

Stanford Athletics has instituted revised security policies and is encouraging patrons to allow extra time for entry into venues. Please be aware that all persons and packages are subject to search. Security measures are constantly reviewed and subject to change as conditions warrant. Please continue to check gostanford.com for changes prior to events.

Security at entry gates will conduct a bag search and refuse entry to any persons possessing restricted items. Receptacles will be available if guests would like to discard prohibited items; otherwise they may take the items to their vehicles.
