyle Benn of Washington and running back/kick returner Brian Allen of Stanford pulled off the difficult double of being named first-team on both the All-Conference and the All-Academic football teams.

Co-Freshman of the Year
Teyo Johnson, WR,
Stanford

Johnson, a two-sport star from San Diego, Calif., is a quarterback-turned-receiver and a member of Stanford's nationally-ranked basketball team. Making the move from quarterback to receiver in spring practice just last April, he has used his 6-foot-7, 245-pound frame to become one of the most unstoppable receivers in the Pac-10 and an integral part of the Cardinal offense which leads the Pac-10 in total offense and scoring offense. Johnson was second at Stanford in receptions with 38 and touchdown receptions with seven. He also had two two-point conversion receptions to his credit. Johnson averaged 14.9 yards per reception.

2001 Pacific-10 Conference All-Academic Football Team

To be eligible for selection to the academic team, a student-athlete must have a minimum 3.0 overall grade-point average and be either a starter or significant substitute.
